ZETAGATHIAN WON TITLE OF CHAMPIONS

Defeats Marshall Laws in Debate Friday Night

Championship Team Composed of E. C. Robbins, C. D. Kiger, J. T. Colgrove — Prizes

The Zetagathian Literary Society's debating team, consisting of E. C. Robbins, C. D. Kiger and J. T. Colgrove was successful in defeating the Marshall Law team, consisting of E. L. Edmundson, S. J. Leon, and C. A. Belknap for the University Championship, Friday evening in the Auditorium.

The question discussed was: Resolved; That the federal government should establish a bank of the United States constitutionality granted." The Zets took the affirmative. The debaters displayed a thorough knowledge of both sides of the question and presented a discussion which proved both educational and interesting to the appreciative audience.

The first speaker of the affirmative was C. D. Kiger of Britt, who opened the argument for the Zetagathians with a well constructed speech, setting forth the advantages of an United States bank. Mr. Edmundson, the first speaker of the Marshall Laws, laid great emphasis upon four points, which he asserted must be proved by the opposition in order to win the contest.

Mr. E. C. Robbins of Cedar Rapids, was the second speaker of the affirmative. In his argument he displayed a thorough knowledge of the subject and set forth the advantages of an United States bank in a masterful manner. His rebuttal was very effective. Mr. S. J. Leon of Des Moines, leader of the opposition, was by far the strongest speaker of the Laws.

Mr. J. T. Colgrove of Russell, leader of the Zetagathian team, closed the constructive work for his side with convincing force. He featured the fact that the efficiency of similar institutions in other countries was proof enough that the federal government should establish a bank of the United States. Mr. C. A. Belknap of Fayette closed the argument for the Marshalls.

Supt. Hayden of Rock Island, Professor Geiser, Cedar Falls, and Professor Peck, Grinnell, acted as judges.

NO MORE HOCKEY FOR GIRLS

Gridiron Cannot be Used by Co-eds For Outdoor Sport This Spring—Remain Indoors

Girls in the University will not be allowed to use the gridiron on Iowa Field on which to play hockey this spring according to the present plans of the athletic department. Although permission has been granted to use the practice field north of the regular football enclosure regular hockey practice cannot be held owing to the daily appearance of the baseball squad thus leaving only morning hours for the use of the co-eds.

The decision was reached after careful inspection of the turf on the football field. Careful attention by Coach John G. Chalmers three years ago and Coach Catlin last fall ably assisted by "Jimmie," the efficient guardian of the gridiron has resulted in one of the best gridirons in the Middle West.

Because of the heavy usage of the ground in the fall it was thought necessary that the grass get a good start in the spring and for this reason the girls were ruled off. It is possible classes may be organized for morning play on the outfield of the diamond but this is not expected to prove satisfactory.

The impossibility of using the gridiron is a severe handicap to Miss Alice Wilkinson the gymnasium instructor of the girls, as she has planned on the outdoor work for her classes this spring. What innovation she will adopt to have the classes exercise outdoors is a serious problem for her.

JUNIOR LAW TRIAL BEGINS TOMORROW

Many Interesting Questions to be Settled in Suit

Historical and Literary Aspects of Trial—Witnesses and Attorneys in Case

The Junior Law trial which was postponed from the past week owing to the illness of Randall, one of the attorneys for the defense, will begin tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 in the lecture room on the second floor of the Old Capitol Building. A great amount of work has been done by the attorneys on both sides in the preparation of the evidence and the points of law involved, which together with the historical and literary value of the case make it one of unusual interest.

The suit, as previously stated in these columns, is brought by William Catesby, as executor of the will of Richard III, King of England, against William Shakespeare, for libel. Shakespeare is charged with having falsely and maliciously written and published a statement that the deceased King caused the murder of his two nephews. This defamation of the King's character has injured his reputation in the sum of $25,000.00 which amount is asked as judgment. The defendant in setting up his defence has admitted that the words were written and published but claims justification in that the words were true and were written without malice. Did the King instigate the murder is the principal question in controversy and a great amount of evidence from historical sources will be introduced by both parties in support of their contentions.

Witnesses representing the following historical character will appear upon the stand: Henry VII, Sir Edmund Shaw, Lord Mayor of London, John Kendall, Geoffrey de Sasiola, Bernard Forsa, Bishop of Ely, Reginald Bray, Dr. Lewis, Hugh Conway, Marquis of Dorset, James Tyrrel, John Green, John Dighton, William Slaughter, Robert Brackenbury, and Henry Bradford.

The procedure will be the same as in the District Court of this state. Professor Laurence M. Byers will sit as Judge. The attorneys for the plaintiff are R. E. Beatty, R. A. Dunkleberg, and F. G. Hickenlooper. Those for the defendant are Realf Ottesen, W. S. Randall and J. M.

HISEY MAKES MANY SPEECHES

Secular Government Candidate is Still Popular With Student Supporters—Few of his Ideas

Before a crowd of five hundred students, Andrew Townsend Hisey spoke Friday morning on the steps of the Liberal Arts building. For forty minutes, the "President" spoke upon the problems of the nation but when a number of co-eds joined his audience, such topics were taken up as love, marriage, race suicide, and woman's suffrage.

Later the noted candidate spoke at the Smoke House on the problems before Secular Government. He explained that the whole evolution of the universe was based upon the movements of "shivers of atoms." Governor Hisey bewildered his auditors with an explanation of the speed of their movement and wound up by reciting "why should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud" and "The Rainbow."

A small riot was almost precipitated when Hisey's auditors went into the Liberal Arts building after the eleven o'clock finance class which had disturbed the meeting. A locked door kept the mob outside in the halls and the crowd soon dispersed. Hisey left for Cedar Rapids at 3:30 promising to return April 2.

GIRLS PRACTICE FOR ANNUAL EXHIBITION

Compromise Entertainment to be Given in May

Engineers Defeat Medics in Exciting Game of Basket Ball—Score 17 to 16

The annual girls' gymnastic exhibition is to be given but the entertainment will probably be a select invitation affair. Each girl performing may distribute five tickets to her friends according to the plan under contemplation.

Yesterday morning the small army of co-eds took charge of the University Armory and under the guidance of Miss Alice C. Wilkinson rehearsed for the contemplated exhibition which will probably come the first part of May. Another rehearsal in the Armory will take place the morning of April 11.

Engineers Win

With the result doubtful until the last few seconds of play the Engineers defeated the Medics yesterday 17 to 16 in the inter-department basket ball series and won second place in the league. The engineers got out a band and the rooting was worthy of a varsity contest.

Each team alternated in taking the lead and the large crowd present saw a hard fought contest from first to last. This lineup:

ENGINEERS	Medics
Negus, Darner	Secoy
Hoth	Freeman
Condit	Smith
Paulson	Paul
Hazard	Banton

Referee—Schroeder.

MISS BLOOM TO PUT ON ANOTHER PLAY

Will be Given April 27 For Improvement League

Miss Blanche Bloom, a former student of the University is the guest of her sister Mrs. Max Mayer. On Monday, April 27, Miss Bloom will appear in the leading part of "Leah Kleschma," Mrs. Fiske's great play, which will be given by amateur talent at the Coldren. The play will be given under the auspices of the Iowa City Improvement League. Miss Bloom was seen here last year in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" and "Op o' me Thumb" which she gave with the University Dramatic Club for the same benefit.

Many University people will take part in the play although the cast is not entirely made up. A few of those who will take part besides Miss Bloom are Prof. Laurance Byers, Mr. Ralph Lawton, Carl Byoir, Walter Stover, Hazel Reddick and Mrs. Max Mayer. The completed cast will be announced soon.

Not enough men are showing up for track work. If there is MORE TRACK MEN NEEDED put a damper on track athletes it is this lack of enough energy on the part of the student body to actually do a little work. We have decided every spring for two years now that it was time we stopped going down to the state meet and then getting unmercifully beaten. And yet the succeeding spring it is the same story of a minute track squad for Coach Catlin to work with in the vain hope of turning out a winning team.

The idea of being shown up in track by smaller schools like Grinnell, Drake and Normal ought to be enough incentive to make men in school here turn out and train. The material is in school. Every facility in the way of quarters and trainer is open to the track men. We have a coach who will do absolutely everything in his power to develop a man into a point winner.

Of course its quite early yet for the squad to do much work. And its better to go on the theory that things will turn out O. K. than to be continually calamity howling. But just from present indications, from the interest taken in track work generally over the university, all the dope is that the squad is to be even smaller than last year.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Have you heard about the "Each and All" clubs? I think that's the dandiest name anyone could pick unless it be the "Helping Hand" and that means about the same thing. Well, sir, that is the way this business is run—the "Each and All" plan—not merely for boss but for all of us, including the customers. Lots of good clothes are sold by pretty good sort of bosses but they are lacking in style. The fabrics and trimmings are of good quality, the needlework is faithfully done, but the garments serve only as a covering for your lonesomeness. Style in our garments is worked into the cut of the coat, vest and trousers by Dr. Cutter, sewed in by Nurse Needlework and then pressed in by Associate Doctor Goose and the result is a suit that is properly cut out and cured to stay. Each and all have had a hand in the operation. I know you can recognize good style in our clothing, the moment you put a suit on a customer—that is, the garments we sell in our $15 to $30 class. I often wonder why every one doesn't wear our clothing.
