AMES WINS BATTLE BY SMALL MARGIN

MISTAKEN PLAY BEATS OLD GOLD IN FIRST HALF

Was a Grand Exhibition of the Old Style Game--Ames' Goal Line Was Crossed for the First Time This Year

By a score of 20 to 15, Ames was the annual game with Iowa, penalty minus two, more than lost the championship of Iowa for another year. The game was characterized by the magnificent display of the old style of football by both teams, neither seeming to risk the precarious opening of the play. Ames made consistent gains around the Iowa ends who were unable to break up the great interference of the Aggies. Both teams played splendidly on the offense and neither line was able to stop the fast charging of the backs. The play was fast and snappy and the pace terrific, the whole game being a great test of the coalition of the teams.

Iowa's score was made by two drop kicks by Kirk and a touch-down by Hazard. In crossing the Ames line, Iowa accomplished for which neither Nebraska nor Minnesota was able to do. The turnover in the game was made by a direct straight line scrimmage after Iowa had secured the ball on Ames' 40 yard line. Twice again near the end of the game Iowa forced the ball within 5 yards of the goal but Ames held and punted out.

Ames' score was made by two touchdowns and two place kicks by Jeanson. One of the touchdowns came in the first half on a missed field goal play. Lambert ran half the length of the field for a second touch-down, the Iowa men stopping in the middle of the play. The half ended with Iowa in possession of the ball on Ames' 20 yard line.

Ames was unable to gain against Iowa's superior defense and the ball went to Iowa. On an attempted pass Ames played roughly and Reppert was ruled out of the game for burning Kirk. On an attempted forward pass by Ames Jevans recovered the ball at Iowa's 10 yard line.

At the end of 12 minutes of play Iowa secured the first score on a beautiful drop kick by Kirk from the 25 yard line.

Ames kicked off and after an exchange of punts in which Iowa was badly wounded the Aggies secured the ball on Iowa's 30 yard line.

Stil Lambert went around the end for a touchdown after 20 minutes of play. Score, Ames, 6; Iowa 4.

Iowa kicked off and recovered the ball on Ames' 50 yard line. Wines was held stubbornly and Kirk went back for a drop kick. Ball sailed squarely over the bar. Score at the end of 35 minutes play, Iowa, 6; Ames, 8.

Ames kicked off and soon recovered the ball. On a missed field goal play Lambert ran half the length of the field for a second touch-down, the Iowa men clipping in the middle of the play. The half ended with Iowa in possession of the ball on Ames' 20 yard line. On the first play Jevans broke through and tackled Lambert for a 10 yard loss.

any signs of tiring. The pace is terrific and few only choice is to win is to wear down the Ames Line in the closing minutes of the game. Both teams in displaying lightning fast spirit that nothing seems able to stop.

With minutes left to play Iowa still has a fighting chance to win. The spirit of the Old Gold in lighting on spirit battle is insurmountable. The stands have gone wild.

After a kick-off White went around the end for the twenty-five yard gain, and Iowa made a series of good gains. Ames held in the shadow of their goal posts and kicked out of danger. After a punting due Iowa secured the ball on Ames 35 yard line. At last within sight of victory the Hawkeye's last the ball on Ames 35 yard line and the game ended. Iowa 19, Ames 20.
