IOWA COLLEGE, IOWA, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 16, 1908

PHI BETTA KAPPA

SPEAKER PROMINENT

Dr. Washington Gladden is Well Known

Leader in World of Affairs as Well as in the World of Scholarship—Here Tonight

In Washington Gladden, who will be the subject of a three-hour oration tonight, the society has been fortunate enough to secure a man of such prominence both in the world of scholarship and the world of affairs, that the society is well prepared for an opening of commencement week, and the Auditorium will doubtlessly be crowded on the occasion of his address.

The subject of the oration, "What are we in Democracy?" is the field in which Dr. Gladden is most famous. His work as a social reformer and his numerous writings along this line brought him to prominence many years ago.

In addition to his work as a student of social and political affairs, he has been prominent in the Congregational Church. He has been pastor of the First Congregational Church in Columbus,

Ohio, and has been moderator of the General Council of the Congregational church as well as a committee of the American Board of Commission for foreign invalids.

The Phi Beta Kappa oration for some reason was omitted last year. In the previous years it has been given at an earlier date,

Tuesday morning, and the audience at that time was necessarily small. The renewal of the custom of having an annual Phi Beta Kappa oration will be welcomed, since it brings such a distinguished name as Washington Gladden, and the change till Tuesday evening will meet the approval of every one, since so few were able to attend the oration at the morning hour.

The society is open to the public without ticket.

Drawings on Exhibition

A large number of drawings and water-color paintings by the students of the College of Fine Arts will be on exhibition at 901 L. A., today from 10 to 12 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m. All contemporaries are cordially invited to inspect the collection which includes the best efforts of the students during the past year.

Former Student Dies

Mrs. Adelaide Clark Harbach of Des Moines, a former student of the College of Liberal Arts, died very suddenly at her home yesterday afternoon. The cause of her death was heart failure.
SPLENDID SHOWING OF STATE SOCIETIES

Historical Society Has Published Mary Books

The last twelve months have been exceedingly prosperous for the State Historical Society. From campus quarters it has moved into the entire south wing formerly occupied by the University Libraries. Many improvements have been made in the way of fine cases, new furniture, and steel safe.

During the past year the society has published many books and bulletins. The titles of the books are Anna, the Community of True Inspiration, by Mrs. Schmaubach.

Iowa Journal of History and Politics, Vol. V.

An Address, by Judge Horace E. Doerner.

A Retrospect of Sixty Years, by J. L. Pickard.

Extra Service This Week

During commencement there will be extra cars on the interurban for the increased traffic, so the students need not fear for want of room in the cars. The interurban people have made arrangements to handle the crowd this year so that no one will be inconvenienced.

Students, when you are in need of a fine heavy rug, call on C. A. Murphy.

Embroideries and lace. All the newest things. New wash dress goods and white goods.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

A lot of men who think they are keeping step with the march of progress are only rattling at the time. No matter which you do, it's pretty hard on your business, and we suggest that "Evereware Home," made from the best two-thread pearl yarn, preserved at heels and toes with linen thread and warranted by the manufacturer that four pairs will not need mending in the heel, toe or sole within three months from date of purchase. No matter what part of the United States you are located in, if you will send us $2.75 we will send you, prepaid, six pairs "Evereware Home," either black or tan, with a six months' guarantee, satisfactorily out and agreed to by us. If you don't know your size, state the size of the nearest friend or wife and the proper size. We do this to get you in touch with the Closet store. Our hats, clothing, underwear, and shoes are as good as our line. Have you seen the new soles? If not you've got something coming to you, MUGGISY, with

SUMMER SESSION PROSPECTS

Registration Will Start This Week. Class Work Begins Monday, June 22 — Many Inquiries

Now that the regular session of the University is drawing to a close, interest is beginning to develop for the Summer Session. Registration begins next Saturday morning and accordingly advance indication of the attendance this year will be recorded breaking.

A larger number of students have signified their intentions of remaining for the Summer Session this year than ever before. As a result, a greater number of graduate students will also be large. Inquiries from all over the state still continue in flood to the office of Pres. Fenton. As usual the teachers of the state will constitute a large per cent of the student body.

On Monday, June 22, class work in the Summer Session begins. The number of the heads of departments will remain for the Summer Session, making the student body of the very best the University can offer. A wide range of subjects is offered, and graduate students have the opportunity of pursuing special lines of research. The classes in the Department of Education are usually the largest, as almost all of the students take some work in Education.

SUNON CLASS HAS ANNUAL EXERCISES

Day Class: Observed on Campus Yesterday.

Before a large audience, the annual class day exercises of the seniors were held yesterday afternoon on the steps of the Hall of Liberal Arts, with President William E. Jones of the class as the presiding officer.

As the opening number of the program the class glee club, which was followed by the opening address by the class president, H. O. Field followed the class oration. Miss Alice Culver Wilson gave the class prophecy and Miss Gertrude Ogdon the class history. The class poem was read by Miss Laura Lynch, and after the planting of the ivy by the president, Harold Braezen gave a stirring farewell address which was feelingly responded to by Professor T. H. Machacek, who spoke for the faculty.

Following the program songs were sung and the class picture was taken.
