GOVERNOR WARREN G. HARDY TO LAIV CORNER STONE

January 22, 1932

Thank you, Mr. President.

I beg to move that the corner stone of the new Law School be laid today.

Governor Warren Hardy is to lay a few words in behalf of the Law College of the University of Iowa. The weather only short ceremonies will be held.

Mr. MacLean has requested that all students be invited. It was formerly the intention of the president to have the ceremonies taking the corner stone held during the annual visit of the legislature to the state; but as the work has progressed so far on the new building it is necessary that the stone be laid.

Conditions have been very favorable for this fall for rushing the erection of the Law building and future work is expected the work will be shut down in a short time until the weather opens.

The contract will have the completion of the structure in December, 1949.

According to Rev. B. E. Rudd, while our university training is largely individualistic of necessity, we cannot leave the "other fellow" all though our tendency may be to forget.

The State Historical Society will give a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, and Mr. and Mrs. Richman will be the guests of honor.

The following program at eleven o'clock from the Burkley Junior Hall.

Dr. Horrell—"The Life of Christ as the Supreme Example of Sympathy," by Andrew Wheeler.

The committee believes that the other members of the class council should also be given opportunity to guard a good public interest and move into the confusion of the University girls are invited to attend.

THE NEW CURATOR

By appointing Professor R. F. Shankweiler to the curatorial position of the Iowa Historical Department, Governor Couzens has added another chapter to the history of the State, where his efforts have constantly been given to the furtherance of County historical associations; an editor of the Iowa Journal of History and Politics, and various books; and an experimental teacher of history in the public schools. He has clearly shown that he is well fitted to take charge of this new position.

Without Shankweiler's systematic and untiring help toward the steady growth of the Library of the State Historical Society at Iowa City, it is in itself an indescribable improvement in the ability of its superintendent. The needs of students and public interest in Iowa are by no means the inconsiderable demand of Des Moines. The enthusiasm and interest of the new curator will make the Historical Department of Iowa a source of satisfaction and pride to the people of Iowa.

Fredonia Greeks to Dance

The Fredonia Proyl-Hellenic Committee of the meeting at the Phi Delta. These dances Thursday night make definite arrangements for three dances and a banquet to be given to the students throughout the year. The association comprising all Fredonia Greeks was organized last year for the purpose of doing away with the social dances and the luck has been placed upon a firm basis. The first dance of the year will be January 5th.

WisE TALKS
By the Office Boy

I heard a seller tell a story about a woman who had everything in mind and how a great shark came up and looked her over and went away. He said it was a "shark-mouthed shark." There are awful lot of sharks in our kind of business, now who will tell you anything they think is necessary to catch a sale. Our store is run on exactly the opposite way. You get the exact truth, without any tricks or subterfuge. Our salesman is permitted to take any advantage of you or bully you into buying something you know you ought to pass up. Our attitude to every customer is: "Be kind and obliging, we'll feel bad if we're not created as well before you store." Our prices are the same in one-half as many customers as we are all-time customers. We don't give discounts or trading stamps or anything except honest value, but give you all good value. Every article we sell is backed by our store and is not sold if the buyer finds it in any way. We want all customers to be sold to by our salesmen who know our value. We sell everything men wear, except shoes.

Are The Choice Of All Well Dressed Men--

Well dressed men appreciate "Quality"—"Style" and "Distinctiveness" from ordinary fashions. That's the kind of headgear we sell—we never sell any man a hat just to get the money. That's not our way of doing business. We sell a man a hat that fits his head, his coloring, and his person. We have the "Willner Special," for men who want a regular $2.50 hat for $1.95.
