IRVING-EREDDIAN-PLAY

literary Societies Present Comedy.
"Because She Loved Him So." At The Colden.

Before an unusually large audience

the irving and Edelred Societies last evening presented at the Colden their annual play.

The piece was William Gillette's comedy,

because she loved him so.

The play ran smoothly

from beginning to end and was in many ways unusual for amateur music. Lawrence Mayer, Josephine

Lynne, Charles Beggs and Alice

Swander made a large impression.

Two pretty female sketches were

clearly and attractively

performed by Meta Bessey as an Irish maid,

Miss Alice Clark, Clifford Powell and Lawrence

Carlton did creditable work

in straight parts.

The audience was an unusually generous and appreciative and they applauded

the work of the amateur thespians

enthusiastically.

The play was well

cast and the stage setting

made several pretty pictures.

F. F. FAVILLE

The subject of this sketch, who is one of the most prominent attorneys of Northwestern Iowa, and the speaker at Assembly yester­day, was born at Mitchell, Mitchell county, Iowa, on June 5, 1861. He was raised as a farm boy and his early education was such as many farm boys enjoy—the district school in the winter and farm work in the summer. This continued until early in the ’80’s, when he entered the Cedar Valley Seminary at Osage, which institution he attended for two or three years. He then went to Iowa State College at Ames where he completed the college course, graduating, in 1890, with the degree of Bachelor of Science. In 1889 he went to Baltimore, where he entered the University of Maryland and studied law for a year, coming to Iowa in 1890 to complete his course. He was graduated from the law school of the State University in 1893, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Immediately after graduation Mr. Faville began the practice of law and has never engaged in any other business. He located first at Sioux Rapids, Iowa, and taking an active interest in politics, re­ceived the nomination and was elected to the office of county attorney on the Republican ticket in 1894. This office he held for eleven years. He moved to Storm Lake, after his election to this position and this has been his home ever since. In 1904 Mr. Faville was nominated by the Republican State Con­vention as the candidate for the seventh congressional district and took an active part in that campaign by making several speeches in Northwest Iowa. In March, 1907, he was appointed to the office of United States Attorney for the Northern District of Iowa, which position he now holds. He is at present a member of the firm of Faville & Whisl­ey, at Storm Lake, the junior member of the firm being county attorney. The firm enjoys an extensive practice of the law, not alone in Buena Vista county, but in all the surrounding part of the state.

Mr. Faville is an indefatigable worker and thoroughly in love with his profession. Judges before whom he has practiced have pronounced him a "born lawyer." He is a fluent speaker, a deep student of the law, and has been nominated as a candidate for the position of Congressman on the Republican ticket in the eleventh district frequently. He takes an interest in political affairs, being a member of the credentials committee in the Republican State Con­vention of 1906, the committee that settled the many contests before that convention. However it is said he feels that his chances work is the law, and he follows that up.

Mr. Faville was married in 1892 to Miss Clara Thurburn of Mitchell county, and he has two children, a son and a daughter. The family has a beautiful home at Storm Lake.
