Good Stunts Put On—Immediate Co. Contended—Great Hysteria Manifested

The first annual Frye Debutante University was an unqualified success. Fully four thousand persons thronged the city park yesterday morning and everyone had a great time.

The parade started from Capital at 1:10 with the senior class in line being the most prominent. The band was stationed in this parade and was distinguished by the tall yellow flag with a flag on the top. The one gold and black makes and was the signal. The senior classes dressed in very beautiful costumes and their unique methods of torture produced an
