ARRANGEMENTS FOR DINNER COMPLETE

Tickets on Sale in All Buildings, Today.

A program of Red Halloween Novelties, Frames, Imprints, etc., is arranged for the big University event of the month, that of the informal dinner to be given by the University Women's Union.

Many pictures are already on sale, and we will begin mailing to the registrants next Thursday. Tickets are placed on sale only in all the University buildings, and it is hoped that the large number of advanced sales it is thought that one of the greatest crowds of the year will be assembled in the Assembly.

The spectrocon's display shows the various county organizations and the Union buildings, etc. will be a pleasing feature of the program and will be explained by Mr. Paul A. St. Clair. Mr. W. R. Boyd, of the Cedar Rapids University, and C. N. Gregory, of the College of Law, and Miss Josephine Lynch, will be speakers of the event.

The Women's Improvement League, who have charge of the big dinner have made arrangements with surrounding farms, for a hundred chickens and a large quantity of provisions. It is not in the latter and the latter are going to give a better dinner than first planned. It will be served in town.

Several states have already made applications for tables and the committee have announced that a majority of them represented in the University will have places. Tables will also be reserved for the delegations from the various foreign countries.

"The committee has done everything in their power to take this one of the most enjoyable occasions of the college year and it is now up to the student to do their part by purchasing tickets. The price has been made popular so that everyone who attends. "Always for Iowa's the spirit which should be shown is regard to this dinner" said a member of the committee yesterday afternoon.

BOARD OF REGENTS MEETS TOMORROW

Senator Charles E. Clark Will Be Installed.

The executive committee of the Board of Regents is holding a quarterly meeting today in the Old Capital building today. Tomorrow the full board will consider the regular quarterly business and will be acted upon. Col. Charles E. Clark will probably be installed at this meeting.

WITH THE BOOKS

Through the kindness of Frank W. Wagner's Company, of New York, the Daily Iowan is in receipt of a copy of "The Church of Christ." This book is a remarkable one in that its subject, a religious one, is considered by a layman, who has been its success. We don't want this proposed crystallization of the "Christian University" or Iowa "County Club" spirit to turn out some more newspaper dope. We have started it successfully, so let's finish it successfully.

DR. F. E. BOLTON
HEADS COMMISSION
Government Appointed Committee
To Revise School Laws

The General Assembly last year authorized Governor Cummins to appoint a commission of three to rewrite this Iowa school laws. This committee was appointed in the last days of December and is headed by Prof. Bolton, director of the School of Education. The other members of the committee are lawyers, Arthur Springer of Wapello and Wm. H. Bailey of Des Moines. Educationally this is probably the most important commission that has been appointed since 1906 when Gov. Grimes was authorized by the Assembly to appoint a similar committee, which he did, naming Horace Mann, then of Ohio, Chancellors Dean of the Iowa State University and Attorney Frank Bisset of Des Moines.

"The educational interests of Iowa are safe in the hands of the committee, appointed, by Dr. Cummins," said an Iowa educator recently. "Dr. Bolton enjoys the confidence of school men throughout the state, has had wide experience in every phase of public school work and it is safe to say that anything which comes from his hand will be for the advancement of the school system of the state. The attorneys, Marcus, Springer and Bailey are widely known, have taken an active interest in educational work in their respective sections of the state and also it is difficult to say how a more efficient commission could have been named by the governor.

CHICAGO LOOKING FORWARD TO GAME

Do Not Regard Iowa Opponents
Lightly Says Macaroni

In a story on the Chicago preparation for the Iowa basket ball game (next Saturday at Chicago the Daily Maroon has the following to say:

"Encouraged by their big victory over Indiana Friday, the Maroons will Saturday morning prepare for their next opponent, the Hawkeyes, who will be met next Saturday night in Hartfield. The week started off with a rush, Dr. Raper finding the man up for a long practice scrimmage.

"The men are not looking lightly on their opponents from the Harvard college. Those are regarded as the hardest of the road and the Maroons encountered on their vacation trip. Chicago will win the game at Iowa by a score of 12 to 28.

"Hoffman, who quit the team last week to take up track work, yesterday rejoined the Varsity squad. Coupled with his addition came the announcement that Del Tray has left the basketball squad."

NOVEL FEATURES FOR JUNIOR PROM

Decorations Will Be Unusual At University Party

Chairman R. E. Smith of the Junior Prom committee stated yesterday that the sub-committee is working at work completing arrangements for the party. A meeting will be held either to-day or to-morrow at which time the details will be completed.

Negotiations are being carried on with two out of two orchestras to furnish the music for the occasion. The programs will be elaborately furnished by the Geo. A. Miller Co. of Des Moines.

The features of this year will be unique. They will center in a mammoth flower and will complete the decorations in the area. The indications so far are that the attendance will be very large.

FINE FEATURES OF HISTORICAL WORK

New Book Issued by Society On Anniversarry

Is Mechanically Perhaps Best Ever Published to State--Special Plates

In the latest publication of the State Historical Society, on the proceedings of the Fifteenth Anniversary of the Constitution of Iowa, one of the most perfect mechanical book productions ever put forth in Iowa is the result. With unexcelled binding, face, and borders, the book is printed throughout in 1000 cases, at a cost of $500.

An unusual feature of the book is the cut of the Old Capital, a portion of a gravestone, -the property of the editor of the book, Prof. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, given to the Society, which is an illustration of the form and spirit of the Public's Anniv.-

Many New Members Elected at December Meeting

The Early English Club began its program for the year with the study of early English and middle English literature. At the January meeting the subject of "Havelok, the Dane," was discussed and a paper was read by Miss Greyer.

The first regular meeting of the year was held in December, at which meeting the following new members were elected: Professor Sturm, Mr. G. W. Hanisch, Miss Alice Wilson, Mary Linn, Mary Meyer, Katherine Dresky, Daisy Morison, Nina Hohenscheid, Edith Hinkle, Taylor, Ethel Bebe, Mrs. Volland, Mr. Richardson, Miss E. Mickleon, Miss Gene Gross, Miss Dorothy Franke.

COMMUNICATIONS

Iowa and Ames

"Can we afford to break with Ames?" was the question appearing in the Sunday issue of the Iowa... The Iowa spirit showed itself with greater enthusiasm than ever before. This must continue if we are to have a Greater University. The Iowa spirit was shown with the Iowa-Ames game was considered the big event of the year, to win the biggest game, and Iowa has always played quietly. Eligible represented her, in athletic contests, with Iowa taking the foreground of the game.
