Sutherland Helps Opponents to Three Hits

Iowa Has Little Trouble With Cornell. Pitcher and Field Count is 5 to 2

Sutherland's masterful pitching combined with opportune batting on the part of Iowa defeated Cornell yesterday afternoon on Iowa field by the score of 7 to 2.

"Lady" in the Mt. Vernon ball covers down with three safeties, with the exception of the sixth inning, twisted the shut-out variety of ball.

The Silver Foil of the Sixties

Iowa senior Halbert put on his fancy new suit of silver-foil of the Sixties yesterday afternoon as Iowa entertained the Cornell team.

The Silver Foil of the Sixties is enjoying a great vogue, and the expert tailors at the Iowa tailors' association thought this was the ideal time to introduce this beautiful new style of dress. Mr. Halbert, who is a member of the university track team, was given the privilege of being the first man to wear it in public, and he did not fail to make a hit. The suit was admirably suited to the occasion, and Mr. Halbert was able to show off his good figure to the advantage of both his tailors and the Tailors' Association.

Iowa Men Will Play Cornell Today

Iowa will meet Cornell today at 1:00 P.M., and the game will be played on the university field. The official game is to be played on the university field, and the game will be watched by a large crowd of spectators.

Iowa never will have a consistently good base ball team till a regular man is in charge of it. The present team is organised and supported. This has proved beyond a doubt that a team of this kind can be put together. The question is whether our new players will be equal to the work of the old. There is only one thing that will, and that is a thorough training. The present team has not the same experience. The base ball club of the University is not a team of the best players, but all the boys think that they will be equal to the work of the old. There is only one thing that will, and that is a thorough training. The present team has not the same experience.

Nearby every game that Iowa has lost this season has been due to just one thing, inexperience. The team has been defeated only once, and that was for six, seven, or eight innings, and even then at just a critical point. The team's lack of confidence in itself came to the fore in the last game, and the team failed to hold its ground.

What will do away with the record of the past is to have more new players every year. There is no other thing that will, and that is a regular team, with a coach of its own and regular games of its own. The regular varsity coach should be of course experienced in the guiding, authority over the freshman squad, but he will not have time to coach it entirely. Illinois always supports a freshman team and consequently always has a seasoned bunch of players to work into a varsity team. Chicago has a freshman team and in fact all the big schools do. If Iowa desires to keep pace with her rivals she must get started and adopt some innovations.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy

Well, I have to tell a hard-duck story but I've got to do it. I was in a barrel, but not the pickle barrel. The barrel was just being put together. But, well, never mind. Anyway, I started down along the street and four boys stood up. I had on a red flannel jacket, one of our College models, and a Coast & Sons' $25 hat. In fact, I felt that I looked the part of a swell dresser. The big fellows sized me up and said—"Mugwag, take off your jacket and let me have the barrel and hat." That for you, "Mugwag." And then I stood hollering for help until a crowd got around me; then a copper came up and took me away back, and then I came through.

But I am not a quitter. I am going to get another suit just like that one I had on and go at it again. You can't beat them.

H. M. REMLEY
Howard Marshall Remley was born January 17th, 1843, at Lew-shop, Virginia. His ancestors have always been interested in education and there has been a minister in the family for several generations. His father's family came to Iowa in 1835, when he was twelve years old and that fall he attended what was called the Normal Department of the S. U. I., in the old capital building, before the state capital was moved to Des Moines. He has been personally acquainted with every president of the university except the very two annual ones who did not act as such, and himself or brothers and sisters, or some members of his own family have been in the S. U. I., nearly every year since its beginning. He was one of the first members of the Zeta Tau Zeta Society and of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, and proposed and helped to start the first college paper.
He has been editor of the University Reporter, president of the Zeta-tau Zeta Society and president of the Alumni Association. He graduated with the degree of A. B. class of 1866, L. L. B. Class of 1877 and received the degree of A. M. in 1873. In 1873, he was married to Miss Mary E. Underwood, A. B. class of 1873, and as a part of their children have graduated at the S. U. I. and two more are undergraduates. Mr. Remley has practiced law at Anamosa since his graduation in 1874, except seven years when he was judge of the 18th judicial district. For the last ten years he has been a member of the "Committee of Law Reform" of the State Bar Association, and has read several papers before that body, one of which was a speech before the Iowa State Senate Association. He has been president of the Iowa State Sunday School Association and was for several years president of the Iowa Baptist State Convention. His law firm is "Remley & Remley" the other member of the firm being his son, James B.
Remley, who is also graduate of the Collegiate and Law Departments of the S. U. I.

LEGEND OF A GHOST
A young woman passing through a cemetery at night is suddenly startled by a voice coming from one of the graves. She starts to rush away, but the ghost appearing compels her to remain. He explains to the terrified girl that she must go to the kingdom of Satan and get a bottle of the Water of Life, which she must bring back to him. The girl consents to do as he desires and starts forth on her expedition after the precious fluid. She summons a lot of soldiers and vampires, who try to stop her progress towards the earth.
She defeats them all, however, and arriving at the ghost's grave tops on the marble slab, the ghost appears, drinks the water and is immediately transformed into a beautiful prince. The last scene of this interesting film shows the happy marriage of the once decrepit man and the beautiful and courageous bride.
