White Plains, N. Y., gave an account of the meeting of the first branch of the American Legion League at Yale. He then gave a degital account of the platform and held an extensive discussion over the league.

The theme of his address was:
Citizenship and in the course of it he

DON'TS FOR BACHELORS AND OLD MAIDS

Miss N. Thomas Attin has long been known as one of thecleverest and wittiest of women; but she now comes forward in the role of social mentor.

Every minute of the world has its crudest wisdom to many little "book" and social methods that have earned criticism and mention.
