Last Friday and Saturday representative meetings of the Scandinavian clubs from Illinois, Minnesota, and Iowa Universities with the Savery and Augustana college group met in Iowa at the suggestion of Professor A. Whitehead, director of the Scandinavian studies at Iowa University, to select a permanent name and organization for the Federation of Scandinavian organizations in the United States of America. The purpose is to promote and study things Scandinavian and to unite the Scandinavian clubs of educational institutions of accredited standing eligible to be members. The following delegates were present: Minnesota, Prof. A. A. Stene, and Prof. J. W. Hennig; Illinois, Prof. T. A. Anderson, Miss Louise Hennig, and Miss Emma Seabrook; Iowa, Prof. T. A. Nelson; Bethany college, Dr. Henry R. Anderson, and Dr. Augustus Johnstone; Augustana college, Dr. C. S. Larson, and Prof. A. A. Beawater. Great interest and enthusiasm was shown throughout the meeting and the following permanent organization was elected: Grand president, Prof. T. A. Anderson; first vice-president, Dr. Augustus Johnstone; second vice-president, Miss Louise Hennig; corresponding secretary, Mr. A. A. Beawater; treasurer, Dr. Henry R. Anderson. The Scandinavian students request the delegate to make every effort to get the name of the national organization printed in every Scandinavian newspaper in the United States. The Savery meetings were held at Iowa City last Friday, February 10th."

Football Star Returns

Fullback Jim Carrey, who was granted a leave of absence from his full-time duties as a football player to attend his junior year at the University of Minnesota, returned to the line-up last Saturday. Carrey was the all-Iowa high school quarterback last year and ranked among the best men in his state.

Gymnasium Students Start

Physical director R. G. Schneider started on another year of gymnastics instruction for the University on Monday. About fifty young men interested in gymnastics will use the gymnasium.

Players in Antitrust

It has been definitely stated that the comedy, "TwoKuffs," which Mr. Donald Robinson and his players will present here to be staged in the new science auditoriums, will be presented at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday of the last week of classes. The play was written by Mr. Robinson in preparation for the great battle which will be played during the coming battle.

Football Schedule

The football program has arrived and are on sale at Coop & Sons.

Auto Show

The State Fair association has announced that the fair will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 10th, at the Chicago Auto Show. The fair will be open to the public and will include exhibits of all kinds of automobiles.
