IOWA GETS ANOTHER: COE TEAM IS EASY

GAME GOES TO HAWKEYES BY 6 TO 1 COUNT.

Hanlon Fools Coe Hitters—McGuire in Role of Slugger—Coe Defense not High Class.

In spite of a much altered line-up the Hawkeye ball tossers found no difficulty in defeating the Coe aggregation by a 6 to 1 count, which might have easily been made much worse from a Coe standpoint by more energetic efforts on the part of Kirk's men. But with the game safely stowed away in the first rounds the Hawkeyes subsided for a time, and only an occasional tally trickled across the pan during the last stages of the combat.

The contest opened with a line-up which many of the fans failed to recognize. To fill the gap made by Kohl's absence from the conflict, Bechtel was brought in and put in charge of the third station, and the slugging pitcher, O'Brien, ambled about in the left garden. But the combination worked well, and had the Indian sign on the Coe bunch from the jump.

McGuire featured the game by a couple of long swats. "Mac" was promoted to the head of the batting list, and showed his appreciation by clouting the ball hither and yon, drawing a two-bagger and a triple out of the mele. Bryant added another feature when he raced across second and scooped a wicked drive, getting his man at first by a mile.

Shortstop Clark was the only man on the Coe team to put up a creditable exhibition. He made some pretty plays, which looked especially good when contrasted with the work of his team-mates. The Coe team as a whole found difficulty in getting the ball by the handles, and their infield work was awful to behold.

Clark, first up for Coe in the opening frame, was saved when his roller eluded Stewart. He was sacrificed to second and went to third on an infield out, from which station he got a good view of Hanlon throwing out Gates. The Iowa opening was more auspicious. McGuire found nothing to suit him and walked. McGregor tried to sacrifice, but Gates foozled and all hands were safe. McGuire came all the way home when Stewart sacrificed himself and his trousers to the cause. McGregor came across the pan when Bechtel flied to left. This inning tells the story of the game—a walk, a bunt, an error (or two), another bunt with an occasional hit, and the scores were in. During the run-making process, however, Bechtel performed a very unusual batting feat when he succeeded in hitting himself with a foul-tip.

Archie Hanlon had his out-shoot working in great shape, and put the Coe batsmen away with ease and dispatch for the greater part of the game. For a time a shut-out seemed

DRUMLER WINS CHAMPIONSHIP. TEAM GOES TO CEDAR RAPIDS

Gregory Takes Second Place in Fast Finals.

The semi-finals and the finals in the home tennis tournament were played this afternoon, Merle Drumler of Panora winning the final and the championship of the undergraduate tournament. The semi-final match between Moon and Gregory was a fast match in which Moon pushed Gregory to win. Gregory won 6-2; 8-6. The final between Drumler and Gregory was played in which Drumler defeated Gregory 6-4; 6-2.

All the matches of the tournament have been fast, the most of them requiring three sets to determine the match. Drumler and Gregory being the two men who reached the finals will represent the university in the state tournament in Cedar Rapids. Drumler being champion of the university will enter the singles and Gregory and Drumler will enter the doubles.

The men left for Cedar Rapids this morning and should make a good showing. Drumler has played in several state tournaments and Gregory has entered several tournaments here and in the east. Both men have been playing consistent tennis all year.

The lecture will be given June 15, Tuesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock.

FRESHMEN WILL NOT GO TO MINNESOTA

GOPHER AUTHORITIES CANCEL DATE.

No Reason Given for This Action—No Other Meets for Iowa's First-Year Men.

The dual meet scheduled to take place at Minneapolis next Saturday between the freshmen of Minnesota and Iowa has been called off. The Gopher authorities cancelled the date by wire. No reason was given for this action except that Minnesota did not have enough men and therefore did not wish to compete with the Iowa freshmen.

This is a great disappointment to the local men inasmuch as they have trained hard for this meet and anticipated a good contest at Minneapolis. However, they will not make the trip and as a result will have no more meets this year. Nevertheless, the men will probably continue to work out although the training will be hardly as stiff as before. Any training done this spring will not be wasted but will come in good stead next year.

The varsity squad is still keeping up its stiff work in preparation for the state meet only a week away. Catlin is now conducting a series of tryouts and is beginning to get a line on the relative strength of the several men competing in each event. Brainerd and Moses are doing well in the mile and Smith is getting accustomed to the hard grind of the two mile. Latham and Keefe are working hard on the half, while Hammer is clipping off the quarter in good time. McDonald still continues to improve during the warm weather. The competition is keenest for places on the mile relay with Hyland, Keefe, Hammer, Thomas, Hanlon, Latham, Weih and Bailey all in the running.

Octave Thanet Program.

The following Alice Hegan Rice program will be given by the Octave Thanet literary society in their hall this evening:

Philo-Irving Game.

Irving and Philo will play on the drill grounds at 2:30 this afternoon. This game will decide the championship of the literary society league as both teams are tied at 1000 per cent, and this is the final contest of the series.

RIFLE CLUB COMPETITION; BAND WILL GO TO CAMP.

Annual Rifle Shoot will be Held Next Week.

The competitive shoot of the state university of Iowa Rifle Club will be held on Monday and Tuesday, May 24 and 25. Competition will be open to all members of the club.

Ranges—500 and 600 yards. Shots—Two sighting and fifteen for record at each range. Position prone. Trophy—To the winner of the match will be given the Rifle Club medal now on exhibition at Kieth & McChesney's. The Colonel Burnett medal will go to the cadet making the highest score.

One of the features of camp this year will be the presence of the band. The members of the band will ride down to West Liberty by some time Saturday and will march out and meet the cadets a mile or so from town and play them into town that afternoon. It will also furnish music at guard mounting that evening and give a concert that evening.

Owing to the emphatic protests of the city and especially the members of the G. A. R. the band will be sent back to Iowa City to play for the Memorial Day exercises Monday and will then return to West Liberty in the evening.

The regiment will return from West Liberty on the 4:25 train Tuesday afternoon. Special cars will be added to the regular train.

Senior Hop June 16.

The senior hop, the annual formal of the senior class, which is one of the features of commencement week, will be held this year on Wednesday, June 16, at the University Armory. The committee in charge has been working on the preparations for the party for some time, and the preliminary arrangements are now practically complete.

The committee has arranged for the installation of a large number of electric fans in the armory for this occasion, and expect in this way to secure more comfortable conditions than have obtained at previous parties. The sub-committee on programs is now receiving bids from various firms, and expects to make a selection soon. The decoration committee is making arrangements for extensive decorations.

The committee has just announced the names of the patronesses. They are: Mrs. MacLean, Mrs. Volland, Mrs. Bush and Miss Gregory.

Sig Alphs Win.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Sigma Nu in Pan Hellenic baseball yesterday by a score of 7 to 1. The Sig Alph's batting was a feature.

Following is the line-up of the winners: Weeks, p; Hotz, ss; O'Brien 1b; Schenck, rf; Thomas, cf; Worcester, lf; Wallace, 2b; Chase, 3b; Crossan, c. The Sigma Nu line-up was: McManus, c; Rosebury, 3b; Mayer, 2b; Wagner, 1b; Caldner, p; Meredith, cf; Moon, lf; Groupe, rf; Funk, ss.

WAR IS DECLARED: PLAN OF CAMPAIGN

NORTHERN ARMY AGAINST THE SOUTHERN.

Problem Outlined for First Day of Camp. Two Companies Will Race Against Other Four.

War is declared. The northern army and the southern army will fight to the finish. The announcement of the beginning of hostilities has been expected for some time and now that it has been officially confirmed the student soldiers are making ready for the fray. The enlisted men are overhauling their equipment and cleaning their guns while the commissioned officers are wrinkling their brows over field maps, drill regulations and plans of attack.

The following is the plan of action upon which the campaign will be based: May 29. "A brigade of the northern army is encamped in the vicinity of Iowa City, a brigade of the southern army is encamped near Lone Tree. The commander of the northern army has despatched a trainload of supplies to the northern army here, but it has been stopped at Downy, between here and West Liberty, on account of damaged track. The southern army has sent a patrol up into the vicinity of Hills and two companies have been seen there the night before (Friday, May 28.) The commander of the southern army has sent cavalry to Downy to capture the supply train and the commander of the northern army has despatched a batallion of infantry to the same place to hold the train and protect it till it reaches Iowa City. The southern patrol receives word to hike to Downy and beat the batallion out, capturing the train and holding it till the arrival of the cavalry."

Two of the six companies of the cadet regiment will represent the south patrol and under command of one of the majors will leave the armory at 6 a. m. Saturday. The other four companies will leave at 7 under the other major and it will be a race to see which gets there first with a brisk fight some place on the road, in all probability it will be at Downy unless the patrol succeeds in ambushing the north army some place along the line. Lieut. Weeks has not announced what companies will compose the south army. He will act as umpire for one side and L. P. Elliot who was captain in the regiment last year will be with the other.

Scimater and Fez Party.

All members of Scimater and Fez both active and alumni, are invited to the party to be given May 29 at Majestic hall.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last evening was a musical program. Miss Pauline Dutton gave readings and Misses Effie Mae Proffit, Marie Rogers Hope Moler and Dean Newcombe sang solos.

FRESHMEN AS CHAMPIONS.

It may not be generally known, but the first year track team is right in line for the championship of the west. By virtue of its overwhelming defeat of the Blue and White first year men at Des Moines, and its tie with the strong team representing the University of Chicago freshmen, Iowa is the strongest bidder for the title.

This status of affairs is something new for the Hawkeyes in view of the pronounced slump in track athletics during the last few years. It is cause for the display of even more interest and enthusiasm in this branch of athletics than is being shown by the average student fan. Not for years have the prospects of Iowa coming into its proper place among the colleges and universities of the middle west taken on so roseate a hue.

Iowa's team as was shown at both the Drake and Chicago meets, is of the well balanced kind, which generaly walks away with the long end of the score in a contest on the track and field. When we reflect what it means for the future, there is much cause for rejoicing and Iowa fans are accordingly jubilant.

OTHER COLLEGES

An equestrienne club—in plain English, a horseback riding club of girls—is to be formed by students in the girls' gymnasium classes at the University of Missouri this spring. Several young women in the University ride horseback and it is their aim to arouse greater interest in the exercise.

Some new regulations have been passed by the athletic council at Williams. The price of all games is now limited to fifty cents, with an additional twenty-five for the bleachers at football or the grandstand at baseball. No seats are to be reserved in the gallery of the gymnasium for basketball games. Any faculty man can for five dollars get a ticket admitting himself and his family to all the games for a year.

The longest trip ever made by a college baseball team will be covered by the Brown University nine, which announced its acceptance of an invitation to participate in a series of games to be held in Seattle, Wash., beginning July 1, in connection with the Pacific-Yukon exposition.

A friend of the boss was telling him the other day that they were going to move to the seaside. He said: "But the climate may disagree with your wife." "It wouldn't dare," replied he. Most every man in Iowa City will soon agree with us that the right way to build a business is to build it on honor and to be able to look any man in the eye and say to him, "We are selling you the best article obtainable anywhere for the price charged, and if fro many cause it fails to give its full value in honest wear you are earnestly requested to return it and have it exchanged or your money refunded." This is the sort of a foundation upon which this store was built. When you need a new suit, hat, shirt, or some underwear, handkerchiefs, socks or scarfs, come direct to us. You'll find our salesmen awfully agreeable. You'll find an awful lot of care and good taste has been used in the selection of our merchandise. Why not call tomorrow?

Reach Quality

Ask the Catcher, the First Baseman, the Fielders on any of the big college nines which make of Mitt or Glove they use. Nine times out of ten the answer will be "Reach." The same applies to the players of the American and National Leagues. The Reach Ball is the only ball used in American League games—it is the official ball. Dean Gregory at Assembly.

Dean Charles Noble Gregory addressed assembly yesterday morning on the life of George William Curtis. In opening his address the speaker referred briefly but with deep feeling to the passing of Dean Amos N. Currier. He then gave a summary of the life of Mr. Curtis, emphasizing his cosmopolitan character. He spoke of how Curtis had refused offers of ambassadorial posts in Europe under Grant in order to stay with his work on the Civil Service Reform.

Dean Gregory closed by relating of the several times he had met Curtis personally and commenting on his great excellence mentally, morally and socially.

IOWA GETS ANOTHER: COE TEAM IS EASY

staring the visitors in the face, but they put one across in the seventh while the Hawkeyes were counting their scores. After McWhorter had made three poor guesses, Gates surprised the multitude by singling. Tinkham's attempt at a sacrifice resulted in a pop-fly which sailed in the general direction of first. Hanlon rushed madly to intercept it, but didn't get a good grip on it and the sphere dropped to earth. There was yet time to get Tinkham at first, but Hanlon threw the ball to the running track, and the runners were on second and third when it got back. The trouble seemed over when Gates was caught in the "Little Nemo" stunt at third. Here Shipton let drive with a clean hit to center, and McGuire, with an hour to catch Tinkham at the plate, threw to second, and the run came in. The score:
