REGISTRATION BEGINS COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Summer Session Classes Will Start June 22

Record-Breaking Attendance is Assured—Offers Ideal Conditions for Study

On Saturday of the week of commencement, June 20th, registration for the summer session will begin. On Monday, June 22, all classes will organize for the work of the session. At the present time there are indications of a larger attendance than ever before. A great many advanced students have signified their intention of remaining to do either graduate work or advanced under graduate work.

It has become a regular custom for most of the students who are working for higher degrees to remain during the summer session. By this means some shorten the time required for their degrees and others who do not care to shorten the time deem it a privilege to be allowed to complete the work more satisfactorily than they could do during the regular sessions. A great many under-graduates will also remain because they can by this means either shorten their University course or take certain studies which they would like to become somewhat acquainted with but do not ffnd the time during the regular year.

"The summer session is an ideal time for uninterrupted work," said Director Bolton yesterday. "The usual round of parties and other distractions are entirely lacking and the student finds an opportunity to pursue work uninterruptedly and much more thoroughly than is frequently the case during the regular year. Contrary to popular opinion, the weather is seldom excessively warm. With the exception of one summer, 1901, the conditions have been almost ideal for study. During the summer session genuine University conditions prevail. One is reminded much of the German University. The class rooms are filled with mature men and women and the discussions entered into in the classes are generally very thorough and earnest."

A large number of teachers from all over the state are usually in attendance. Among these are many superintendents, principals, and high school teachers. There will also be quite a number of college professors in the classes.

Appointed as Interns

Claude A. Power and Charles A. Monahan have been appointed Interns at Flower Hospital in one of the largest hospitals in New York City. They go immediatly after graduation.

MORE POSITIONS FILLED

Twelve Additional Seniors Secured Teaching Positions Last Week—Record Made

Eleven more appointments were made by Professor Bolton during the past week. Applications for teachers still continue to flood his office and as usual the demand is in excess of the supply. This year a larger per cent of the graduating class has entered the profession of teaching than ever before, but the Department of Education has met with no difficulty in placing worthy students in highly desirable positions. Following is a list of the positions filled last week:

Miss Adelaide Rittenmeyer, Mathematics, Monticello.

Miss Edith Bailey, Mathematics, Ft. Dodge.

Mr. C. C. Brink, Science, Tracy, Minn.

Mr. Willard Merrill, Manual Training, Cedar Falls.

Mr. H. L. Olin, Science, State Preparatory School, Tonkawa, Okla.

Miss Glen Ogden, Latin and English, Lamoni.

Miss Mattie Morrison, English, Cedar Valley Seminary.

Miss Margaret Anderson, Assistant Principal, Atalissa.

Miss Nora Anderson, Sixth Grade, Kalispell, Mont.

Mr. F. E. Ford, Superintendent, Montezuma.

Chester Moffit, Superintendent, Williamsburg.

QUESTION FOR HIGH SCHOOL MEN CHOSEN

Exclusive Control of Corporations by Federal Gov't.

"Resolved, That the Federal Government should have exclusive control of all corporations doing interstate business."

The above question has been selected by the members of the Iowa State High School Debating League for this year's contest.

Each of the high schools claiming membership in the league were given an opportunity of voting on the question and the result was in favor of the above.

Supt. L. G. Foeht of Eagle Grove; Supt. W. O. Riddel of Des Moines, and Prof. Henry E. Gordon, of the Department of Public Speaking, comprise the executive committee of the league which had the final decision to make.

Debate Story Tomorrow

Owing to the fact that the Junior debate was not completed at the time of going to press a full account will be given in tomorrow's Daily Iowan.

Marshall Law Meeting

Marshall Law Society will hold a special meeting Friday evening, May 29, and elect officers for the coming year.

BROWN IS OUT OF STATE MEET

Rest of Team in Good Condition for Friday

Ames May Not Have Walkaway —Grinnell May Win Out Says O'Brien

Unfortunately for Iowa's chances in the state meet that occurs Friday, Brown the star hurdler and captain of the 1905 track team will be unable to compete, because of the injury he sustained to his knee at the Kansas City meet. This will materially lessen Iowa's prospects, for he was looked to spring a surprise in the hig barriers.

According to Trainer O'Brien, Ames will not have the walkaway at the state meet that so many look for on account of the Missouri Valley meet. He says that nothing can be told by the results of Saturday's meet in view of the fact that the track was nothing but a joke and that the men in the sprints were compelled to run on the turf. O'Brien reports that Grinnell will give Ames a good run for their money Friday and may possibly heat them out.

With the exception of Brown all Iowa men are in fair condition and are now resting up for the big contest Friday. White, the crack high jumper who spiked himself at Kansas City, is now in good shape. Remley did not run Saturday, so he is expected to be in the pink of condition. Miller is hard at work at the sprints and will probably make a good showing if the track is good.

The preliminaries in the sprints and hurdles will be held Friday morning, so the men competing in these will leave Iowa City tomorrow night, the rest of the team leaving Friday morning.

A Correction

In the tabulation of degrees published in yesterday's IOWAN, there was an error in regard to the College of Pharmacy. The statement showed that there were but nine degrees and two certificates in the College of Pharmacy. There are eleven candidates for first degrees, one candidate for an advanced degree, and two candidates for certificates showing completion of the practitioners' course in the College of Pharmacy, making a total of fourteen.

NEW OFFICERS FOR CLUB

Republican Organization Elects George Luxford, L. '10, President--Guthrie for Allison

The University Republican club was called to order Monday evening in the Liberal Arts assembly room, and proceeded to the election of officers to serve during the campaign next fall. George Luxford, L. '10, was chosen president, and O. H. DeGrote, L.'09, secretary and treasurer. A vice-president for each of the colleges was also added to the list of new officers. The election of yell-master and marching captain was deferred until next fall.

A rather spirited debate was occasioned by a motion to endorse Gov. A. B. Cummins as the club's choice in the senatorial race. It was finally decided that the club would not commit itself on this issue, but would welcome either "Progressives" or "Standpats" to its ranks.

Professor Speaks

Yesterday afternoon Dr. James R. Guthrie, head of the College of Medicine in the University, gave a rousing speech for Senator Allison at the rally held in Smith's Armory. He appeared before Senator Dolliver, the principal speaker on the program. Dr. Guthrie told of Allison's kindness toward young professional and business men of Dubuque through his personal observation. "Hundreds of young men should rally around the standard of Allison next week," was one of the Professor's remarks.

REGIMENT RETURNS FROM CAMP MACLEAN

Makes Return March in Record Time in Three Hours

Cadets had Most Enjoyable Time and Report Many Adventures —Rain Tests Mettle of Men

Slightly before noon yesterday the University regiment arrived at the Armory, after a four days' march to Mid River Park, the second in the history of the University.

The heavy rain and the thunder storm which swept over the northern part of the county Sunday night put the roads in such a shape that Commandant Weeks decided to charter a special train for the return trip. The mud was thick and sticky on almost all the roads leading into Iowa City and after due council the Colonel decided upon the interurban form of transportation.

Most of the cadets were well tired and sunburned but almost to a man all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the march. A large share of the success of the march was due to the fine "grub" ably provided by the commissary department and well prepared by the six cooks who went with the companies. The six culinary artists received constant praise for the efficiency of their work and the student soldiers with ravenous appetites stowed away all the good eatables in sight.

The judges decided that Monday's maneuvers were a draw and the afternoon was consumed by the regiment in deciding the baseball championship between the company teams. The winning team was composed of the officers.

"I was greatly pleased by the results of the march," said Lieut. C. W. Weeks, the commandant yesterday. "The boys received much practical benefit from the four days' expedition and I feel sure every member of the regiment will go next spring."

Play Coe Today

This afternoon the Varsity goes to Cedar Rapids to play Coe College. Sutherland will probably pitch for Iowa and Captain Baylor for Coe. Coe won the first game at Iowa City 4 to 3.

Y. M. C. A. Announcement

Mr. Carl M. Skinner of the Graduate College will give the address before the regular midweek Y. M. C. A. meeting at 6:45 in Close Hall.

Cox Receives Present

Professor Henry G. Cox, of the University School of Music, was the recipient Monday evening of a beautiful violin case, the gift of the Men's Glee Club.

PRACTICE MARCH OF GREAT VALUE

The practice march of the University Battalion has ended most successfully and there are several features in regard to the custom of holding the march every spring that certainly deserve praise. The practical value of the march is great. It affords a means of learning how to do things by actually doing them. The value of the military instruction gained by service in the battalion is great, no matter what the incidental views of freshmen be on the subject. This practice march is a finale to the year's work. It is a means of putting to practical use the theoretical information gained by the regiment during the school year.

It means much to successfully carry out such a practice march as the one just completed. It is really a student activity requiring brains and energy on the part of the students. Lieutenant Weeks is of course the guiding spirit behind such a march, and it is due to his executive ability that the march succeeded as it did. But it must not be forgotten that without the hearty co-operation, the right spirit and the gameness of all the members of the regiment the practice march would have ended in a huge joke.

Another thing, the practice march each spring is a well earned pleasure jaunt for the battalion. There is more or less monotony to military drill the whole year and this practice march is a reward to the battalion for its work during the year.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Did you ever stop to consider that lots of people's photos would look better if they had someone else to sit for them? There's a kid who works in another clothing store and he was telling me his boss didn't buy any fancy vests this season because he said they wouldn't be worn. That reminded me of what some guy said to me about three years ago, that the Panama hat craze would soon die out. Well, it hasn't—coming stronger, if anything—and so long as we offer the classy vests we are showing this season I guess they won't die out very fast, although they're warranted fast dye. Maybe vests won't be worn but "wescuts" are all the vogue and we have them to burn. We have the whites, the dove shades and the fancy mixtures, all very quiet but not exactly dead quiet. See them.

AMONG THE BOOKS

The hero of Marie Van Vorst's series of stories, "The Sentimental Adventures of Jimmy Bulstrude," is a loveable chap who has a faculty of happily interfering in other people's love affairs and at the same time conducting his own with sublime sagacity. There is a great deal of variety and action in the stories. At one time he entertains a tramp; then he saves a poor young artist in Paris by sitting for a portrait

JIMMY BULSTRODE
From "The Sentimental Adventures of Jimmy Bulstrode." by Marie Van Vorst

which he does not want; again, he tries to adopt a child; and at last he wins out in his own delicate chase. The stories are all delightfully told in an entertaining mixture of humor with deeper feeling. The clever sketches are well worth the reading. ("The Sentimental Adventures of Jimmy Bulstrode," by Marie Van Vorst. Chas. Scribner's Sons, N. Y. Price $1.50.)

BIERRING REPORTS SPLENDID MEETING

Iowa Professors Are Prominent in Exercises

"The annual meeting of the State Medical Society proved a great success," said Pres. Bierring of the College of Medicine on returning from Des Moines. "The majority of its 2.000 members attended the convention and remained to the last meeting showing exceptional interest in the discussions."

The officers elected for the following year are: Dr.C.F. Wahrer, President, Ft. Madison; Dr. F. G. Murphy, Vice-President, Mason City; Dr. N. C. Shiltz, Second Vice-President, Des Moines; Dr. W. L. Trainer, Secretary, Council Bluffs; Dr. W. B. Small, Treasurer, Waterloo.

The next annual meeting will be held at Dubuque. Many professors of the Medical College were present and gave discussions on medical topics. Dr. Bierring, president of the society, gave an interesting address on introspective views of the duties and responsibilities of the medical society to the public. Dr. Bierring says: "There is an urgent need of education of the public mind in matters pertaining to the progress of medicine. Reformation in such things as affect the health of the public must come in an ethical way, civic measures and laws being practically useless, until education has trained the public mind to such a point where they recognize that certain precautions are necessary to insure health and healthful surroundings."

L. E. Day of the Department of Agricultural gave an excellent discussion upon the need of pure milk and the methods in care of handling. He emphasized that care in handling milk was absolutely necessary if good milk was expected.

Other members of the medical faculty who spoke were, Dr. Jepson who lectured on "The Surgery of the Duodenum;" Dr. Burge on "The Unusual Complications of Appendicitis;" Dr. Chase on "Diet as a Therapeutic Measure." Dr. Albert and Dr. Kessler gave lectures and frequently entered into the discussions.

Macbride to Speak

Professor T. H. Macbride will give the Commencement addresses at Dunlap and Stanwood, Ia., the last of this week. His subjects are "Schools and Scholars," and "What is Education?"

Before finishing his course at Normal, Professor Ensign taught several terms in the rural schools of Iowa and in 1895 he entered the State University of Iowa. He was graduated from the University in 1897 with the degree of Ph. D. From 1897 to 1900 Professor Ensign was principal of the Iowa City high school and at the same time he pursued graduate work in the University, receiving his M. A. degree in 1900.
