THE DAILY IOWAN

WARWICK WELCOMED; CROWDS MEET TRAIN

THE WARWICK WELCOME, at the hands of citizens of Lincoln united the gruelling struggle with Nebraska, was an active factor in the result. Truly, as the day of Saturday, October 23, was nearing, the contest was one of confidence and enthusiasm ranging to the extent of three thousand enthusiastic fans. At the last minute the train was late, but the students were ready. The student body was out in full force, and the men were not far behind. The result was a victory, a series of thrills, and a demonstration of the fighting forces of the University of Iowa. In the final analysis, the men had done their work, and the team was well on its way to the championship of the Conference.

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD AT NEXT MEETING

A special memorial service for the late Professor Samuel Calvin will be held at the next meeting of the student body. The service will be held in the Memorial Hall.
