RESULTS SHOW THAT MANY STUDENTS ATTENDING UNIVERSITY ARE OF FOREIGN BIRTH

Foreign-born students constitute a large percentage of the University of Iowa student body, according to the results recently completed by the Registrar. A total of 970 students were classified as foreign-born, representing 11.6 per cent of the total student body of 8,258. Of these foreign students, 86 per cent are from European countries.

The foreign students are distributed among the various colleges as follows: College of Liberal Arts, 50.7 per cent; College of Medicine, 14.2 per cent; College of Law, 11.0 per cent; College of Pharmacy, 9.2 per cent; College of Education, 8.2 per cent; College of Engineering, 5.7 per cent; College of Commerce and Business Administration, 2.9 per cent; and the University of Iowa College of Dentistry, 2.9 per cent.

The proportion of foreign students varies widely among the various colleges. The largest percentage of foreign students are in the College of Liberal Arts, where 50.7 per cent of the students are foreign-born. The smallest percentage of foreign students is in the College of Engineering, where only 5.7 per cent of the students are foreign-born.

The foreign students are from 80 countries, with a large majority coming from Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, and England.

The foreign students are distributed among the various departments as follows: Chemistry, 21.5 per cent; Physics, 19.7 per cent; Biology, 12.3 per cent; Mathematics, 11.4 per cent; History, 9.9 per cent; German, 7.4 per cent; English, 6.9 per cent; and Economics, 6.2 per cent.

Board Changes Made
Football players graduating from the University having played on the team throughout their college career, will be awarded their suits upon graduation regardless of the fact that they may not have played three years. This action was taken by the Board in control of Athletic Student Faculty events. Hereinfore only the players having played three years or the varsity and their graduating were allowed to keep the suits.

The change was made on account of classes from the College of Law, which have only three years, these men can only play two years before receiving their diplomas. This rule will benefit his suit under the rules.

Following is a clipping from the Green Castle (Mo.) Journal: "Jesse W. Reilly, son of Mrs. Reilly of Davenport, Iowa, the proprietor of the Reilly ranch, and John J. Vroom, assistant manager, are at Collabla, Mo., taking a two-month course at the agricultural college which began Jan. 4th. Mr. Reilly has large ranches in Nebraska, North Dakota, and northern Iowa, and his son will join with Mr. Vroom in developing Reilly ranch in Missouri as well as other ranches which the young men are filling at our agricultural college.

Reilly has the distinction of earning his degree in the U. of I. in three years. He specialized in agriculture and the collections which he made for Professor Seyed, are among the most valued of the University's extensive geological collections. Mr. Reilly traveled widely in collecting the specimens and earned for himself a valuable reputation as an undergraduate scientist.
