"TWELFTH NIGHT" ON THE THIRTEENTH

ILINOIS ALUMNI ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Reception in Honor of University Guests

Union League Club Scene of Big Event in University History

In Chicago, a banquet took place last night that should mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the greatest University movement and year-round spirit. R. C. Butler, vice pres-tent of the Illinois Alumni Association entertained thirty prominent men at a noon luncheon in honor of several University presidents and in the evening presided at a monitor banquet at the Grand Pacific Hotel. This was the fine annual banquet of the Class Alumni and the sentiment around means much for the future.

The guests of honor at the luncheon were, President Mack, Dean McCullum, and Prof. Anne N. Currier and McDermott, and Alumni Secretary M. L. Ferson.

Among the guests were many prominent men, many of whom are national figures. These guests were, Judge Peter S. Griswold, Judge Joseph M. Laflin, John S. Miller, John S. Randalls, Judge W. E. Kenyon, Judge Marcus Kavanagh, Judge sher M. Tjonson, Judge Fred S. Smith, Judge Loux Holdom, Judge O. N. Carrier, Judge C. S. Cutting, A. E. Goddard, Nelson S. Lameri, G. W. Traer, Dinan D. Knight, W. S. Stevens, W. H. Seaman, J. N. Keefee, Bertun Hasson, Eldon J. Cassady, D. F. Crilly, Lin M. Butler, Fred A. Snow, G.E. Shambaugh, H. L. McKinley, Geo. R. Skinier, E. C. Lindsay, H. K. Tenney, J. W. Price, Arthur Underwood, Roger Sherman and E. A. Murphy.

A list of those attending the banquet of the association at the Grand Pacific hotel would be impossible. The number of guests give evidence of the love of the old "grads" of Iowa for their alma mater. The program of the banquet was enthusiastically reterred at the address of welsome.

Expressions were many that the banquet was significant in the history of the Greater University movement. It marks the organisation of the support of the Illinois alumni outside of the state as it was organized within the state by

"TWELFTH NIGHT" NEXT THURSDAY

Drumatic Club to Give Production This Week

Miss Ethel Elliott gives Val-able Assistance-Special Costumes and Scenery

"Twelfth Night" will be given Thursday at the Children's Opera House by the University Dramatic Club. This cast contains of twenty-four of the best amateurs in school and the play will be elaborate in every detail. The costumes which have been obtained at considerable expense, are historically correct.

The University Orchestra has been engaged to play the old English airs throughout the entire production. This will be a feature which will undoubtedly be greatly appreciated by the au-

ci

Another feature of the play will be the famous duel scene in the Fourth Act. This will not be the usual stage "duel" as the principals have been trained in fencing for several weeks by Miss Alice Wilkinson, Director of Physical Training for Women.

Miss Ethel Elliott, who is coaching the Dramatic Club, arrived in Iowa City last Thursday and was delighted at the progress already made in the rehearsal.

"It is a pleasure," Miss Elliott said, "to coach people who have a dramatic understanding of their lines. This is a rare quality in amateurs but the members of the Dramatic Club are really good and I anticipate a big success for their production of Twelfth Night on February 13. Shakespeare's comedies, above all other stage literature, are the hardest to give satisfactorily but the cast has worked faithfully and deserve great credit for their excellent reading of the lines." The scenes will be placed on the stage Tuesday and the present interest exhibited by the students indicates a large attendance.

GOOD AUDIENCE FOR CONCERT COMPANY

Big Advance Sale of Tickets for Entertainment

That the concert by the Sker-gard Company tomorrow night promises to be the best in the lecture course seems to be the general opinion of those who are holders of season tickets to the series. The way the reserved seats are going would indicate that the public agree with this opinion.

GYPHERS DEFEAT HAWKEYE TEAM

Old Cold is Defeated in Fast Contest

Largest Crowd of the Year Was Present - The Score was 23 to 25 - Many Subs Used

Minnesota defeated Iowa last evening by the score of 33 to 25. The game was characterized by low scoring but good playing. Iowa was never in the game. For Minnesota Anderson and Hanson played the star game, while Stewart played a good game for the Hawkeyes. Barkworth was successful in making two baskets during his ten minutes of play.

The next game will be with the home team on the home floor February 10.

Nearly every seat was filled during the game.

The line-up was: Iowa - Nott, 9, Butler, 2; Brockman, 1; Morrissey, 7; Minnesota - Denning, r; Hansen, 9; Anderson, c; Croftfieldberg, c; Cahley, g.

Summary - Goals: Stewart 2, Noffin 3, Morrissey 1, Perline 1, Barkworth 2, Hansen 6, Morrissey 1. Free throws: Ramsey 3; Buckner 2; Perline 1; Mor-

NEW METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A powerful element will be added to the already strong religious influence on the student life in the University of Iowa today, when the beautiful and costly new Methodist Episcopal church will be dedicated and formally opened. The dedication services start this morning at 10 o'clock and last four days, ending Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

The building was designed by Architects Chas. O. Henry & Son, of Akron, Ohio, and constructed by Mr. F. S. Fryder, of this city. One of the most attractive parts of the decorations is the Art Glass, which was designed and executed by the Pittsburgh Plate-Glass Co. of Davenport, Iowa, being carried out in the Gothic style, to be in harmony with the architecture of the building. Special mention must be made of the figure subjects, with their beautiful colorings in the two large windows: "The Ies Risen," by Pitchburn, and "Christ and the Woman of Samaria," by Hoffmann.

CHURCH WINDOWS

Never Too Much of a Good Thing

Last week our Mr. L. J. Willner completed a purchase of over 3600 fancy waistcoats from one of the best specialty vest houses in Chicago.

They were bought for a song, as the price quoted will demonstrate.

The colors comprise all the shades of brown and grays in plaids, figures and stripe affairs.

Some of these vests are worth $3, while most of them are worth $5, $10 and $7.50 and we’re going to run the whole lot at

$1.85

Read this adv. again and remember that the materials used in the manufacture of these waistcoats is absolutely the finest silk and wool worsted and French flannels.

Note display in our windows. This sale is merely a slight demonstration of our GREAT SEVEN STORE PURCHASING POWER.
