LEGES HOLON CONFERENCE

Hall

This evening the Iowa State Conference of the Forensic League has just been opened to the public. This evening's session will be in the drawing room of the Liberal Arts auditorium. All sessions are open to the public. Some of the most prominent associations of the States will be here as conference leaders. Among them are the following: Rev. C. E. McClennan, chaplain of Drake University; J. A. Elliott, student secretary, Inter-collegiate Forensic League; A. J. Elliott, student secretary, University of Wisconsin; J. C. Prall, the course.

The programme consists of solo, duets, and numbers by the whole quartette. The ladies making up the quartette were: Mrs. G. S. Isom, first alto; Mrs. D. L. G. Stanton, second alto; Mrs. Mabel Wagner Shum, second tenor; and Mrs. W. L. Sharpe, bass. The entertainment lasted nine half hours, and was enjoyed by the whole audience.

The Forensic League has just finished a lecture course of high quality. The league went to every college and university, and as a result the greatest possible amount will be received as a credit for this course.

EVENING SHOW FOR TOMORROW

The Iowa State Conference of the Forensic League will be adjourned to tomorrow evening.

The programme for the following day will be as follows: Friday, April 18th.

Forensic Dinner. This dinner will be served at the Driskill Hotel at 7:15 p.m.

Saturday, April 19th.

Society Dinner. This dinner will be served at the Palace Hotel at 7:15 p.m.

Sunday, April 20th.

Society Dinner. This dinner will be served at the Palace Hotel at 7:15 p.m.
