JUDGES OF THE YEAR

Judges of the year are Carl Stewart, Coulter and Briggs

SCHOLARSHIP

A second member of last year's team, G. G. Cole, was selected by the judges for next season's team. He made a fine appearance last year. He is from Harris and a member of Zeta-theta.

C. W. Briggs, also a member of the team, was elected a member on a position this year's team. Appearing in good form last year he is expected to be a very able and competent debater. He is a graduate of East Des Moines high school and a member of Zeta-theta.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy

Money is becoming so plentiful that some people will now be using it again for fuel. I guess there's going to be a lot of money burned up in experimenting on airships, now that America has lost the pace. I see that a Frenchman has challenged our Dayton boys to a flying match for $10,000 a side, but the bids are not paying any attention to such wild bluffs like those. They say the German war department can run dog-fights all around those French aeronauts and the Krupp gun works is turning out a gun that can punish us uniformly sailing at a great height. That would certainly look us up so that we

Sigma Nu Shot Out Betas

In an uninteresting one-sided game the Sigma Nu's shot out the Betas by a score of 19 to 8, yesterday morning.

Following in the lineup:

Weeks, 2b
McEachron, 1b
Cobb, 1b
Drake, 2b
Winters, 2b
Funk, cf
Miller, ss
Morrison, 1b
Moore, cf
Cassady, cf

Totals: H 19 R 21 E 12

Betts, 1b
Bryant, 2b

c

H 3 R 3 E 0

The entire team performed well except for the most part. The Sigma Nu切实 tried and made the best of their opportunities. They were the winners in this one-sided game.

Stolen bases—Sigma Nu, 4; Betts, 3.

Sigma Nu, 2. Betts, 1.

The two teams are to meet again on Saturday, and it will be a tough game. The Betas have a good team and are expected to give the other boys a good run for their money.
