"TWELFTH NIGHT" ON THE THIRTEENTH

ILLINOIS ALUMNI ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Reception in Honor of University Guests

Union League Club Scene of Big Event in University History

In Chicago, a banquet took place last night that should mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the Greater University movement and yesterday noon Rush C. Butler, vice president of the Illinois Alumni Association entertained thirty prominent men at a noon lunch in honor of several University guests and in the evening presided at a monster banquet at the Grand Pacific Hotel. This was the first annual banquet of the Illinois Alumni and the sentiment aroused means much for the future of the University.

The guests of honor at the luncheon were, President MacLean, Justice McClain, and Profs. Amos N. Currier and McBride, and Alumni Secretary M. L. Ferson.

Among the guests were many prominent men, many of whom are national figures. These guests were, Judge Peter S. Grosscup, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, John S. Miller, John S. Runnells, Judge W. S. Kenyon, Judge Marcus Kavanagh, Judge Oscar M. Torrison, Judge Fred A. Smith, Judge Jesse Holdom, Judge O. N. Carter, Judge C. S. Cutting, L. A. Goddard, Nelson N. Lampert, G. W. Traer, Thomas D. Knight, J. W. Stevens, H. W. Seaman, J. S. Keefe, Burton Hanson, Eldon J. Cassoday, D. F. Crilly, Lin M. Butler, Fred A. Stowe, G. E. Shambaugh, M. L. McKinley, Geo. R. Skinner, E. C. Lindley, H. K. Tenney, H. W. Price, Arthur Underwood, Roger Sherman and E. A. Murphy.

A list of those attending the banquet of the association at the Grand Pacific hotel would be impossible. The number of guests gave evidence of the love of the old "grads" of Iowa for their alma mater. The program of toasts was enthusiastically received after the address of welcome.

Expressions were many that the banquet was significant in the history of the Greater University movement. It marks the organization of the support of Iowa alumni outside of the state as it was organized within the state by

KNOWLTON IS SUSPENDED

Dean of the Liberal Arts College Takes Decisive Action Pending Move of Faculty

Will P. Knowlton, of Decorah, Iowa, the athlete whose ineligibility was brought to the attention of the University two days ago, was promptly suspended by Dean Weld, of the College of Liberal Arts, pending the action of the faculty of the University. There is practically no doubt the faculty will stand by this action and it is possible the sentence will be turned into expulsion.

Exactly forty-eight hours after the matter was brought to the attention of the Iowa authorities the machinery had acted and the Hawkeye half back who played at Upper Iowa University on the baseball team without proper registration in the college and in direct violation of the state and conference rules was declared no longer a student in the University of Iowa.

Regret is expressed on all sides that the incident occurred and that it is being featured under an Ames date line in the papers of the state. There is sympathy on all sides for the athlete who has many friends in the University but when the news reached the campus it was regarded as inevitable that the committee on discipline would be obliged to act.

The members of the athletic board had nothing to say on the subject yesterday as they felt that the board had no jurisdiction over the matter after it went to the Liberal Arts faculty. The board performed its whole duty when it supplied the copies of the rules to the athletes with a request to read for a week before signing the eligibility papers last fall at the beginning of the season. Knowlton signed these papers with the other athletes.

KENT SIGNS WITH HASKELL INDIANS

Will Coach the Indians Next Fall in Football

Maurice A. Kent, one of the most prominent athletes the University has ever turned out, will coach the Haskell Indians in football next fall. Kent signed a contract yesterday. He will graduate this spring.

Art Club Meeting

Tomorrow evening at seven thirty o'clock the Art Club will hold its regular meeting in Room 105 L. A. The subject to be discussed is "Ruebens" and will be lead by Miss Schultz.

"TWELFTH NIGHT" NEXT THURSDAY

Dramatic Club to Give Production This Week

Miss Ethel Elliott Gives Valuable Assistance—Special Costumes and Scenery

"Twelfth Night" will be given Thursday night at the Coldren Opera House by the University Dramatic Club. The cast consists of twenty-four of the best amateurs in school and the play will be elaborate in every detail. The costumes, which have been obtained at considerable expense, are historically correct.

The University Orchestra has been engaged to play the old English airs throughout the entire production. This will be a feature which will undoubtedly be greatly appreciated by the audience.

Another feature of the play will be the famous duel scene in the fourth Act. This will not be the usual stage "duel" as the principals have been trained in fencing for several weeks by Miss Alice Wilkinson, Director of Physical Training for Women.

Miss Ethel Elliott, who is coaching the Dramatic Club, arrived in Iowa City last Thursday and was delighted at the progress already made in the preliminary rehearsals.

"It is a pleasure," Miss Elliott said, "to coach people who have a dramatic understanding of their lines. This is a rare quality in amateurs but the members of the Dramatic Club certainly have it and I anticipate a big success for their production of Twelfth Night on February 13. Shakespeare's comedies, above all other stage literature, are the hardest to give satisfactorily but the cast has worked faithfully and deserve great credit for their excellent reading of the lines."

The seats will be placed on sale Tuesday and the present interest exhibited by the students indicates a large attendance.

GOOD AUDIENCE FOR CONCERT COMPANY

Big Advance Sale of Tickets for Entertainment

That the concert by the Skovgaard Company tomorrow night promises to be the best in the lecture course seems to be the general opinion of those who are holders of season tickets to the course. The way the reserved seats are going would indicate that the public agree with this opinion.

M'DOWELL TO GIVE SERMON

Bishop is Well Known in Iowa City Having Delivered Baccalaureate Last Spring

William Fraser McDowell, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Chicago, will give the sermon at the dedication exercises of the new Methodist Episcopal Church this morning. He is well known here, having delivered the University baccalaureate sermon last June. Bishop McDowell was formerly Chancellor of the University of Denver. He is considered one of the most eloquent clergymen in the United States.

In the afternoon a special service for University students and the young people's societies of the various churches. Bishop McDowell will deliver an address at this service also.

The elaborate dedicatory exercises of the new Methodist Episcopal church will begin today covering a period of four days. The program of these exercises has been printed in a neat little booklet. Three services will be held today to mark the opening of the church.

On Monday the services will consist chiefly of a series of short addresses. Tuesday evening will occur the big pipe organ recital by W. H. Donley of Indianapolis. Wednesday evening the ladies of the church will serve a banquet which will be followed by short toasts by prominent speakers.

Cedar Rapids Alumni Banquet

The Cedar Rapids University Club entertained their guests at a banquet at the Montrose Friday evening, the affair being in charge of H. E. Spangler, formerly manager of athletics here and now assistant city attorney at Cedar Rapids. John S. Brocksmith, president of the club introduced the speakers. The toasts follow: President George E. MacLean, "University of Iowa." Dean Charles Noble Gregory, "Cedar Rapids and the University." Arthur H. Sargent, "The Alumni and the University." On behalf of the Triangle Club, President MacLean invited the Cedar Rapids organization to be their guests in Iowa City in the near future.

Government Makes Request

A request has come from the government laboratories at Washington, D. C., asking for a description of the microscope lamps devised by Dr. G. L. Houser for use in the laboratories of animal biology at the University of Iowa.

GOPHERS DEFEAT HAWKEYE TEAM

Old Gold is Defeated in Fast Contest

Largest Crowd of the Year Was Present—The Score Was 33 to 25—Many Subs Used

Minnesota defeated Iowa last evening by the score of 33 to 25. The game was characterized by its fastness and also some rough playing was evident.

The Gophers had a different line-up in last evening's contest than that they used against Grinnell. For Minnesota Anderson and Hanson played the star game.

Stewart played a good game for the Hawkeyes. Burkheimer was successful in making two baskets during his ten minutes of play.

The next game will be with Illinois on the home floor February 14.

The following was the line-up: Iowa—Stewart, rf; Norton, lf; Ramsell, c; Buckner, rg; Morrissey, lg.

Minnesota—Deering, rf; Hansen, lf; Anderson, c; Critchfield, rg; Cabaley, lg.

Summary—Goals: Stewart 2, Norton 1, Ramsell 1, Buckner 1, Morrissey 1, Perrine 1, Burkheimer 2, Deering 3, Hansen 6, Anderson 6.

Free throws: Ramsell 6, Buckner 1, Deering 2, Anderson 1.

Substitutions: Perrine for Ramsell, Burkheimer for Norton, Hansen for Buckner, Brown for Morrissey.

Referee: Hyland.

FRESHMAN GIRLS TO GIVE PARTY

Will Entertain at Majestic in Near Future

The girls of the Freshman class will give a leap year party to the boys of that class some time in the near future. A committee has been appointed which has charge of all arrangements. The following girls are members: Lousia Adams, chairman; Elizabeth Sartore; Bertha Wheeler; Harriet Frazier; Katherine McKorkindale, Mathilda Hanke, Hazel Reddick, Mary Shearer, Mildred DeLano and Ross Drake.

Hawkeye Notice

All Hawkeye pictures, individual and group, must be in by February 15. Arrangements must be made with the editors for any picture that cannot be taken before that time or we shall consider it is not coming in and will allow no space for it.

PROMINENT ALUMNUS
DEAD IN CHICAGO

Andrew J. Hirschl Passed Away Friday

Andrew J. Hirschl, L. '75, a prominent Illinois lawyer, died last Thursday at Augustana Hospital in Chicago.

Mr. Hirschl received his B. A. degree from Amherst in 1873 and completed his law course at the State University of Iowa. He was for a time lecturer in the College of Law here.

He had suffered from a nervous breakdown since last April, from which he never recovered.

Debaters Chosen

At its meeting Friday night Irving Institute selected five sophomores to meet teams from Zetagathian and Philo. The men chosen were: Clifford Powell, Clarence Hanson, Fred Pownall, Ray Thompson and Forest Theobald.

Of these five men, three will be chosen to debate Zetagathian and two to meet Philo. The men will probably be divided into teams by Irving's Inter-collegiate debaters.

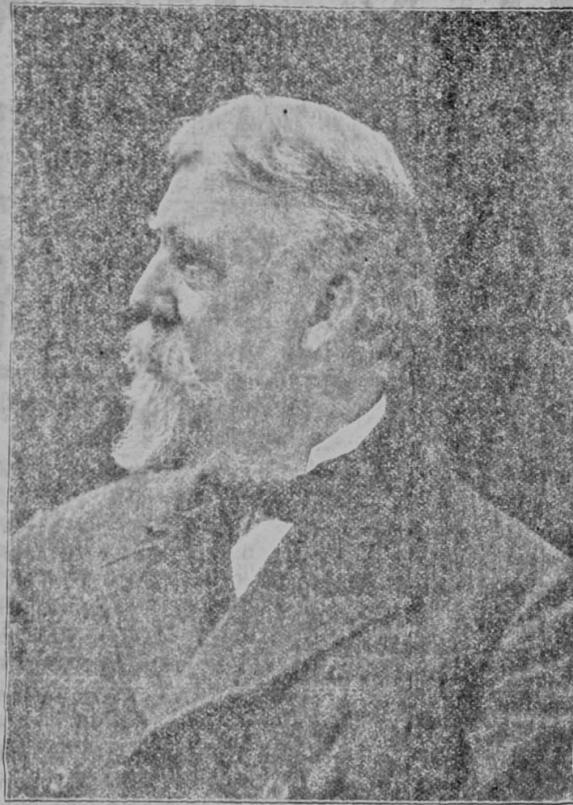

Sig Alphas Entertain

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave one of the most successful formal fraternity parties in the history of University social life at the Majestic Hall Friday evening. Tastily decorated with clever devices the hall was unusually pretty and with the good music and elaborate refreshments the function was one of the most pleasing of the season.

MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY--NO. 7

PROFESSOR T. H. MACBRIDE

Professor Thomas Huston Macbride was born at Rogersville, Tennessee, July 31, 1848. He received his college training at Monmouth (Ill.) College. He received the B. A. degree in 1869 and the degree of M. A. in 1872. Later his alma mater conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

After the completion of his college course he went abroad and studied one semester in the laboratories of Bonn, Germany, Professor Macbride became a member of the instructional staff of the University of Iowa. In 1884 the chair of Botany was divided and Professor Macbride was made professor and head of the department of Botany.

In 1895 he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Lenox College.

Professor Macbride is a frequent contributor to the Popular Science Monthly, Science, and various scientific journals. He is editor of the Bulletin of the Laboratory of Natural History of the State University of Iowa. He is also author of "Elements of Botany" and "North American Slime-Moulds."

Prof. Macbride is a special student of fungi and is recognized throughout this country as an authority on this subject.

Besides a large number of botanical societies Prof. Macbride is a member of Sigma Xi and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He is also a Fellow of the American Society of Geologists.

Last night he responded to a toast at the big banquet of the Illinois Alumni Association at the Grand Pacific hotel in Chicago. Professor Macbride is also active in University Extension work. He delivered a lecture Friday night at Estherville.

The Harvard Medical School .. BOSTON, MASS.

With the completion of the new buildings which we dedicated September 25th, 1906, this school now has facilities and equipment for teaching and research in the various branches of medicine probably unequalled in this country. Of the five buildings four are devoted entirely to laboratory teaching and research. Numerous hospitals afford abundant opportunities for clinical instruction in medicine and surgery.

COURSE FOR THE DEGREE OF M. D.
A four years' course open to bachelors of arts, literature, philosophy or science, and to persons of equivalent standing, leads to the degree of M. D. The studies of the fourth year are wholly elective; they include laboratory subjects, general medicine, general surgery and the special clinical branches. The next school year extends from October 1, 1908 to June 1, 1909. The diploma of Iowa University is accepted for admission.

FRESHMAN STUDENT DIES AT HOME

Albert Walker of Linden Succumbs to Heart Trouble

Albert Walker, L. A. '11, died at his home at Linden, Iowa, last Thursday, February 6. Mr. Walker had been suffering from organic heart trouble for some time and was not able to return to the University after the holidays.

The young man became a member of the Y. M. C. A. during his attendance at this school and was a prominent worker in that organization. He was a conscientious student and made excellent progress.

His sister and two friends, students in the University, left Friday to attend the funeral.

SPLENDID STRUCTURE TO BE DEDICATED TODAY

NEW METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A powerful element will be added to the already strong religious influence on the student life in the University of Iowa today, when the beautiful and costly new Methodist Episcopal church will be dedicated and formally opened. The dedication services start this morning at 10 o'clock and last four days, ending Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The building was designed by Architects Chas. O. Henry & Son, of Akron, Ohio, and constructed by Mr. F. X. Fryder, of this city. One of the most attractive parts of the decorations is the Art Glass. This was designed and executed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., of Davenport, Iowa, being carried out in the Gothic style, to be in harmony with the architecture of the building. Special mention must be made of the figure subjects, with their beautiful colorings in the two large windows: "He Is Risen," by Plockhurst, and "Christ and the Woman of Samaria," by Hoffmann.

Never Too Much of a Good Thing

Last week our Mr. L. J. Willner completed a purchase of over 3600 fancy waistcoats from one of the best specialty vest houses in Chicago.

They were bought for a song, as the price quoted will demonstrate.

The colors comprise all the shades of brown and grays in plaids, figures and stripe affairs.

Some of these vests are worth $3, while most of them are worth $5, $6 and $7.50 and we're going to run the whole lot at

$1.85

Read this adv. again and remember that the materials used in the manufacture of these waistcoats is absolutely the finest silk and wool worsteds and French flannels.
