ROWED THIRTY MILES TO COLLECT FOSSILS

Unusual Experience of University Student

Jesse V. Henley, Young Geologist, Has Many Adventures Hunting Stones in Florida

To reach a fine bed of fossils, Jesse V. Henley the University of Iowa student traveling over the United States collecting specimens for the local museum, rowed thirty miles in a small boat in Florida to procure some specimens located at an inland spot known as Shell Creek.

The formations along Shell Creek are probably the most abundant in fossils of the Tertiary period of any known in the world, and young Henley desirous of reaching this point famous in geological circles hired a man, procured two boats, stocked them with provisions; finally took the long row of practically thirty miles.

Before taking the arduous trip in the row boat Henley had been to Claiborne, Ala., where located on a plantation he had a diet of rice and greasy fat meat.

The last word received by Professor Samuel Calvin, head of the Department was that young Henley was in Washington D. C. Within a month he will be in Iowa City to sort and classify the contents of the many barrels and boxes of rocks he has collected. It is reported that among the large number of specimens is one fossil one million and a half years old. An account of the collection of these valuable specimens will form the base for Mr. Henley's thesis in June for his Ph.D. degree.

Aided and advised by Professor Calvin, young Henley for two years has been engaged in a series of excursions for the discovery of ancient and modern fossils. Last summer he spent a considerable amount of money and several months investigating the Tertiary deposits and collecting Tertiary fossils along the Atlantic Coast. A great number of barrels and boxes of these valuable finds were shipped to the University, all of which have been sorted, classified and installed in the Old Science building by Mr. Henley.

On the present trip he traveled first to California and working around through Mexico and Texas to the Atlantic coast he is now on his way to Iowa City from Washington. Mr. Henley is a senior and lives at Davenport Iowa.

Senior Class Play

There will be further try-outs for places on the Senior Class Play to be held Thursday at 4:00 p. m.

IRVING - ERODELPHIAN PLAY

Literary Societies Present Comedy, "Because She Loved Him So," At The Coldren

Before an unusually large audience the Irving and Erodolphian societies last evening presented at the Coldren their annual play. The piece was William Gilette's comedy, "Because She Loved Him So." The play ran smoothly from beginning to end and was in many ways unusual for amateur work.

Laurance Mayer, Josephine Lyneh, Charles Briggs and Alice Swisher made a hit as the quarrelling couples. Two pretty love sketches were cleverly carried by Walter Myer with Julia Green, and Clark Burkheimer with Mary Remley. Clarence Coulter made a hit in a short part as the dean of Waterford.

The character roles were admirably presented by Meta Raney as an Irish maid, Mary Hayden as a French maid and Clyde E. Bourett as a butler. Miss Alice Clark, Clifford Powell and Leroy Clarkson did creditable work in straight parts.

The audience was an unusually large one for a literary society production and they applauded the work of the amateur thespians enthusiastically. The play was well costumed and the stage settings made several pretty pictures.

IOWA MAN ELECTED AS VICE PRESIDENT

J. E. Goodwin Gets Office on Missouri Valley Committee

Graduate representatives of the schools of the Missouri Valley Conference met in Kansas City last week to form a graduate body similar to the Iowa Games Committee. This body is to have control of the annual meeting. Three meetings were held and many matters of importance concluded.

In the election of officers, Fay Moulton, once a flyer for Kansas University, and later a representative of Yale and their foremost runner on the cinder path, was elected president. J. E. Goodwin of State University of Iowa, was elected vice-president; R. B. Cadwell, Missouri, secretary, and Arthur Wright of Washington, treasurer. The other school representatives present were: E. Franklin, Iowa State; F. B. Drew, Nebraska, and D. W. Moorehouse, Drake.

Graduate Club Meets

The graduate club will hold a symposium on Research Work in the Liberal Arts Auditorium this evening beginning at eight o'clock. The discussion will be led by Dean C. E. Seashore of the Graduate College.

"HAPPINESS THE GOAL OF HUMANITY" FAVILLE

Noted Attorney Spoke at Assembly Yesterday

Is an Alumnus of this University and United States District Attorney

Hon. Fred F. Faville, of Storm Lake, United States District Attorney, spoke yesterday at Assembly on "The Pursuit of Happiness." Mr. Faville is a graduate of the College of Law, receiving his degree with the class of '91.

"Happiness has forever been the goal of the human race and you students are now taking one step in the pursuit of happiness. It is the great life struggle of each individual and cannot be measured by the dollar standard," said Mr. Faville.

"More has been accomplished in the United States in the last one hundred and thirty-three years than in all other countries in all time," the speaker continued, and gave a large amount of proof to substantiate his statement.

Mr. Faville considered the greatest danger threatening the nation today was the idea of the possession of wealth as the goal in life.

In concluding, the speaker urged the students to lead clean, temperate, honest, and upright lives.

LEADING LADY TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Dorothy Donnelly From "Lion and the Mouse" Company

Next Monday afternoon at four o'clock Miss Dorothy Donnelly leading lady in the "Lion and the Mouse," has consented to give a lecture on "Bernard Shaw as a Dramatist" in the Auditorium. There will be no admission charged.

"Miss Donnelly is by training and by acquaintance well versed in the subject which she has chosen to speak upon" said Prof. Henry E. Gordon, head of the Department of Public Speaking. "She is an intimate friend of Mr. Shaw and takes a leading part in two of his famous plays. She fully understands the principles, purposes and ambitions of the distinguished playwright. By many Miss Donnelly is looked upon as Mr. Shaw's representative in this country and best able to speak for him and interpret his life and plays to an American audience. Miss Donnelly gave the same lecture at Madison to both University and townspeople. The Auditorium should be filled to hear the distinguished and brilliant address."

MACLEAN ON EXTENDED TRIP

President Will Install Phi Beta Kappa Chapter at Grinnell— Later Goes East

President George E. MacLean will go to Grinnell College, Saturday, April 11th, to install a chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa honorary fraternity. As special delegate he represents Dr. Grouner, president of the United Chapters and will present the charter.

The national meeting of Phi Beta Kappa at Williamsburg, Pa., last September granted Grinnell the charter to be accepted when the college was fully prepared for it. The Alpha chapter of the State University of Iowa has been especially instrumental in securing the grant of a charter for Iowa College. Prof. Rupes of Harvard delivers the inaugural address Saturday night.

President MacLean spoke in Muscatine last night at the dedication services of the First Congregational Church. His subject was "The Relation of the Church to Education."

On next Monday Pres. MacLean will attend the meeting of the American Medical Council in Chicago. From there he will go to New York to the meeting of the Conference Committee of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, April 17th.

Mr. MacLean is chairman of this commission which is aiming at the standardization of colleges. The president will go to New York by way of Washington, where he will confer with the United States commissioner of education.

BETAS DEFEATED BY SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Interfraternity Baseball Game is One-sided

In the inter-fraternity baseball game yesterday Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Beta Theta Pi by a score of 19 to 1. The features of the game were the heavy hitting and clever base-stealing of the Sig Alphas.

CAPTAIN KIRK WILL RETURN BY MONDAY

Called to Rochester, Minn., by Mother's Illness

Rock Island Series Next Week—Phillips Good Back-stop—Three Good Pitchers

Captain "Chick" Kirk of the Varsity nine will return to Iowa City Monday from Rochester, Minn., where he has been for ten days at the bedside of his mother, who is seriously ill. Kirk left a week ago last Friday but will return in time for the Rock Island series April 13-18.

The baseball squad is coming along in fine shape according to Coach Maurice Kent and prospects are good for a creditable showing by the comparatively green squad in the practice series with the leaguers. Rock Island has a fast line of pitchers this year and will furnish the local ball tossers first class batting practice.

Phillips has been doing stellar work in the backstop position the past few days and promises to make good as Kirk's understudy. Hanlon, Sutherland and Burrell are pitching fine ball. "Jack" Deily, one of last year's twirlers, is closely confined to the class room by heavy medical work, and is undecided whether to get out for baseball this year or not.

A bunch of heavy practice balls has impaired the throwing of the out fielders and Coach Kent will give the men a temporary layoff from the strenuous practice until a new supply of "Spaulding's Officials" arrive.

Miller Out

Track work has been progressing well recently, considering the weather, and on Monday Captain "Bobby" Miller worked out for the first time this season on the cinder path.

EXPERT DECORATOR FOR PAN-HELLENIC

Minneapolis Firm Will Prepare for Big Formal

The Pan Hellenic committee has closed a contract with a Minneapolis firm for the decoration of the University Armory on the night of the Pan-Hellenic party which is to be held April 24. With a unique electrical display and the advantages of expert direction the decorations will undoubtedly be the most elaborate ever seen in Iowa City. The programs have been decided upon and will be gray embossed leather.

Beautifying the Campus

Work at beautifying the campus is now progressing rapidly. Some fine work has been done in the way of laying out fancy flower beds. The medical campus has been decorated with several plots of artistic design and a bed in shape of S. U. I. is placed in front of the Armory. As soon as there is any surety of warmer weather, plants will be set out in advantageous places.

COMMUNICATIONS

A Problem

Although a great movement has begun toward a realization of the Iowa Union which will bring with it a strengthening of common interests among the different colleges, there is a present need of some means whereby the students and faculty can be brought together on a basis of good-fellowship and acquaintance. The necessity for some such common meeting ground can be seen by every thinking student and faculty member in the varsity. Without it we remain unacquainted with each other and have little in common beyond athletics.

Students of one college do not know students of the other colleges. We know, perhaps, the heads of a few departments in our own college. But the truth is that there are few opportunities of meeting these men, whom we should know, in a popular way; our knowledge of them has been gained through more or less formal occasions on which they have spoken.

Is Iowa to continue to be merely an associated group of colleges without common interests?

There is immediate need of some plan that will remedy this side of University life. Should the senior festivities include all colleges, should class play committees be selected from all col-

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

A kid who lives near me has written a poem on the "harbingers of spring." The finest thing about this poem is the words the kid has discovered that rhyme with "harbinger." One of these is "garbinger." I asked him what he meant by "garbinger" and he said it was a man who was out for the glad garbings—the spring styles in fancy vests and the new shades of Easter hats and any other happy raiment that would make the babies on the block sit up in their perambulators and take notice. Well, we have hats, not exactly in all the colorings of Nature's garb or the secondary tints of the rainbow (we have them in our Easter neckwear), but we positively shine on Easter lids and that's where we hope to garb you. Have a look in. Easter is not far off.

F. F. FAVILLE

The subject of this sketch, who is one of the most prominent attorneys of Northwestern Iowa, and the speaker at Assembly yesterday, was born at Mitchell, Mitchell county, Iowa, on June 5, 1865. He was raised as a farm boy and his early education was such as many farm boys enjoy—the district school in the winter and farm work in the summer. This continued until early in the 80's, when he entered the Cedar Valley Seminary at Osage, which institution he attended for two or three years. He then went to Iowa State College at Ames where he completed the college course, graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Science. In 1889 he went to Baltimore, where he entered the University of Maryland and studied law for a year, coming to Iowa in 1890 to complete his course. He was graduated from the law department of the State University in 1891, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Immediately after graduation Mr. Faville began the practice of law and has never engaged in any other business. He located first at Sioux Rapids, Iowa, and taking an active interest in politics, received the nomination and was elected to the office of county attorney on the Republican ticket in 1894. This office he held for two terms. He moved to the county seat of Buena Vista county, Storm Lake, after his election to this position and this has been his home ever since.

In 1904 Mr. Faville was nominated by the Republican State Convention as Presidential elector for the eleventh congressional district and took an active part in that campaign by making several speeches in Northwest Iowa.

In March, 1907, he was appointed to the office of United States Attorney for the Northern District of Iowa, which position he now holds. He is at present a member of the firm of Faville & Whitney, at Storm Lake, the junior member of the firm being county attorney. The firm enjoys an extensive practice of the law, not alone in Buena Vista county, but in all the surrounding part of the state.

Mr. Faville is an indefatigable worker and thoroughly in love with his profession. Judges before whom he has practiced have pronounced him a "born lawyer." He is a fluent speaker, a deep student of affairs, and has been mentioned as a candidate for the position of Congressman on the Republican ticket in the eleventh district frequently. He takes an interest in political affairs, being a member of the credentials committee in the Republican State convention of 1906, the committee that settled the many contests before that convention. However it is said he feels that his chosen work is the law, and he follows that assiduously.

Mr. Faville was married in 1891 to Miss Cora Thorburg of Mitchell county, and he has two children, a son and a daughter. The family has a beautiful home at Storm Lake.

SEVERAL PROMOTIONS MADE

Many Non-Coms are Appointed in Military Department—Plans for March are Furthered

Commandant C. W. Weeks made several promotions in the battalion yesterday, most of the offices filled being in Co. B.

Daily target practice has produced many good shots. The cadets have gotten used to the setting of the sights in accordance with the wind gauges and better scores are the result.

Plans for the march are being rapidly finished. The Engineering Corps has completed a number of accurate blue print maps of the country to be traversed. The order issued last night reads as follows:

Special Orders No. 1.

The following appointments and promotions are hereby announced to take effect this date:

To be Regimental Quartermaster, Cadet Sergeant Clifford Powell. Sergeant Powell will report for duty to Captain Pike, Regimental Quartermaster.

To be Cadet Sergeants Co. "B," Corporals Daniels, Parsons and Bailey. To be Cadet Corporals Co. "B," Privates Jones, O. D., and Hagerman. They will be respected and obeyed accordingly.

Sergeant Bailey is detailed as Quartermaster Sergeant of his company vice Powell promoted.

Private Foley, Co. "A" is hereby transferred to Co. "D" as musician.

C. W. WEEKS, Commandant.

FOR SALE—Scholarships with the International Correspondence Schools. Inquire of Business Manager DAILY IOWAN.
