TO PUBLISH BOOK OF DEBATE TEAMS

Will Contain Speeches and Pictures of Debaters

Publishing House Will Get the Book Out After the Debates
on December 13

A book containing the speeches and cuts of each of the debaters of the Central Debating Circuit of America will be published soon after the contest of December 13th.

Representatives of the publishing house will be in attendance at all the contests and take the speeches verbatim.

The following schools are in the Circuit: Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, and Wisconsin.

Because of the importance of the question and the fact that it will be one of the leading questions of the next campaign has convinced the publishers that a book of this kind should be printed.

It will be especially valuable among the universities and colleges because the subject is being extensively used for debate. At present Northwestern, Michigan, Chicago, Monmouth and Coe are working on the question.

Friday evening the debaters were favored with a lengthy discussion of the control of interstate transportation companies, by Judge Emlin McClain. Several valuable suggestions were given the men which will assist them materially in their preparation of the question.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS BEFORE CONFERENCE

Professor Smith is Hawkeye's
Representative

The reinstatement of University of Michigan into western football circles and the adoption of a seven game schedule instead of a five were the two questions which confronted the faculty representatives of the conference colleges in their annual fall meeting held yesterday in Chicago. Professor A. G. Smith of Iowa was the Hawkeye representative at the meeting.

Rev. Strain at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Strain, of the Congregational church, will address the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. His subject will be "Clean Sport and Right Living."

Dean Gregory Re-elected

Dean Charles Noble Gregory has just been re-elected member of the General Council of The National Civil Service Reform League at its annual meeting at Buffalo, New York.

WELLER IS TO OPEN COURSE

First of Whitney Society Lectures to be Given Tomorrow Afternoon

Prof. C. H. Weller, head of the departments of Greek and Archaeology, will open the Whitney society course of lectures on "The Drama" tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in the Liberal Arts assembly hall. Prof. Weller will speak on "The Greek Drama."

This year's course of lectures is really a continuation of last year's series on "The Beginning of the World's Great Literature," which was so successful. Last year the assembly hall was generally filled and the lectures were a success in every way.

From all indications this year's course is fully as good as the one of last year. The lectures are on interesting subjects, and are to be given by men of authority on these subjects. All the numbers will be brief and an effort will be made to confine them to forty-five minutes or less. All lectures will be held on Monday afternoons at 4:30 in the assembly hall of the Hall of Liberal Arts. The public is invited to attend.

Prof. Weller's lecture on "The Greek Drama" will treat primarily of the development of the drama from the time of the rustic dance of the ancient Greek peasants. It will include comments on the writers of both comedy and tragedy. Since the successful presentation of the Greek play, "Iphigenia" here last spring, many people are beginning to realize the importance of the Greek drama to the world's history and literature.

The complete course of lectures is as follows:

Dec. 2—Greek Drama—Professor C. H. Weller.

Dec. 9—The Roman Drama—Professor F. C. Eastman.

Dec. 16—The French Drama—Professor S. H. Bush.

Jan. 13—The English Drama—Professor C. F. Ansley.

Jan. 20—The Norse Drama—Professor G. T. Flom.

Jan. 26—The German Drama—Professor F. B. Sturm.

Varsity Defeated Fast Faculty Team

First Practice Game of Season
Resulted in Victory

With the faculty five playing a fast consistent game, the varsity, with erratic team work won a victory yesterday by a score of 48 to 26.

The first game of the season will probably be December 14. Manager Catlin is negotiating with the State Normal and the Cedar Rapids Y. M. C. A. for games on Dec. 6 and 7 on the opponents' floors.

IOWA EDUCATORS ATTEND CONFERENCE

Grinnell Meeting Addressed
by University Professors

President George E. MacLean
Reports on Recent National Convention

The fifth annual conference of Iowa Secondary Schools and Colleges was held in Grinnell Friday. The meetings of both forenoon and afternoon sessions were held in the Y. M. C. A. building on the Iowa College campus.

President George E. MacLean and Professors Bolton and Ensign represented the University of Iowa.

President MacLean gave a report of the meeting of the National Conference Committee of Colleges and Secondary Schools which he recently attended in Washington, D. C. Although the time limit for formal discussions was limited to fifteen minutes, President MacLean was given the privilege of speaking an hour. His report was received with much enthusiasm.

Prof. F. C. Ensign discussed informally, "Adjustment of College Entrance Requirements to Present Industrial Conditions."

Prof. Hugh S. Buffum, formerly of the department of Education, but now head of the departments of Psychology and Education at Cornell College, gave a short address on "What Should Revision of the School Laws do for Colleges and Secondary Schools."

F. M. Fultz, L. A. '86, M. A. '89, superintendent of the Burlington schools discussed "Manual Training and Domestic Science."

In the evening a 6:30 o'clock luncheon was served at Mear's Cottage by Iowa College. President J. H. T. Main of Iowa College acted as toastmaster, and Pres. MacLean and several of the visiting educators gave toasts.

President MacLean at Washington

Previous to his trip to Grinnell Pres. MacLean attended a meeting of University presidents in Washington, D. C. Many questions of educational importance among them being a proposal of a new National University, were discussed.

In such a University better facilities could be provided than at the different state institutions, as the purpose would be for research work exclusively. No degrees would be granted, and credit for any work done there would have to be given by the institution from which the student went.

Congress will be asked for an appropriation of one million dollars. It will not be necessary to have much in the way of buildings but the equipment will be the best and most expensive that can be procured.

Another question discussed was the application of the Carnegie pension fund to State Universities. Heretofore State Universities have not been included in the distribution but it is hoped that all institutions of higher learning may soon be included on the same basis.

C. C. ROWLISON AT ASSEMBLY

Ex-President of Hiram College
Makes Interesting Address
To U. of I. Students.

Rev. C. C. Rowilson, formerly president of Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, gave the address at assembly Wednesday morning. President G. E. MacLean, who had just returned from a meeting of university presidents in Washington, D. C., prefaced the address by expressing his appreciation over Iowa's clean playing at Ames. President MacLean's statement was received with enthusiasm and was applauded to the echo.

Rev. Rowilson's remarks were based upon prayer. He began his address by the statement, "I am here as a preacher to give you a few real things of life." He then related several spicy stories which clearly illustrated some of his main topics.

Rev. Rowilson said in part: "Prayer is a fundamental in life—in fact, it is life. Every one is putting his life into a great question. This is especially true in educational institutions. We are seeking for real life. Things which we actually enter into, are our progress. Words are insignificant besides motives. Prayer comes out of a soul's utmost motive."

Attitude of Press

There is a general feeling in the student body of the University that the press of the state, with a few exceptions, is not giving the University "a square deal" and that they are taking too hostile an attitude toward the U. of I. This feeling has been prevalent for some time but has been augmented by the appearance of the many articles and editorials in regard to the Iowa-Ames game.

The sentiment of the whole student body is that the state of affairs is deplorable. I think that any publication which takes advantage of any opportunity to assume a hostile attitude toward the University, has lost the fundamental idea which should prevail in the journalistic circles of the state. It should be the aim of every publication in the state of Iowa to "boost" every state institution and to make their influence felt throughout the state and country.

The accounts of the Iowa-Ames game demonstrated better than anything else the exact position of the press of the state. Most of the papers of the state mentioned the Reppert incident, but scarcely any took the trouble to condemn the act.

In my opinion the Cedar Rapids Republican gave the best write-up of the game and the incidents connected with the game of any paper I know of. Furthermore such scathing letters as were received by the Republican from the President of the Iowa State College and several of its professors show a lack of the proper spirit. L. O. S.

AUTHORITY QUOTED ON REPERT'S ACT

An Impartial Critic Severely
Condemns Ames' End

Stephenson of Des Moines Daily
News Scores Reppert in Reviewing the Incident

Noting the general agitation in sporting circles throughout the state regarding the Reppert incident in the Ames-Iowa football game, the following opinion by W. G. Stephenson of Des Moines is given. Stephenson has been connected with Iowa athletics for many years and as sporting editor of the Des Moines Daily News is one of the fairest and most impartial writers on state newspapers. His view of Reppert's questionable action is as follows:

"The Reppert incident is arousing a large amount of criticism and the Ames authorities are attempting to excuse his action. It is probable that no one action of any one player of the state ever aroused such a storm of indignation as did the roughing of Kirk in the recent game.

"The first charge that the Ames men are making is that Reppert has been too severely criticised in the newspapers for the action. The general opinion of the public who saw the game is that he did not receive the scathing he deserved. To the men who saw Reppert come down the field, who were close to the play, who happened to watch the big end instead of Kirk, there is but one conclusion, and that is that he did the deed deliberately. The men near the incident on the west side of the field will never be convinced that they did not see Reppert look full at Kirk when he had his hand above his head for a fair catch, and then gather himself together and make the spring that ended in his disqualification. The umpire saw this, and was, so prompt in putting the player off the field, that he was gone almost before the crowd realized that he had gone.

"Reppert's action was the subject of a large amount of conversation on the streets of Des Moines, Monday, and among possibly fifty or sixty men who were heard to express their opinion of the play, W. H. Bremner was the only one who expressed a doubt of the intention of the player, the others characterizing it as one of the dirtiest bits of football they ever saw.

"This is the first time in the two years that the recommendation that two disqualifications should bar a man has been in the rule book that a man has suffered the penalty twice in the state, in fact it is a question if any member of a large team has been disqualified twice in that time; and the action of the Ames authorities will set a precedent."

WANT STUDENT SENTIMENT We desire to sound student sentiment on every subject of current interest connected with the University.

As an inducement we will publish any communications over initials for the first month.

The DAILY IOWAN is not close enough to the student body.

Try your hand on any live topic concerning which you have a decided opinion.

Following are a few questions which might be agitated to good effect.

1. Should athletic relations with Ames be severed?
2. Has the sophomore class been unjustly treated?
3. What should be done to counteract the hostile attitude of the press of the state toward the University?
4. Should the class party committees embrace all colleges in the University?
5. What can be done to stir up the student councils?
6. Is an Iowa Union, a central club house for the students a practical idea and if so how can it best be accomplished?
7. Method of class elections. These are merely suggestions and only a few of the many important questions which constantly confront the students and faculty. Let us have your opinion.

While These Nice Days Last

We are all rejoicing at the fine weather we have had for the past many weeks. We should, however, temper our enthusiasm with reason and not forget that this is the season when we have a right to expect not only cold but blustery weather. Be prepared against the blizzard, even while the nice days last, and then you can smile when Old Winter makes your less provident friend shiver with the cold.

Waiting for the Ladies...

The lady who faces the proposition of buying something suitable for Christmas for a gentleman relative or friend should not worry but come to see us. We have many things that will suit, e. g., a Necktie, Muffler, Bath Robe or Smoking Jacket.

In Overcoats . . . there is such a wide range of styles this year that a man cannot raise the objection that none are to his taste. We carry the three-quarter length coat with extreme "box back" effect in all the best materials; also those more nearly form fitting, well lined and carefully tailored throughout. Our entire showing will interest you . . . $15 - $40

The Best Suits . . . we have ever had the pleasure of offering are included in our winter stock. ## --Young Men's New Winter Clothes Sharply Reduced

--The demand for snappy "college styles" in young men's suits and overcoats has been growing so fast in the past few years that we laid in an enormous assortment of them for this winter. But the cold weather has been so slow in coming that many young men have put off their purchasing with the result that our stock is altogether too large. We are going to hustle it out now like this:--

--young men's winter suits and overcoats, in all the dashing styles, colors and patterns, $18 values reduced $13--

$20 and $22 values reduced to $16.75

--extra trousers [heavy weights] proportionately reduced.
