WHIST TOURNAMENT

Pam Hollis Council Gives Preference to Whist for Winter Sport.

At a meeting of the Pam-Hollis council at the Phi Kappa psi house the delegation definitely decided to launch a winter tournament this winter

instead of the indoor basketball tournament held last year. What is not an innovation among the University fraternities here, several successful tournament matches having been carried through to the end.

The best junior was held in 1907 and the trophy

was won by Sigma Chi.

Rule five to take the place for the University championship that will determine the winner of the Iowa, Lewis, Media, Fraternity and Liberal Arts fraternities.

Each team will play every other team twice throughout the season for each win. The dates have been set for Saturday, afternoon, three dates two games each day. On the first of November, Kansas, the basketball season will take place in the knitting and Primrose...:

Although the Liberal Arts team has arranged for a coach: Chas. Burner, captain of last year's varsity, to take the place of J. B. when the season opens, Miss

Hanna, a substitute of last year who will captain the team. The outcomes and results have been quoted freely from the local papers. The games, however, will probably start at 3 o'clock from the start. Following is the schedule:

November 7 (3:15 p.m.)--L.O.O.P. vs Iowa.

November 8 (8:30 p.m.)--I. A. vs George W. Thomas.

November 9 (3:15 p.m.)--W. L. I. and Valparaiso.

November 12 (3:15 p.m.)--I. A. vs Iowa.

November 13 (8:30 p.m.)--I. A. vs Cornell

November 24 (8:30 p.m.)--I. A. vs Alabama.

November 25 (3:15 p.m.)--Media vs Valparaiso.

November 26 (3:15 p.m.)--I. A. vs Iowa.

November 28 (8:30 p.m.)--I. A. vs Cornell.

Note: All games have been arranged for.
