Iowa would have a long talk over the long distance phone yesterday afternoon.

The exhibit put up by the veterans was good to behold. "Pep" was overflowing among the youth and the snappy feeling and shuffling furnished exceptionally enough to satisfy.

Kent struck out ten men, as

two headed four and passed three men. McDonald, imported from

Pep, was watching the game, gave the alumni name safe hits and walked six men. Meitinger, with a two-bagger was the longest hit of the game and Clyde Williams kicked the left field fence for a two-bagger. Hall Reynolds

swatted up a couple of long flies destined for hits but

by four and seven two of adja-

cents with Williams and Meitinger.

A country druggist had a sign out in front of his store, "Pure Drugs and Magazines." A fellow came along and said, "Give me a pure magazine." The druggist replied, "We're out of those muck-rakers." Say, don't you think it's about time we quit knuckling and begin to see some of the good in things. You hear so much about graft, it's a wonder everybody doesn't want to get a hand in the pork-barrel. I guess this agitation has done a lot of good, so now let's all turn in and College streets.

Mr. Hopkins was born in Oskaloosa, Iowa, the son of Dr. J. V. Hopkins. At the age of fifteen he came with his parents to Guthrie county, where he has resided at his residence for the last twenty-six years. He was educated in the public schools of Oskaloosa and Guthrie Center, finishing his education at the State University of Iowa in 1871 to 1875. At the age of twenty-six he was the candidate of the Republican party for the county of Guthrie, to which office he was elected and re-elected for four terms.

In 1877 he was county attorney of Guthrie county, and on his retirement from office he actively took charge of the bank, as president and cashier, retaining as such until it was merged into the First National Bank with Mr. Hopkins as vice-president. He is also a stockholder and director in the Yankton and the National Bank of Bagley. In 1889 he was nominated and elected to serve as attorney for the 17th senatorial district comprised of the counties of Dallas, Guthrie and Audubon. On the expiration of his first term he was unanimously re-nominated and elected to that office. He was a valued member of the important committees of the Senate, and the last session he was chairman of the committee on railroads, under the then conditions the most important committee outside of appropriations.

COMMUNICATIONS

The action of the Athletic Association in voting to abolish the tuition fee as a supported form of athletics was a poor incentive to freshmen to train in that line of work. There are put few undergraduates who now are interested enough to take daily rehearsals and who desire to play for the love of the game and the love of the game alone. An aim toward productivity that would be indicated if the game was supported by the Athletic Board.

Several freshmen have signified their willingness to enter an all-Freshman tournament could arrangements be made. The courts are in fair condition and but few preliminaries would have to be made save the drawing for the matches. Should the above interest the Freshmen tennis players those who desire to enter the tournament leave their names at the Iowa office not later than Saturday night. There are doubles also leave their names.

DRINKS INK "LIKE A CAMEL"

To lead a Coakina Fountain Pen, just dip it in any ink bottle and draw a line on paper. It will lead as well in ink as it does in Coakina. No one can tell it is on paper, as it bears just the same look like a camel stating its facts, that's all there is to it! Be黨eving is not necessary. It is do-it-anywhere-anytime.
