MUMMA WILL ATTEND U. REGIMENTAL CAMP

NEW COMMANDANT TO ACCOMPANY STUDENTS ON MARCH

New Plans for Rifle Work—Varsity Rifles Hard at Work—Competition Active

Lieut. Morton C. Mumma, who will take charge of the student regiment next fall, will accompany the cadets on the spring march and camp. He will witness the work of the men in action and be able to get a good line up on conditions here for the work next fall. It is quite probable that he will be one of the judges of the competitive drills held at West Liberty June 1.

Lieut. Mumma has recently been detailed to accompany the inspector of small arms practice in his tour of inspection of the National Guard of the state. He will spend two or three days with each company on the range, coaching them and supervising their work. He will also coach the Iowa Rifle team which will compete in the fall shoots. He is at present in Rock Island selecting the rifles from the arsenal for the use of this team.

It is reported on good authority that with the opening of the new regimental range at Mid River an opportunity will be given to the student marksman to work out there. With this advantage and the coaching of Lieut. Mumma who holds the distinction of being one of the best rifle shots in the U. S. army, the chances for Iowa's rifle team making a good place next year seems bright.

The Varsity Rifles are nart at work on some special drills for the exhibition to be given in the near future. Those who have watched the drills lately have expressed considerable interest in the drills and the precision with which they are executed. The competition in the weekly spell downs is waxing keen. Several men have won one or more competitions and a stiff fight for the third honorary fob is being waged. Practically all of the old catches in these competitions are failing to work on the men and every night the officers are hard put to it to devise means of spelling the men down and deciding who wins for the week.

Marshall Law Society Program

The following program will be rendered by Marshall Law society at Unity Hall tonight, 7:30 . The public is invited by the society.

GIRL GYMNASTS WILL GIVE ATHLETIC EXHIBITION

Physical Training Class at Armory April twenty-ninth.

The Varsity Rifles are hard at athletic training under Miss Alice Wilkinson will be shown Thursday evening, April 29, when members of the gymnastic classes will appear in their gymnasium suits and give a varied program of athletic stunts. High jumping, pole and ring work, specialty dancing and other similar exercises will be given.

The present record of 4 feet 8 inches in the high jump which is held by Miss Clara Hanson of the Iowa City high school will be assailed by Miss Grace Parks and Miss Hazeldean Toof, both of whom hold high records in this event.

Other special events will be a "baby polka" in full costume and the "Darkie Schottische."

Some high class work is expected of Miss Ethel Chamberlain in the swinging rings.

This is the first exhibition of the kind for two years. Its novel character is attracting much interest and a large crowd is expected to attend.

Will Present Faust in German

Charles Bundy Wilson, head of the department of German, announces that the German Theatrical company of Davenport will put on Faust in the original text at the German theater, April 25, 1909. Miss Charlotte Krause of Milwaukee will play Marguerite.

The Davenport company presented a German play, "Unser Doktor," for the University April 23, 1891 and was well received by the students and citizens. The company is spoken of by Prof. Wilson as being one of the best troupes of its kind in the west.

NEW COMMITTEE HERE: REGENTS IN SESSION

WORK IS BEGUN ON ANNUAL BUDGET

Sloan Granted Leave of Absence—Everything Harmonious—Finance Committee Not Named

Three members of the new state educational board of control who have been temporarily assigned as a committee to study the affairs of the University convened with the Regents at the regular April meeting yesterday. The three members were James E. Trewin of Cedar Rapids, P. K. Holbrook of Onawa, and A. B. Funk of Spirit Lake.

Little business other than working on the annual budget of the institution's expenses was transacted by the Regents.

Instead of accepting the resignation tendered by Professor Sam W. Sloan of the department of English, the board offered him leave of absence. This action is a great token of appreciation for Mr. Sloan's work.

President G. E. MacLean entertained the entire board at dinner yesterday evening at his new home.

Immediately following the Iowa City joint session the new board will go to Cedar Falls and then to Ames to hold similar joint sessions with the trustees of the state normal school and the state college. A resolution was adopted yesterday to the effect that the board will welcome advice and help from the three separate boards which it will supplant.

Musical Program at Assembly

One of the best programs of the year was given at Assembly yestermorning by members of the University School of Music. The audience was not large but highly appreciative. Miss Esther Duley's violin solo was especially well received. Four numbers were rendered. Following is the program:

Piano solo, Fantasia—impromptu, Chopin, Miss Esther Swisher.

Vocal solo, "I Know a Lovely Garden," D'Hardelot; "Mother o' Mine," Mr. Frank Callander.

Violin solo, Herze Kati, Houbay, Miss Esther Duley.

Piano solo, Urgenlied, Brahms-Schuett; Etude, Waldesranscheu, Liszt, Miss Ethel Denton.

Senior Medics Challenge

The senior Medical students have issued the following challenge:

"We, the present senior Medic class, do hereby issue a challenge to the present senior Law class to a tug of war contest to be held as part of the program of the commencement frolic. The same to take place across some body of water, and governed by rules agreed upon by a committee from each respective class. Signed, Committee."

WEATHER MAN INTERFERES WITH WORK OF ATHLETES

New Diamond to be Put in East of Armory.

Rain, which fell all morning yesterday prevented the varsity athlete from taking any other work-outs than those afforded by the armory. The gates of Iowa field were locked all day, as the diamond was deep in mud and the track is being carefully prepared for the home meet on next Saturday. The freshmen baseball candidates worked out in the gym, but only a few of the varsity candidates were out.

It now seems impracticable to lay off another diamond on Iowa field for the use of the fraternities and societies, as the authorities hoped to do earlier in the year. The only possible place for another diamond is just south of the present one, and this is needed by the weight men to practice. The latest plan is to give the freshmen and society teams the use of a field to be laid off on the parade ground east of the armory. This would furnish a fine playing field and would not materially damage the parade ground.

Erodelphian Program

The Erodelphians will give the following program Thursday evening at 8 o'clock:

Paper, Manda Sifford.

Impersonation, Grace Whitley.

Paper, Esther Bracewell.

Impersonation, Ethel Newcomb.

Current Events, Helen Struble.

Wilcox to Cedar Rapids

Prof. W. C. Wilcox will deliver the third of a series of lectures before the Central Park Men's club of Cedar Rapids on Friday evening. His subject will be "The Educated American girl."

Farewell to Mr. Sloan

The student members of the Readers Club entertained the faculty members of the club last evening at a dinner party in honor of Mr. Sam B. Sloan who leaves for the west to recuperate in health. Mr. Sloan is one of the most popular teachers in the Liberal Arts College and great regret is expressed by both faculty and students that he is compeddel to leave.

Two fine presents were given to Mr. Sloan by the members of his classes. The tokens of esteem consisted of a solid brass desk set of pen tray and ink well together with a book holder. The other present was a fine bill book containing a note of appreciation of his work from his students.

Homeopathic Meet

The Central Iowa Homeopathic society held a medical meeting at West Liberty last evening. The local homeopathic physicians of Iowa City attended the meeting.

HIGH SCHOOLS RESPOND: MANY TO ENTER MEET

MANAGER CATLIN PLEASED WITH REPLIES RECEIVED

New Booklet Sent out Yesterday by Board in Control of Athletics —Predict Fine Event.

Many responses to the invitations for the second University of Iowa inter-scholastic meet have been received by Manager Mark Catlin and present indications point to the entrance of between thirty and forty high schools in the event scheduled for May 15.

The first communications were sent out to the 200 high schools in the state in March. The replies have been encouraging to the athletic board and a fine meet is predicted.

Yesterday booklets were mailed from the secretary's office to the same high schools describing the meet in detail including the prizes, the lists of events, methods of entertainment, etc. The booklets were issued under the direction of a subcommittee of the Board in Control of Athletics.

At the weekly meeting of the board last night further plans for this meet were discussed by the members and every effort is to be exerted to make the second annual affair surpass the initial event of last year.

"It looks as though we would have a great meet," said Manager Mark Catlin last night. "The indications at the present time are of course much better than a year ago."

Although members of the athletic board would divulge no information it was known that due consideration of the football managership for next fall was made last night. In all likelihood a decision will be reached within a short time.

A report was started last week that Harold Thomas the Ida Grove coach was a likely candidate for the position of assistant to John Griffith in football and head coach of the track team. However, no confirmation could be secured on the rumor.

Cunningham Wins Competitions

Glenn E. Cunningham, 2nd lieutenant of Co. D., won his fifth "spell down" in Varsity Rifles last evening. This entitles Mr. Cunningham to an honorary fob from the company. He is the third to win such an honor this year the other two being won by P. E. Van Nostrand and T. S. Hook.

Pelzer Returns

Mr. Louis Pelzer, research assistant in the State Historical Society of Iowa, has just returned from Madison, Wis., where he has been collecting material for a biography of Gov. Henry Dodge.

Mr. Pelzer's book will appear in the Iowa Biographical Series.

WHY NOT TRY BOOSTING?

A lack of proper spirit has been shown in the bleachers during the last few days. Some unthinking persons have sought enjoyment by ridiculing a soiled track suit or an ungainly gait. Now a track team is not meant to be a beauty show, nor can the men appear in dress suits. Oftentimes the best athletes are not the most graceful. But all men are sensative. When a man is out working for a place on a varsity team it hardly devolves upon the occupant of the side lines to cast unpleasant remarks.

Rather than knock, it is every Iowan's duty to boost. Any careless belittling remark cuts too deep to be promiscously cast about. We need all the men that we can find. Some may not be handsome or well dressed but a good boost is just as easy to give as a knock.

Musical Notice

"I wish all students in the University from surrounding towns like Marengo, Wellman, etc., would see me in my office today between 9 and 12 o'clock or between the hours of 2 to 4 in the afternoon," said Professor Henry G. Cox. "I wish to make certain arrangements in regard to the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra."

A Stubborn Cinderella

Appearing at the Coldren Thursday comes the much talked about musical comedy, "A Stubborn Cinderella," coming here almost direct from the New Princess Theatre, Chicago, where it run for the past 500 consecutive performances.

This quality musical play has been creating a theatrical sensation in Chicago for the past year where it has been playing to capacity business. It is a positive hit, and the unanimous verdict of the Chicago critics was that "A Stubborn Cinderella" was the most marvelous music play of a decade. It has 20 song hits and a beauty chorus of 60. In the cast is Homer B. Mason, who has made a decided hit in musical comedy. Supporting Mr. Mason is Grace Edmund in the prima donna role, whose remarkable voice has won for her a high place in musical comedy. Others in the cast are Ethel Dovey, a popular musical comedy favorite, Marguerite Keeler, Jack Raffael, a favorite matinee idol, Harry Pauli and Richmond Kent.

Transit out this Month

Work on the Transit is being carried on rapidly and it is expected that the last of this month will find the publication nearly through the press and ready for the public. Editor-in-Chief Secrest said yesterday that all the copy had passed through the proof reader's hands and that it will be put to press in a day or so. If no accidents occur this will be the earliest number ever published.

Stach's

The other night on a crowded street-car there happened to be several big men. A little fellow had some trouble in getting out and was squeezed a few. He became angry about it and said: "People who travel on street-cars ought to pay according to weight." "If they did," playfully remarked one of the men, "it would hardly be worth while for the car to stop for you." A bad temper will lead a man into trouble quicker than bad companions. Still, it's the people who live in glass houses who never pull down the blinds. I think it's a shame that a woman has to blow in a week's wages for a nice hat. Ten years ago a well dressed man never thought of paying less than a five spot for his hat. Now, nearly all the well-dressed men in town wear our $3 hats. True, we are agents for the celebrated John B. Stetson hats and sell a lot of them, but that does not lessen the value of our $3 hats. Our suit, necktie, shirt, underwear and hosiery values are as good as our hat values. Our constant effort is to hitch more and more value to every dollar you spend with us. We want you to discover for yourself that the values we are giving you this season are better than ever before, because they are. I've been inviting you every day for a long time to pay us a visit. The boys will all be looking for you today.

Meet The New Suit Styles

THERE is more style to the square inch in the suits we are showing for men this spring than any it has been the privilege of the Max Mayer store to display. This makes it very easy for our customers to select their needs quickly and at the same time to have the assurance that they are getting their money's worth. We present herewith one of our 1909 College Brand models. We are ready to show the exact duplicate of this suit in many late patterns and a complete range of sizes. Our Stein-Bloch suits are equally popular, especially with men desiring their garments more plainly trimmed and possessed of a quieter tone in pattern and model.

We urge upon you the advisability of calling soon to give our line just consideration. We are proud of these suits. We know that no store can offer its customers better values than we do in these suits, which we have marked at from $15.00 to $25.00

AMUSEMENTS

"A Stubborn Cinderella" Tonight

The much talked of and long heralded quality musical play, "A Stubborn Cinderalla" will be the attraction at the Coldren tonight. Messrs. Adams, Hough, and Howard, authors of those big successes, "The Time, the Place, and the Girl," "The Girl Question," "Honeymoon Trail," are responsible for the book and music of "A Stubborn Cinderella," and the show itself was produced by Mort Singer at the opening of the beautiful Princess theatre in Chicago, a year ago. At the premier of this piece every critic in Chicago declared it the greatest musical show that had ever been seen in the Windy city, and many of them prophecied it would remain there a full year, and subsequent events make it appear that they will remain there for two years so great was its success.

Something New in Programs

It is not often that the program man of the theatre is called upon to print a play bill twice over. But such is the case, however, with "The Road to Yesterday," in which a double cast is given. Every character in the play enacts two parts—one modern and one Elizabethan. The first and fourth acts take place in an artist's studio in the London of today. The second and third year of the seventeenth century, the year in which "Jamie the Scot" ascended the throne of Elizabeth. Despite the distance of three centuries between the two parts of the play and its two casts all the characters of the one part are said to be dramatically co-related, and even identified with the characters of the other. This strange feature of the play is said to be explained by a dream.

The Cincinnati Times-Star said of "The Road to Yesterday:" "The opening at the Lyric of the Dix-Sutherland comedy of phantasty, 'The Road to Yesterday,' produced a mild sensation. It grew until the company which presented this exceptionally clever play received the final test of an audience's sincerity, a series of curtain calls at a moment when most people are scrambling for hats and overcoats. 'The Road to Yesterday' is absolutely fascinating. Constructively it is a prize.

This play will be given by the University Dramatic club at the Coldren next Tuesday evening.

Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra

Iowa City is very fortunate in being included in this spring's tour of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Its conductor is Emil Oberhoffer and under him an orchestra of fifty people. During the six years since this musical organization was first established it has proven itself to be one of the most wonderful of its kind in this country.

The quartet of soloists accompanying the orchestra on this tour is one of the finest that has ever toured the west. Two concerts will be given, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, on Wednesday, April 28. Seats are now on sale at the three book stores. $1.50 for the two performances and $1.00 for a single performance.
