PHI DELTA PHI CONVENTION STARTS
Delegates New Here From Twenty Nine Chapters
C. B. Paul Makes Address of Greeting
Cheerful remarks delivered by President Paul.
Convention starts yesterday morning in the K. P. H. Hall with C. M. Clay Barrow in the chair. Delegates were present from twenty-nine out of the thirty-six chapters of the legal fraternity and seven more chapters were represented by proxy. Several chapters had two members present.

At the evening session yesterday morning Mr. C. B. Paul of Nebraska College delivered the address of greeting to the assembled delegates; the response given being given by President Paul on the reading of the report of the Council of the fraternity and fol- lowing discussion occupied the rest of the morning session, the convention having its picture taken on the front steps of the College. The morning was given to the parts of committees and actions upon different matters of business before the afternoon session. The delegates were entertained at a smokker evening in the chapter rooms on College street.

Tonight the two sessions are brought to a close by a big banquet at the Commercial hotel. There will probably be sixty or seventy in attendance.

Following is the name of the chapter, the delegate and the school where he is known. Kent, Frank F. Heidelberg, University of Michigan; Benjamin, C. H. Baldwin, Illinois Wesleyan University; Booth, Orville J. Taylor, Jr., Northwestern University; Ouellette, R. E. Buddeit and J. W. Delta Phi Elements; University; Pomeroy, R. A. Wellington, University of California; Webster, E. G. Smith, Beloit College; Fall; W. A. Cleveland, Cincinnati University; Choate, Louis B. Dart; Harvard Law School; Van Alstyne, W. F. Case, University of Georgia; Dacey and Jayne, University of Minnesota; Daniels, Alfred, New York University; Kell, James A., Yale Law School; Nelson, John B., Colby College; Hurlin, L. N. Conlin and H. O.
IOWA'S N. O. L. STANDARD BEARER

EARL STEWART

Mr. Earl Stewart, Iowa's representative in the contest tonight, is probably the youngest of the contestants. He is a member of the sophomore class in the College of Liberal Arts, the Kappa Sigma fraternity, and Iowa State. He is resident of Grinnell, Iowa, and a graduate of the North Des Moines High School. While a high school student he was a participant in two inter-high school debates and in a debate with Des Moines College was a decisive winner. Since coming to Iowa he has distinguished himself by winning the Freshman oratorical contest and defeating Stewart's chances and replied:

"If I were Mr. Stewart, I ought to have been content with the state. Iowa City entertained us with the best of all, and we are here to compete with the best. The customer finds something when it's on an article."

biography the family record, which was discovered at the same time, is printed.

Mr. Parish is now preparing a biography of John Chambers to be published in the "Iowa Biographical Series." This is his second contribution to the series, he being the author of the "Biography of Robert Lucas," which was published in 1901 by the Iowa Historical Society in 1907. Mr. Parish is assistant editor of the Society.

The article by Louis Pelzer takes up the early history of the Democratic party of Iowa, covering the period 1846 to 1857. The author tells of the old Democratic conventions and of the men who took part in them. How the great questions which confronted the country during that eventful period were threshed out in Iowa's political contests is an interesting part of Mr. Pelzer's article. This is one of a series of papers which Mr. Pelzer has been writing on Iowa's early politics. Three of the series have already appeared in part journals. These are: "The Origin and Organization of the Republican Party in Iowa," "The History and Principles of the Whigs of the Territory of Iowa," and "The Election of Francis Gholen in 1850."
