Don't Be a Quitter

IT'S THE WAY A MAN STICKS TO A THING THAT MAKES HIM A SUCCESS OR A FAILURE. YOU KNOW THAT THE STORY SAID TO THE BOY, "STICK TO ME AND I'LL CARRY YOU THROUGH."

STICK TO THE SHORE AND YOU WILL ALWAYS BE RIGHT. WE HAVE GOTTEN AUGUST, 1924, IN THE ALUMNI REGISTER NO. 51, AND WE HAD ALL THE TRIMMINGS OF THE DAY. THE 70TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA. I WAS THERE, AND I TOOK MANY PICTURES.

Amusements

The Donald Robertson company present I'm Your John Cabot Harkness at the Colonnades presents the best Thursday afternoon. As this is the last probability of Donald Robertson's last appearance in Iowa for several seasons will have the final opportunity to hear a big class, company in this most remarkable class of the drama. Student's tickets entitling holders to reduced rates may be had at the box office of the department of University College in English, room 114, 2nd and 312.

THE CAMPAIGN TO GO ON

About half of the desired amount has been raised by the Y. M. C. A. finance committee. The association feels much encouraged at the success which has attended its efforts. By reason of the amount already secured the "Y" is materially strengthened in its efforts to help the students.

The disposition to regard the campaign as a university movement is evident and indicates a general regard in which this organization is held by the student body. It is good to show them how this is. Giving this phase of university life its proper place.

About half of the students have been in the various rooms, and good prospects of enrolling the remainder will soon be made. There is every reason to believe that the same generous response will continue and that the entire $4000 will shortly be forthcoming.

The thanks of the association are acceded to those who have contributed to this worthy cause.

The Daily Iowan is published daily by the Associated Students of the University of Iowa, 102 S. Commercial. Editor-in-Chief: Herbert M. Harwood. Monday through Saturday, except during university breaks.
