Arrangements

Arrangements have been completed for chartering a special car for the Iowa town next Friday and for 5:26 o'clock when the Harkaway would head by the manner "Burck," the cabin car, will leave over the line, headed for Columbia. The train will be in time to eat a light lunch and dress for the game.

The optimistic outlook for the day of the week has been greatly sharpened, first by a report of minor injuries to the best players sent from the hospital, secondly by the report which furnished Coach Burch back home from Columbia where he saw some of the best men back in Columbia. He thoroughly admired the local players and coaches by his statements on the game and had work has begun in earnest.

Last night's scrimmage was a dis- sappoointment to Coach Catlin, but he is not perturbed; his men has not yet got hurt very much," was his final statement.

Coach Catlin, who was for almost three quarters of an hour an and the band went send the news through signals the band leaders against Columbia. Only the breakdowns were made in the local scrimmage practice.

The only hopeful sign manifested was when the villainous cold front blew and threw back the Missouri formida- bly. However, the plays were insti- tuted in an unaccustomed style and fur- ther no criticism as to what the rival could do against the plays when the next work was work on.

Hall black board with diagrams carefully studied by Coach Catlin and Griffith was again in the daily schedule yesterday evening. At the close of the evening football class was continued, for the rest of the class was a short speech on the 'charge of over-confidence.'

In last night's scrimmage, R. Brown, freshman left end, caught a broken leg. He was caught under the lower two to fracture the bone.

Clothes Above
The Common

It has been our custom for years to deal in clothes that are different—clothes that are not like others because they are superior.

A Suit With Air

It is as easy for a mechanic to make a neat piece of work as a poor one, "a mechanic said the other day, "if he just knows how." It is just as easy and cheap for you to wear a suit with style as an inferior one if you get it where they keep the good ones like you find hers.

$15.00 to $25.00
$10 to $40

Formal occasions call for special taste in dressing. You will find us equipped for all such in every detail. We rent dress suits.

Overcoat Ideas

The Overcoat season is before you and in order to insure yourself against being imposed upon by a cost season's garment you should see the new ideas illustrated at our store. Drop in and ask about the goods we carry in this line.

Anything Less Than Perfection

You are particular in choosing your physician; why not be particular in choosing your tailor!!

I can't afford to make STYLE MISTAKES, because the customers for whom I exist can't afford to WEAR them. My styles are always simple. They are not UPHOLSTERED like cheap over-slung furniture. It takes thousands and thousands of hidden stitches, skilled fitting and accurate measuring to produce

THE CONFIDENCE OF INDIVIDUALITY

--which give my customers personality and the feeling that their clothes FIT WELL and LOOK WELL.

Del good and make a good habit the next time you see a man lay down money and then use that money made by doing good to make more money to do even good with. This rich man who drops a nickel on the contribution plate and expects a glimpse crowning faith in him, and the man who becomes rich by piling up bright gold coins upon bright gold coins, is a philanthropist—merely.

I wish the good people who seem to take no much interest in the welfare of us boys and girls who get up opera matinees every Saturday, in every way to try to help make education a joy. Many a boy and many a girl would get up an opera matinee solely for the sake of doing some good.
