The weather man permitting, it is the plan of the Physical Training department for women to close the outdoor season with a match game of hockey on Iowa Hall. A day will soon be decided on and the twenty-two of the coeds selected from a class of two hundred will play the annual game of England's young women. This year greater enthusiasm for the sport has been demonstrated. This year saw the first women in the United States have the honor to start their first game. The frosh girls are now special workers of the coed and show superior ability in passing the ball up the field. Even handbag has been displayed, and with the presence of a match team there is great rivalry among the girls. Each one is doing her best to make the team.

"Bash," the first moment of the football team boys is likely to get on Iowa field and watch the practice contests. However, he has not always taken any too kindly to the new, but has frequently displayed a liking for the late slot or the delinquent.

Following is a list of prominent candidates: Centers—Bessie Schlegel, Irene Stone, Katherine Smiley, Catherine S. Chamberlain, Inez Rogers, Leah Williams, Claudia Tenhaken.

Forwards—Anna Patch, Ida Boulay, Clara Smolin, Joyce Reed; Wing—Ruth Kepner, May Vancil, Esther B. Belson, Helen Johnson; Assistant Halfback, Sonye Halcy; Halfback—Cura Dammann, Grace Williams, May Swain, Grace B. Davis, Dora Nelson, Jazzy Parry; Goal keepers—North Hall, Willa Blanchard, Elizabeth Groch, Elsie Brice; Right End—Faith Pelke; Left End—Judy Wilcox, M. Brown.

Alumnae to Watch:

K. L. Bowes will be married on Thanksgiving day in Miss Chamberlain's, 22nd and University. Mr. Bowes graduated from the College of Law last June in the De Paul University. At a year ago he went to Northwestern to check the situation. It is his intention to return to Chicago for the practice of law.
