CROSS COUNTRY RUN ON SATURDAY MORNING.

Crack DistanceMen Will Compete In Contests

With one of the best fields of distant men to ever enter a cross country running here, the annual fall competition will take place Saturday morning in form of a seven mile run to Coralville and return, the men finishing by running a lap around the track.

There has been between thirty to fifty men to report regularly to Captain Hotz this fall in the tri weekly jogs across country but in the final competition only fifteen runners will take part. There are a number of upper classmen in the running which make the outlook bright for good distant men on the track team in the spring.

The run was set for Saturday morning because it is the day of the Nebraska game and many visitors in Iowa City will have an opportunity to see the fall track work. The run will start at 10 o'clock from the track, continue across the river through Coralville. There will be prizes awarded to the winners in the form of cups. Captain Hotz makes a request that all the men wishing to compete meet at the gym on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Among the freshmen runners, Steingerg, Salinger and Campbell, the old State Normal star, are showing excellent form.

To Make Report

Professor George F. Kay, a member of the United States Geological Survey, and who made an extensive examination of the mineral recourses of south-western Oregon during the past summer, has just received a large shipment of material which he collected there. Prof. Kay is now working on this material and in the spring the government will issue a report of his investigations.

Ticket Sale Heavy

Before four o'clock Monday afternoon a large number of students had gathered around the ticket office at Iowa Field. Soon after the windows opened, two lines of students anxious to secure good seats formed and in spite of drizzling rain kept up steady procession until dark. Things point to heavy sale of seats for Saturday's game. Arrangements have been made to allow those men taking girls to reserve the top rows while the rooters are assigned to the lower part of the grand-stand.

Y. W. C. A. Notice

The regular Y. W. C. A. mid-week meeting will be held Wednesday evening at Close Hall at 6:45. The association cordially invites all girls to be present.

POLITICAL DEBATE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC TEAMS WILL DECIDE ISSUSES

PickedTeams From Taft and Bryan Clubs to Debate in Natural Science Auditorium

The champions of the Taft Club and theBryan Club will meet in the Natural Science Auditorium Friday evening Oct. 30, to thresh out and finally settle the burning question at issue between the two great parties in this campaign. Both teams are composed of debaters of long experience and undoubted ability and the contest will be a decidedly warm one.

The arguments for the republicans cans will be set forth by R. N. Jones, Paul Payne and Fred Huebner. Their main point of discussion will be the Postal Savings bank, Taft's position on the labor question and a general comparison of the two candidates.

The supporters of Bryan are: C. E. Frazier, Carl Byoir and E. W. McManus. The Democratic arguments will be on guarantee of bank deposits popular election of U. S. Senators, and publicity of campaign contributions.

Robert N. Jones of Iowa City the leader of the Republican team is a member of the Zethagathian Society and a man of broad debating experience. As a leader of the freshman and sophomore teams of his class he distinctly made good and is undoubtedly the man to lead the team.

Paul M. Payne of Linden is also a Zetagathian with a good debating record. He is a senior in the Law College.

Fred C. Hubner of Iowa City is a Marshall Law and represented the University in the Iowa-Kansas debate.

G. E. Frazier of Anamosa is the leader of the Democratic team. He is a Zetagathian with a fine oratorical record having been on both the Hamilton and N. O. L. preliminaries and on the Junior debate.

Carl Byoir of Des Moines was on the Iowa-Nebraska debate last year. He is a member of Irving.

Edward W. McManus of Keokuk is a Marshall Law and was on the Kansas preliminary.

Dr. Lyle Jefferies, D. 05 of Hampton is a guest at the Sig Alph House.

Miss Joanna Pelletier has resumed her University work after a short illness.

The economic department at Minnesota is making an effort to get the expense accounts of the undergraduates. The object is to compare expenses there with those at other institutions.

FOOTBALL SOUVENIR WILL BE PUBLISHED

Athletic Board to Sell Booklets on Saturday Morning

The third annual Football Souvenir published by the Board in Control of Athletics is now being printed and will be on sale Saturday, Oct. 31, the day of the Iowa-Nebraska game. Although greatly superior to the other two editions, it will sell at the same price as before, ten cents.

The cover is a work of art. Designed by a special artist and printed in old gold and black on heavy paper it promises to surpass even the excellent cover on last year's souvenir.

As usual, the pamphlet will consist principally of half tone cuts of the football squad, individual portraits of the first team and views of the University buildings. In this year's edition everything will be entirely new. The work of photographing the players is in charge of Merle Call and a very creditable set of pictures have been obtained. New portraits of Coaches Catlin, Griffith and Heinzmann will be inserted and the smiling face of trainer "Tommy" O'Brien will be a feature. Cuts of the Girls' Hockey Team, the Push Ball Scrap, "Burch" the mascot, are to be published as innovations. A splendid picture of Professor "Jimmie," head of the Department of Gate Guarding, will occupy a prominent place.

A complete collection of University songs and yells will be printed. The football schedules and scores of course will be found.

The paper to be used is a heavy grade of fine gloss finish material and the printing will be done in a soft green tint.

To quote Dean Teeters, who is in charge of the work, "The souvenir for 1908 will be a 'hummer.'"

Bryan Meeting Postponed

Owing to scant attendance Monday afternoon the meeting of the Bryan Club set for 3:30 was postponed until last evening. This morning Assembly will be given over to the two political clubs of the University and the Democratic organization made arragements last night to march to the Auditorium in a body this morning.

Good Debaters Enter College

Two debaters from Iowa colleges who entered the University of Iowa this fall have signified their intention of trying out for the university debating teams this year. They are Don Campbell, a student experienced in forensic work from two intercollegiate debates while a student at the State Normal school and J. J. McConnell of Cedar Rapids, a member of the Coe college team which debated against Monmouth last year.

ANOTHER BIG MASS MEETING ON FRIDAY

GREAT DEMONSTRATION NIGHT BEFORE NEBRASKA GAME

Freshman Coach Heinzman Will Preside—Regent Lane May Make Speech—Today's Program

Plans have been practically completed for a master mass meeting of students in the natural science auditorium Friday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock to generate enthusiasm and spirit for the crucial game of the season, Iowa vs. Nebraska on Iowa field Saturday afternoon.

Harry L. Heinzman will preside, President George E. MacLean, Henry G. Walker, a prominent alumni, and Regent Joe R. Lane, of Davenport, will be the principal speakers.

The team will be seated on the stage. Several members will speak As usual the band will lend no little part to the enthusiastic gathering.

With the great open air rooters' meeting at the scrimmage practice this afternoon and the Friday night's program there will be probably the greatest exhibition of Iowa spirit since the palmy days of 1900.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the band will begin playing on Clinton street. A little later it will go to Iowa field. There the yell masters will take charge and not only will the rooters for Saturday be rehearsed but the varsity squad will be given a hearty sendoff.

The athletic management wishes the students to understand that there will be a good scrimmage between the freshmen and the varsity, so that there will be something to attract the average student besides the organization of the rooting.

The scrimmage last night was fiercely fought and the varsity displayed the ginger which marks the complete anihilation of the fearful slump which overtook the team before, at the time of, and after the Missouri game. Two touchdowns were made but the work of the men was more satisfactory than for several days. Captain Kirk was kept out of the lineup. None of the varsity men were injured.

Prof. Weller's subject will be, "The Excavation of American Schools at Athens."

SUPPORT FROM THE SIDE-LINES.

Next Saturday Iowa faces one of the strongest of the Western gridiron aggregations. Nebraska has shown her mettle in her O-O game with Minnesota. Her team bears comparison with the best in the country. She is a formidable foe. Against this team Iowa sends one just as strong and just as determined, but one which has not behind it the incentive of a splendid showing against a Conference team. The element of confidence, which will mark the Nebraska play, is a factor in the earning of any victory. What has Iowa with which to offset it?

We are positive that the Iowa eleven, man to man, is the equal of Nebraska in every respect. We know that the team is efficiently coached and well trained. But how about the student body along the side-lines? There is one thing which Iowa must furnish this team, both on Saturday and during the remainder of the games,—and that is enthusiastic support,—both by attendance at the game and by such encouragement during its progress as only a loyal "rooter' can give. This support will unquestionably be the determining factor in the success of the Old Gold.

Today the call comes for all who have the welfare of Iowa on the gridiron at heart to meet in a monster mass meeting on Iowa field to give encouragement to the men and to practice the songs and cheers. The response to this call ought to show the presence of every loyal Iowan in the stands cheering to his utmost. It is an individual responsibility. What is your answer?

FROM OTHER COLLEGES

A traveling salesman who deals in fraternity jewelry and sees most of the colleges and universities has said that the students at Washington smoke less than any other bunch of rah rahs in the country.

Esperanto has recently been added to the curriculum of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as has already been done by the University of Chicago, Northwestern University, and the University of Wisconsin.

From Lincoln.

Lincoln, Nebr., Oct., 27, 1908. (Special) Great anxiety is prevailing among football enthusiasts here over the outcome of the Iowa game next Saturday. Up until the time of Nebraska's game with Minnesota the rooters did not even consider the possibility of a defeat at Iowa's hands, but now the gravity of the situation which confronts the Cornhuskers is appreciated by all and consequently Coach Catlin's warriors are feared more than any other teams which Nebraska must meet this season.

The cornhuskers suffered severely as a result of the fierce game with the Gophers and several men are not back in the game even yet. Beltzer, Kroger, and Cooke, the mainstays of Nebraska's back field, did not get out even for signal work, and as a result the team met the Haskell Indians in a greatly weakened condition. At present Cooke is in the hospital with blood poisoning in his foot and Kroger is suffering from water on the knee. Even the optimistic ones have given up hope of their being able to play against Iowa and as a result Nebraska's chances will be materially injured.
