REASONS FOR NO VACATION ON FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK

World Practically Nest In No School for a Week

"Why is there school on Friday?" and "Why cannot we get this day off so as to go on a trip?" are common questions this week among the students. The reasons are not always thoroughly understood by the average undergraduate.

GREATERS, PROPOSITION, OR GROWTH OF ADEPIS IN IOWA

Five of the Class Graduating from The College of Democrats

In other States

Members of the 1907 graduating class in the College of Democrats are widely scattered in Iowa and in a few, the class is divided. The few who are still at home in College are all, and only five are settled down in practice in other states.

The entire list of last year's seniors and their destinations follow:

Says He Speaks at Cedar Rapids.

A. B. Tim, a Chinese student in the university, recently gave a speech before the Cedar Rapids Y. M. C. A. on the subject "The Awakening of China." His address consisted of:

About three thousand students, first, Why has China been so backward for thousands of centuries? Second, Is China really a civilization, or is it a third, What of the future of China?" He closed with the statement "My people have the highest record for the American." Wilson Receives Invitation.

Professor William W. Wilson, head of the Department of German, has been invited to read before the American Folklore Society, which will meet in Illinois in the early part of January.
