A Wonderful Discovery
One of the most wonderful discoveries of recent years is the process of marketing vegetable vegetables.

This is a discovery by Prof. L. O. Delacheste, a noted French Electric Chemist, who, after 15 years of hard work and great cost, perfected and what scientists have labored for hundreds of years to produce. One of the many products for which this secret processs is used is the repose of rose, by white live roses are actually turned completely into metal, and then finished in the art. The colors mentioned on hat pins of course are on two hat pins, for our two roses are the same. It is difficult to measure all the more beautiful or artistic. One of our stores here has three real roses on exhibit, and they certainly are worth seeing.
