MUSIC ASSOCIATION IS NOW ORGANIZED

Promises to do Much for Musical Interests

Will Put Concerts and Glee Club in Sound Financial Basis—Officers for the Year

Among the organizations of the University recently arose an association which promises to do much for a phase of University activity which has hitherto been markedly deficient. The recent formation of the University Musical Association, incorporated, has met with approval on every hand, evidence of a genuine and growing interest in University musical life.

The University Musical Association is organized after the fashion of the Athletic Association and the Forensic League, and has the same ultimate purpose, that is, to develop that phase of University activity which is music.

The Association is made up of the four musical societies of the University, the Choral Society, the Orchestra, the Men's Glee Club and the Women's Glee Club. Provision is also made for constitution for taking in musical organizations, such as a student club, which may be formed in the future. The band is not included in the Association as it is now purely a military organization.

Complete autonomy is left to each constituent society with the right to elect the officers of members and in the carrying on of their own local business as is purely their own.

A systematic attempt at musical interest in the University is the aim of the president of the Association. This is just what Iowa has lacked in the past. While many other institutions are making hundreds of dollars from their concerts Iowa has in the past usually gone in for "the boys," and has shown no interest, both real and apparent, in the music department or in the University as an educational institution.

I asked the boss the difference between fame and notoriety, and he said, "Well, there is George Washington and Carrie Nation." There's a lot of people who doubt the hatchet story about Gen. Washington but I guess everyone believes that Mrs. Nation can throw the hammer. If the towns and cities of this country keep on voting "dry," Carrie will soon be out of a job. Gee! I'd hate to lose my job at this rate. I'm just beginning to be of some value to Bess. This week I am studying up on "straws," so if the wind blows my way I'll know how to raise it. I think we are a little beyond the limit as it is. We're showing the new lids already and they are peaches 'er ever there was. Soft Milos, Sailors, Seentas and just "straws." Why, it's wonderful how many races of people are engaged in making our straw hats, all the way from Bombay to Panama and Balti­ more to Bos private office. Blue and try to keep my favorite and see what's new under the sun.

DRINKS INK LIKE A CAMEL

To hold a Camel Print Pen, just dip it in any ink, press the Camel-Filler and see if it fills its own tank like a real, stable tank. There is no end to its power—no more bother. Do it and you'll like DRAKE's Camel Print Pen.

CONKLIN'S SELF-FILLING PEN

"The pen with the convenient-filler" can be filled instantly without the least inconvenience. You could fill it with white kid gloves on without danger of getting dirty. Besides it economizes in the splendid writing qualities of the Conklin—the perfect lead.

Dedicated frankly to the Camel Pen, don't sell other pens. Prices, Ball and dip. Send for one to harden your pen writing.

Those intending to compete are requested to submit their names to Professor Weld at an early date. George K. Maclean, President.

Hawkeye to Have Special Pictures
More Athletic Cuts to be Run Than Ever Before

The Hawkeyes this year will have an especially complete athletic department. It will contain 20 more cuts than last year. These will be pictures of last year's high school field meet, snapshots of important moments in the big games, individual pictures of University athletic teams and the usual number of team groups.

Newspaper Praises University Alumna

Omaha World Herald Has Story on Iowa Girl

In speaking of the work done by Miss Nelle Showalter, a graduate of the University of Iowa in 1906, the Omaha World Herald of a recent issue has the following to say under a picture of her in cap and gown:

"Miss Nelle Showalter, who has just resigned the principalship of the schools at Reinbeck, Iowa, is a well known Council Bluffs young woman. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Showalter and distinguished herself as a rapid student before she took the schools at Reinbeck. She made the High School four year course in three years and also crowed the four-year course at the Iowa University into three years' time. Reinbeck papers pay her the tribute of having done much in less than two years' stay there to raise the standard of the schools. Miss Showalter is considering several propositions in the school line."
