AMES WINS BATTLE BY SMALL MARGIN

MISTAKEN PLAY BEATS OLD GOLD IN FIRST HALF

Was a Grand Exhibition of the Old Style Game—Ames' Goal Line Was Crossed for the First Time This Year

By a score of 20 to 14, Ames won the annual game with Iowa, yesterday afternoon, thus gaining the championship of Iowa for another year. The game was characterized by the magnificent playing of the old style of football by both teams, neither seeming to risk the precarious open play.

Ames made consistent gains around the Iowa ends who were unable to break up the great interference of the Aggies. Both teams played splendid on the offensive and neither line was able to stop the fast charging of the backs.

The play was fast and snappy and the pace terrific, the whole game being a great test of the condition of the team.

Iowa's score was made by two drop kicks by Kirk and a touchdown by Hazard. In crossing the Ames line, Iowa accomplished that which neither Nebraska nor Minnesota was able to do. The touchdown was made by a series of straight line smashes after Iowa had secured the ball on Ames' 40 yard line. Twice again near the end of the game Iowa forced the ball within 5 yards of the goal but Ames held and punted out of danger.

Ames' score was made by two touchdowns and two place kicks by Jeanson. One of the touchdowns came in the first half on a misunderstood play, Lambert going half the length of the field.

Both sides punted frequently, the rival booters breaking nearly even on the distance. The average of the punts was due to the large number of onside kicks made by both teams.

The Varsity were met at the station last night by many loyal students and given some rousing yells. Although defeated Iowa spirit was by no means extinct and the "who-wah-wahs" were given with as much enthusiasm as that displayed at the big mass meeting.

[BY HERBERT M. HARWOOD]
STATE FIELD, AMES, NOV. 23, 1907—Special to the DAILY IOWAN—

Captain White won the toss for Iowa and Ames kicked at 2:48. White recovered the ball and returned 8 yards. Ames held for downs and Kirk kicked 25 yards. On the first play Jewell broke through and tackled Lambert for a 10 yard loss.

Ames was unable to gain against Iowa's superior defense and the ball went to Iowa. On an attempted punt Ames played roughly and Reppert was ruled out of the game for hurting Kirk. On an attempted forward pass by Ames Jewell recovered the ball and it was Iowa's on Ames 15 yard line.

At the end of 12 minutes of play Iowa secured the first score on a beautiful drop kick by Kirk from the 25 yard line.

Ames kicked off and after an exchange of punts in which Iowa was badly worsted the Aggies secured the ball on Iowa's 20 yard line.

Si Lambert went around the end for a touchdown after 20 minutes of play. Score, Ames 6, Iowa 4.

Iowa kicked off and recovered the ball on Ames' 30 yard line. The Aggies held stubbornly and Kirk went back for a drop kick. Ball sailed squarely over the bar. Score at the end of 25 minutes play, Iowa 8, Ames 6.

Ames kicked off and soon recovered the ball. On a misunderstood play Lambert ran down half the length of the field for a second touchdown, the Iowa men stopping in the middle of the play. The half ended with Iowa in possession of the ball on Ames' 30 yard line. Score, Ames 12, Iowa 8.

Between the halves the cheering crowds surged onto the field and paraded behind their bands. The gridiron became a mass of seething colors and the stands were practically deserted. The red and gold of Ames and the Old Gold of Iowa mingled in great waves of color and the volume of sound from the two bands and thousands of cheering students was terrific.

The supporters of the Aggies are wild with joy but the Iowa crowd has not lost its spirit and is still confident of snatching another victory from the jaws of defeat as they have twice done in the past.

The opinion of visiting football men seems to be that Iowa is playing superior ball and with an even break of luck should come back strongly in the second half and win. The old gold players are playing a magnificent helping game and show a spirit of clean football that the Aggies are not manifesting. The Ames men are playing rough ball. The only thing that predicts defeat for the visitors is their inability to cross the local goal.

hands twice, Ames finally recovering on Iowa's 40 yard line. The Aggies could only gain half of the required distance in three downs and Iowa took the ball.

Iowa failed twice on attempted forward passes, losing 30 yards in penalties. It is Iowa's ball on the 1 yard line. Kirk kicked out to the middle of the field. Ames advanced the ball on steady gains to the 20 yard line where Iowa recovered the ball on a fumble.

Hazard went through for a 15 yard gain to Iowa's 35 yard line. Ames held. Ames held. Kirk attempted to punt out of danger but the Ames line came through blocking the kick, one of the Aggies recovering the ball on Iowa's 36 yard line.

Iowa put up a stubborn defense and Ames was unable to gain. Jeanson dropped back and put the ball squarely between the bars on a goal from placement. Score at end of 15 minutes, Ames 16, Iowa 8.

After the kick-off Iowa played desperate defensive ball and Ames was forced to kick repeatedly. Iowa secured the ball on Ames 40 yard line. The old gold then went along with a beautiful series of straight plays for a touchdown, Murphy making 10 yards, Kirk 15 and Hazard bringing the ball to the 10 yard line by a 5 yard gain. At the end of 20 minutes play Hazard was pushed over for a touchdown. Score, Ames 16, Iowa 14.

Ames kicked off to Iowa and held our men, forcing Kirk to kick. By a series of good advances the red and gold carried the ball to Iowa's 25 yard line, when Jaensen made his second place kick. At the end of 25 minutes of play the score is Ames 20, Iowa 14.

Both teams are playing splendid offensive ball and neither line seems to be able to withstand the terrific plunges of the opposing backs. The play is fast and snappy and neither team shows stopping in the middle of the play. The half ended with Iowa in possession of the ball on Ames' 30 yard line. Score, Ames 12, Iowa 8.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Dance Program is Selected by Members of the Four Sororities

Final arrangements for the big Sophomore Cotillion are made. The committee after a great deal of careful consideration has selected the programs and also decided to have Dunkel's Orchestra furnish music for the auspicious occasion.

Tickets for the party are now in the hands of all the members of the committee and may be obtained at any time from the following gentlemen: A. V. Fowler, T. P. Worsley, C. C. Denio, R. E. Davis, Will Collin, E. L. Hawkins, W. Wernli, C. C. Coulter and E. Tilton.

The dance program has been selected after many weeks of discussion. It was finally decided by members of the four sororities. For every two-step there will be two waltzes. A feature of the program is the five "colored" dances.

Below is the complete program as it will be carried out by the committee on the evening of December the sixth:

EDWIN R. WEEKS COMES TOMORROW EVENING

Is a Burlesque Artist of the Best Kind

Edwin R. Weeks comes Monday night, Nov. 25, the third number in the University Lecture and Concert Course. He is a burlesque artist of the best sort and can be relied upon to produce a whirlwind of fun. He impersonates stage artists like Henry Irving, orators of the order of President Roosevelt, lecturers of the Eli Perkins type and withal is a capital singer. One of his best stunts as a speaker is his take-off of Mark Twain; his best as a singer is the operetta, "The Grasshopper."

His assistants are to present some very strong numbers of the program. Miss Alexander has a national reputation as a violinist. As a pianist Miss Gillispie has a very high reputation. The tickets for this remarkable concert are 35 and 50 cents for reserved seats.

any signs of tiring. The pace is terrific and Iowa's only chance to win is to wear down the Ames line in the closing minutes of play. Both teams are displaying a fighting spirit that nothing seems able to stop.

With minutes left to play Iowa still has a fighting chance to win. The spirit of the Old Gold in fighting an uphill battle is indomitable. The stands have gone wild.

After a kick-off White went around the end for a twenty-five yard gain, and Iowa made a series of good gains. Ames held in the shadow of their goal posts and kicked out of danger. After a punting duel Iowa secured the ball on Ames 35 yard line. Almost within sight of victory the Hawkey's lost the ball on Ames 5 yard line and the game ended. Ames 20, Iowa 14.
