Curt Has Been Practicing for His Water Gillis: Olive Purchased from Students

The University Dramatic Club will present "The Road to Yesterday" at the Peterborough hospital building tonight. Professor E. G. Kinsey will direct a singing and instrumental organization over the program.

To secure a proper play for the season's production, the club with musical direction and instrumental organization has bought the rights outright to "The Road to Yesterday" from G. R. Shearer of the proceeds of the play will be used for the benefit of the Peterborough Hospital.

In this play is a feature the idea of a trip to the future and back again during the year 2090. The story is of the people of today and of the people of tomorrow.

Such events as these promise a grand and successful production. The club will be under the management of Prof. E. G. Kinsey, musical director of the Peterborough Hospital.
