JANUARY 31, 1916

In the Ancestral Hall, the Annual Meeting and Entertainment of the Hellenic Society was concluded on Friday evening, under the presidency of Mr. Harry Brown of Waterloo. The meeting was well attended and was followed by an entertainment.

The State Historical Society of Iowa has recently published the address delivered by Judge Horace E. Deemer at the Sixtieth Anniversary Exercises last June. The publication is in pamphlet form and is printed on excellent paper.

Deemer's address was in the nature of a history of the University and as such it is considered valuable. The early history of the University is first taken up and many interesting incidents of the first four years of the institution are related. The author also tells of the pictures connected with the University and their purchase. Mr. Johnson of the University of Iowa wrote on the West in the best. Several interesting statements are related with the early announcements.

Miss Eichorn of Altoona; Miss Ethel of Muscatine; Miss Maud of Davenport; Miss Ringling of Grinnell; Miss Sternfeld of Davenport; Miss Helen of Des Moines; Miss Robinson of Bettendorf; Miss Young of Burlington; Miss Ethel of Washington; Miss Helen of Davenport; Miss Mabel Parrish of Cedar Falls; Miss Ora Cooke of Okoboji; Misses Manfield of Fairfield, Miss Anna Clark of Des Moines; Miss Mary Barton of Fort Dodge; Miss Marie Eickles of Northeast; Miss Gray of New Bern; Miss Pierce of Chicago; Miss Mary McIntyre of Ottumwa; Mr. H. E. Spangler of Cedar Rapids; Mr. Frank Byers of Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller of Davenport; Mr. Guy Haskel of Cedar Rapids; Mr. Lawrence of Fort Madison; Mr. and Mrs. James of Muscatine; Miss Roberta of Waterloo; Miss Martha of Burlington; Miss Ada Brown of Burlington; Miss Ethel of Burlington; Miss Jane Alford of Burlington; Miss Posey of Burlington; Miss Ethel of Washington; Miss Anna of Des Moines; Miss Ethel of Davenport; Miss Mary of Springfield, Ill.; Miss Alva of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. George of Davenport.

Take care of the high schools and the University will take care of the high schools. Representatives from fifteen strong high schools will be here today to hear or participate in the debate for the inter-scholastic championship of the state of Iowa. Thirty high school principals will be here to take stock of Iowa and if pleased will cast in their lot here next year. Debates are coming from Missouri Valley, Fort Dodge, Grinnell, Cedar Falls, Waterloo, Burlington, and many nearby towns—and superintendents, principals, coaches and students—and the demand to be shown the University. The whole University, then, is vitally interested in the showing. There should be a packed auditorium and a cordial greeting by the students at the debate. The Forensic Society should see that the visitors have a royal time. The faculty should entertain the teachers. That matters will be attended to, we do not question and the purpose of this editorial is just to remind us that we all have a great privilege today in "boosting" the High School Debating League.

Special Medical Lectures
Dr. Cattell, of Waterloo, began a course of lectures yesterday before the Iowas Medical and Homeopathic Society. His subject is Electro Therapeutics.

WISSE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

God! don't stop me; I sold a silk dicker to a fellow who lives over on the campus street, and I promised to deliver it at p.m. Mind you, I sold this myself. My man blew a horn, and asked me to show him a silk kit. I happened to be down in front and in every one was glee. My Jetson sees his size and handed him out to look at. The chap tried it, looked inside the price ticket, threw down $50 and said, "It's mine." Golly! I was ratted it put the right bone in the hat box and took it up in the cabinet's desk. Then I took myself to tumble and went back and got the hat, and when I got back where my nice man was, he'd gone and left the address where I am to deliver the hat, and you'd better believe that silk plug is going to get to that man's address on time. The big party takes part tonight.
