The Iowa Athletic Journal published last week that the committee in charge to get tickets before Attorney General for the Nebraska game in section C, opposite the center of the field in the west stand, at a meeting of the junior law class held two weeks ago the plan was suggested and a committee appointed to see with the other two classes. The freshmen and seniors were favored by the suggestion and the meeting committee has arranged for the reservations in this section. The sale will commence Monday and the students are expected by the committee to buy their tickets before Tuesday night in order to be in the section.

Athletic Journal Out

The Iowa Athletic Journal published by "Pat" Hower, in absence of the University, and a well known hocky player and W. R. Blaiklock, an ardent Iowa booster, has made a local appearance in Iowa City. It is reported with the house athletic news of state, college and high school拆 Ed.

Not only has the new publication a wealth of material concerning the football program (the ball but also some of the best gossip concerning college and athletic events that ever has printed in the state.

The new paper appears every two weeks. It is printed on good paper and making a real appearance.
