Why don't you invest in a warm sweater vest? We have them.

Are you getting your money's worth?

When you buy your clothing? We don't mean by the wear test alone. We don't measure life any more by years alone, we measure it by what a man does. You should make your clothing answer the same test. It ought to work for you mightily while it does last. Its style ought to bespeak perfection; its workmanship ought to bespeak the artist tailor; and, moreover, it ought to express your personality, your ideals of what a twentieth century man should appear like. These are the things that our College Brand and Stein-Bloch suits and overcoats for the current season do for the man who wears them.

BESIDES the Quality of the goods—BESIDES the Distinctive styles---

There is another thing that causes these particular men to come to us time after time to get their tailor-made garments.

And that very important thing is SERVICE.

Our regular patrons would not attribute their repeated calls to service. They would say, if you asked them, that they "simply liked to trade at Slater's."
