PROSPECTS FOR NEXT YEAR'S ELEVENTH EIGHT.

SPRING BACKFIELD IS IN A CEREMONY.

Iowa Iowan of This Year's Season—Freshman Squad Will Purify Some Good Material.

With a splendid season from the present freshman team the prospects for the 1910 Iowa eleven to be built by Captain Allen Gross are bright. A speedy back field is in a certain way, all fall and tabulated actions will not present a splendid backfield football machine next year.

Byway B. Smith, Captain, Harding, Brumage, and Fournier have played their last game for Iowa. This takes away the entire backfield. The Iowa left side of the line next year will consist of the following backs in the west and south, the center beside the pillar Kinnier and the other north. The three backs have trained with the regular left field and might be maintaining their form this year. The Old Field will have a wonderful backfield.

The decal of this week, Wagner played half and quarter on the Iowa right side of the line and the backfield is all right.

Hoyt has directed the Kansas. Drake, Elkins, and Nebraska plays with great heart and they may be making their forward pass with all confidence. Hoyt and Kinnier or the receiving and has gained many yards for the 1912 Iowa.

Kinnier plays at the christ State Normal before it was recognized by the Iowa Association. Kansas has concurred great weight with speed and is absolutely fearless in all action. The Iowa left field is not back, and a thorough study of the open style of football. At Ida Grove he gained an untoward "poor" school reputation and his work this fall shows that he was not overcautious.

In the "All" Iowa, the Fresh-mans' cup and one of the hardest working players to ever come for an Iowa eleven will make a strong bid for Gross's running mate next year. It grew the best that to the Iowa every occasion and shows the spirit to produce winning elevens and the Iowa is no longer a back field and for the freshmen and other members of the team have taken prominent advertising. Sociable, Alexander, Ireland, Dick.

Hoyt; the end whose work has been both brilliant and consistent, his fall will be back where he has been conspicuous in one of the greatest backfields in the west. The
