Societies Elect Delegates.
At their regular house meetings that Friday evening, the Zeta elected the following men to represent them in the annual Sophomore debate to be held next spring: George K.
Thompson, leader, Ray Lathen and Arthur Young.
These men will form the Zeta team, composed of Earl Bowling, leader, Karl Jones and Frank Barr. The Zeta also chose Artul Fordgomed and J. E. Ashton to represent them in the Freshman detates against the Irving team which was chosen last Friday evening, connected with L. W. Powers, leader, and W. L. Conger. J. A. Kyle was selected to fill a vacancy on the Majestic team, caused by the resignation of C. A. Coray, Iowa's No. 2 representative. Cory was chosen caret for the commencement curricular of the society to be held next fall.
The Zeta have decided to publish a complete history of the society and have appointed a committee who are now working gathering such material as will make an interesting and interesting history. Y. A. Walker is selected chairman and Raymond Colgrove business manager. The committee will spend the remainder of the spring semester gathering material and do not expect to have the book finished until the middle of the next school year.

Choral Society Notice.
The University Choral society will have a rehearsal-title attraction at 3:30 in the Natural Science auditorium.
A full attendance is desired.

The name of STETSON in the hat world is final with a great many men who have a favorite Stetson style. The quality of Stetson hats is such as can be found only among the manufacturers have at hand the best beaver fur, the most approved machinery, and the skilled labor. It means much to be seen in the new styles. You don't see new styles, you don't wear them.
