DEBATING CONTEST
FRIDAY EVENING
Finals for the University Championship

Marshall Laws and Zetagathians to Decide Forensic Leadership

The University championship debate will be held in the Auditori- um, Friday evening, March 12, between the Marshall Laws and the Zetagathians. It is the rec- tangular drawing for sides of the question the Zetas get the affirmative and the Laws drew the negative.

The contest is expected to draw a large crowd inasmuch as the mem- bers of the societies defeated in its preliminaries are as much enti- tled to a win in the championship as the Zetas and the Laws. As the nature of the debate, the members of the Forensic League believe there is no easy reason to fear that the new debating system is a success.

A disruption of the whole con- test was narrowly averted when at the last minute a change of sides to which the Laws were opposed. This however has been satisfactorily settled and provision is being made in the arrangements to the constitution of the leagues to avoid any similar trouble in the future.

The Zetagathian team consists of: Dr. E. Colebroke, leader, E. C. Lohman and C. D. Riger. The Marshall team has had much experience in forensic work and have been successful in the Forensic League and the Philathletes in the recent contest. In the other debate they had the negative side of the question.

The Marshall Law team which defeated the forensics in the Union- living Institute is made up of S. J. Leon, leader, C. H. Belknap and R. L. Kimmons. These men have shown up very strong in the preliminary and expect to give a good account of them- selves in the coming debate.

They have the opposite side of the question that they had last.

The judges of the contest are: Hon. Martin J. Weyer, Hon. G. Walker and M. F. Price.

The Intercollegiate Wrestling League will hold a meet at Marshall Field, Saturday night, April 8, in the University of Pennsylvania.

LAW TRIAL IS POSTPONED

Owing to the Illness of Randall One of the Attorneys in the Case is Delayed

The Junior Law Trial which was scheduled to have commenced yesterday in the Practice court of the law school has been postponed until next week, on account of the serious illness of Randall, one of the attorneys for the defense.

Randall is at present in the Uni- versity hospital suffering with an attack of gastric fever but indica- tions point to a speedy recovery. In the present suit, the plaintiff, William Canby, as executor of Richard III, deceased, is suing the defendant, William Shakes- peare, for libel, in that the defendant and Walter frankly and written published words charg- ing Richard III with the murder of his two nephews. The pre- diction of the character of the deceased king has caused injury to his reputation in the further $25,000.00 which amount is asked as judgment.

The defendant is in both these cases has admitted that the words were written but set up as a de- fense that they were true and were published without malice or the part of the defendant.

A detailed account of the issues as joined, the persons of the witnesses and the historical charac- teristics which they will represent and other matters of interest dis- cussed with the suit will appear in next Sunday's issue of the Iowan.

PRESIDENT OF NOTRE DAME COMING TOMORROW

Rev. Kavanaugh to Lecture Before Newman Society

A lecture has been arranged by the Newman Society for tomor- row to be given in St. Brendan's Hall by Rev. John Kavanaugh, President of Notre Dame Uni- versity. The lecture is a speak- ing of a wide and interesting one and it is to be expected to be a success before the student body.

The subject of the lecture but- not announced yet and but cer- tain to be of a vital interest to an audience such as he will be here. The society could hardly have secured a man better fitted to lecture to a student body than Father Kavanaugh. Being the president of one of the largest boarding schools in the United States he has been brought into close contact with the closest contact with young men of college age for a number of years. Allies the sympathies are as close as they are with the students, his whole life and ener- gy have been given to them. The society has been trying to secure him for some time and it is greatly pleased with their success.

In speaking of his work to a representative of the Iowan yester- day, Mr. Maclean said: For the time being, the college men and his story A 1100 day and in the Liberal Art University."

The World's Scrap Book Co. is the famous scrap book which was founded by late Mr. Matthew J. Mather, a prominent man in the business. The society has been trying to get a start. Then came Mr. Ensign who arrived on Monday and the society was able to secure him.

Under the caption, "Sir: In our last number we printed an article which gives us the impression of a 'little investigation shows that we are running to cut off when you have caught it? And when you break a bill or gold piece aren't the change just seem to melt away fast unless you keep an itemized account, you can't for the life of you remember where half of it went."

"You drop into a store to buy a hat, a couple of shoes, a few neckties and neckties, and perhaps a suit of underwear, your bill may be $12.00, still you might have bought the very best guaranteed goods at this store, and it might have only figured up to $8.00, so you think it is as good to pay $12.00 as to pay $8.00. Don't you think that the house that gives you the best values is entitled to your patronage? We take no chances on doubtful things; can't afford to; in our eighteen years of successful business in Iowa, didn't come that way. See the new swift Alberts, just in."
