SATURDAY'S PLAYING ENCOURAGES COACHES

VAINNESS SEEN WELL-DEVELOPED IN OFFENSIVE TACTICS

Work of the Defense Was Satisfactory—Hustings Will Be In Shape for the Missouri Game

"Iowa plays a stronger game than ever and is in better form. Their work is not so good," was the summary made by Coach Bryant of Iowa for other Saturday's game. In comments:

The determined play and the power behind the Hawkeyes attack made it a tough afternoon for the Missouri defense.

The manner in which the helping unstead was manifest caused excellent comment from the Pennsylvania:

The students are jubilant over the immense total made Saturday. Coach Bryant attributed the win to the entire team's effort.

The game is the most part with the showing, but he is afraid of overconfidence before the Missouri game. However, the success of next Saturday's game is felt by most of the players. From Captain Martin to the last man there is a confidence in the team that will carry them through.

It will be at their own fair hand with the Missouri, and their own fair hand with the Missouri, and their own fair hand with the Missouri.

Work of the Reserves Was Satisfactory—Hustings Will Be In For the Missouri Game.

"Iowa's game differs a good deal from Yale's," said the Missouri coach before the game. He was pleased with the Iowa team. "Missouri's defense is well balanced and the Missouri team is well versed in the art of attack."

The Iowa team was simply not good enough to compete with the Missouri team. The game was a close one, and Missouri won by a score of 22-10.

Wise Talks

By the Office Boy

I heard a man say, "We had dinner with ten commandments, but the people had broken so many of them that he didn't suppose there were many of them left." Some people have talked in this it is all "out and dried" and that Mr. Bryan has no more show to put on than Mr. Watson, while another man says that Bryan's party has the reputation of being "cut and dried." The truth is, our country is not talking politics, but talking clothing. If a little pencil godt mixed it because everybody is talking politics that aren't going to hurt the clothing tag if it is good stuff (not just made up) but men who are some of you don't want to put up with the prices going to fall under if Mr. Bryan goes higher? No, my countrymen. It will take some of us at least two years to hurt the stuff and prices on which such clothes will say "down per" — meanwhile remember that we will understand no importance that the stuff doesn't really cost any less and you need better undergarment and don't want to take any chances. Just let the campaign go warning. Nothing hast always given you that chilly feeling (when you fear) no rever- sional shopping period but cold straight up to your underwear.

and because of your health is not in condition to stand a grueling game. The next chango is Saunders, a freshman, last year, who may bring the varsity's prospects. Saunders, as a fearless player, a capable general and an excellent drop kicker. He will definitely get a chance to play in the Iowa game. Trowbridge is the next runner at quarterback, but Baron is the most conscientious cookies on the squad, he is far from being a safe man in the backfield.

Moulow has a week ahead of him to whip his team in shape and the game with Bell has revealed the weak spots in the team. It is up to the coach and his assistants and everybody knows that next to beating Kansas next Thanksgiving, Moulow would sacrifice a month's sleep to win the Hawkeyes.

Missouri has played two games this season. The Tigers beat War rensburg State Normal 27 to 6 and the Rolla School of Mines 11 to 0. The remaining games on the schedule are:

- Iowa, Oct. 17, Columbus; Washington, Oct. 24 at Columbus; Ames, Oct. 31 at Columbus; Drake, Nov. 7 at Des Moines; Washington, Nov. 14 at Columbus, and Kansas Nov. 28, place undecided.
