OLD GOLD SCORES DECISIVE VICTORY

Iowa's Great Football Machine Defeats Aggies 16 to 0

HAWKEYES OFFENSE FAST AND POWERFUL

Ames Completely Outplayed - - Iowa Line a Stone Wall - - Gross Stars Good Feeling Between Rooters

By the score of 16 to 0 Iowa trampled her ancient rivals from Ames into the turf of Iowa field yesterday. Playing fearless, aggressive football from whistle to whistle, the gallant Hawkeyes literally smothered the Aggies under a mass of scores. The most extreme optimist in the Iowa camp never dreamed of anything which approached in any respect the doings that took place on the Hawkeye gridiron. Whether the play was a long forward pass or a smash through the supposedly impregnable Ames line, a gain was certain and long. Time after time, Murphy, Alexander, Dyer, and greatest of all, the mighty Gross, plunged through the farmers' tackles for great advances. Hanlon and Hyland caught forward passes and tore down the field for yard after yard. Added to this was Stewart's returning of punts which cancelled what distance Wilmarth was able to punt.

The other feature of the contest was Iowa's defense. Time after time the heavy Ames' backs attempted to crash the Iowa line, and time after time they were thrown for a loss. The fierce charging of the Hawkeye line crumpled the Ames forwards, and the whole play was broken up before it had a chance to start. Ames made only one first down in the first half, and, although their offense improved in the next period, the Aggie backs were downed behind the line oftener than not. When contrasted with the fierce charging of the Iowa backs through the holes opened up by the line, the offense of the Aggies showed miserably. At every attempted forward pass the man carrying the ball was downed before he had a chance to throw it.

All in all, it was a red-letter day for Iowa athletics. The Hawkeyes won by being superior in every department of the game, and playing rings and concentric circles around their opponents. The helping spirit was there, and runners were dragged for yards. The men had the happy faculty of being omnipresent, and were on their toes all the time.

The game was played before the largest crowd ever on Iowa field. The rains of the night before and the morning left the field heavy, but every effort was made to get it into shape. The rooters began assembling two hours before the contest, and long before the teams appeared, the Iowa and Ames rooting sections were rivaling each other in complimentary yells. The spirit between the two schools was fine, and the game was cleanly played. When a player on either team was injured he was almost invariably given nine rabs from the opposing rooters. Once when Capt. Wilmarth was hurt, Collins of Iowa was the first to rush to help him. It seems that a new spirit has developed as a result of the renewal of athletic relations in yesterday's game.

It would be hard to pick an individual star from the Iowa team which came to its own yesterday in the first game with Ames in two years. Capt. Gross played wonderful ball. Time after time the big leader swung from his position, tucked the ball under his arm, and crashed through Wilmarth and Chappel for from five to twenty yards. He broke up every play sent at his side of the line and was always down under punts. It was the captain's last game on Iowa field and he finished a wonderful career in something more than the proverbial blaze of glory.

The fighting Hyland was another great factor in the Hawkeye victory. His punting outdid by many yards the best that Wilmarth could produce, and he tore off long gains on fake punts. Hanson played hard, consistent ball, and no gains came through him. O'Brien put up a good exhibition at center and defensive left tackle, breaking through and stopping Clyde Williams' best inventions behind the line. One of the features of Iowa's defense was Ehret's white head as he broke through the Ames center. Alexander gave a great exhibition at left tackle. He alternated with Gross on tackle smashes and made some of the best gains of the game. He it was who crossed the line for the last touchdown in the second half.

The speedy Hanlon put up a magnificent game on the left wing. He was down under punts like a flash and with Hyland he made several passes and in one of these attempts pulled off one of the most spectacular plays of the game. When called upon to toss the ball, he found Hyland too well covered by an Aggie back; so, letting out another notch, the 440 star sailed around the Ames' left wing for 40 yards in one of the prettiest plays of the season.

Behind the line, Collins and Dyer pierced the line for good advances, and played fine defensive ball. Murphy, as usual, was the reliance when a few yards were absolutely necessary, and the great fullback went over for two touchdowns. Stewart's work at quarter was the climax of his career on Iowa field. His generalship was good, and, peppery as ever, he put fight into the whole team. His returns of punts were fine and time after time he raced back over the chalk lines for twenty, thirty and thirty-five yards. Hazard went in in the last ten minutes and his great rushes through the line reminded the rooters of his great work in 1907.

There were no individual stars on the Ames team. Beaten and crushed before a resistless attack, and helpless in the face of a superior defense, every Aggie fought with grim determination. Only this kept the score so low. The Ames warriors were outclassed from the start, yet they came back gamely, and were ready for more after every down. Their Captain, Wilmarth, who with Troeger, bore the brunt of the Hawkeye attack, was badly injured just before the close of the game, and was carried from the field. But they never gave up and the great crowd was forced to admire their gameness.

First Half

The Hawkeyes won the toss and chose the south goal with the wind to their backs. Smith kicked off at 3:00 to Hyland who returned ten yards. On fake punt Hyland made 9 yards around Ames' right and Dyer and Gross made first down. Alexander added 2, but Dyer threw ball wild to Hanlon on next play in attempted forward pass. Ames ball. Ames failed to make downs and Iowa got the ball in the middle of the field. Gross made six in two off tackle smashes. Hyland first down on fake punt. Ames held and Hyland punted over goal line. Iowa held. Wilmarth punted 30 yards to Collins. Forward pass from Hanlon to Hyland netted 10 yards. Onside kick went out side and Ames' ball on own 20 yard line. Heggen and Hart failed to make gains and Wilmarth punted 40 yards to Collins. Forward pass from Hanlon to Hyland failed. Hyland punted 60 yards over goal line. Ames ball on 25 yard line. Wilmarth punted 30 yards to Collins. Smashes by Alexander, Murphy and Gross carry ball to Ames' 4 yard line. O'Brien kicked ball over goal from center. Ames' ball on 25 yard line. Wilmarth punted 35 outside. Iowa's ball in middle of field. Forward pass from Collins to Hyland made 2 and Hyland made 8 on fake punt. In the march for a touchdown Gross made 10, Alexander 6, Gross 5, Alexander 5, Murphy 10, Dyer 3, Alexander 6, Gross 5, Gross 3, Murphy 2 and Murphy carried the ball over the line. Hyland failed goal. Score, Iowa 5, Ames 0. Time 19 minutes.

Hanson kicked off to Hart. Iowa held. Johnson punted 40 yards to Collins who returned 15 yards to center of field. Hanson punted 40 yards to Heggen. Ehret tackled Fulton for 2 yards loss. Hanlon made fine tackle nailing Johnson for 8 yards loss. Wilmarth punted 35 yards to Stewart who returned 20 yards. Iowa's ball on Ames 37 yard line. Ames held and Wilmarth punted 35 yards to Collins. Alexander made nine in two off tackle smashes. Alexander 3, Hyland 5 around end and Murphy first down through center. Four yards to goal. Alexander 2, and Murphy made second touchdown. Hyland failed goal. Score, Iowa 10, Ames 0.

Smith kicked off 35 yards to Murphy. Hyland made 10 around end. Iowa penalized 15 yards for holding. Hyland punted 40 yards over goal. Ames' ball on own 25 yard line. Iowa held, and Bigelow punted 40 yards to Collins. Hyland onside kicked 30 yards. Ames recovered ball. Iowa held. Bigelow kicked 40 yards to Stewart who passed to Hyland for 10 yards. Time called. Iowa's ball on own 45 yard line.

Second Half

Hanson kicked off at 4:00 to Johnson who returned 30 yards. Wilmarth punted 40 yards and Chappell recovered ball on Iowa's 30 yard line. Wilmarth made first down on off tackle smash. Iowa held and Heggen kicked to Stewart who signaled for fair catch. Hyland punted forty yards to Haggen who fumbled, allowing Dyer to recover on Ames' 50 yard line. Dyer 8, Murphy 3, Collins 6 on end run, Alexander 6 and Gross 15 on off tackle smashes, Collins 5 and Murphy failed first down by 6 inches with ball on Ames' five yard line.

Wilmarth punted 50 yards to Collins. Ames held and Hyland punted 25 yards outside. Bigelow punted 40 yards to Stewart. Forward pass from Hanlon to Hyland failed. Hyland punted 30 yards to Heggen. Rutledge was substituted for Chappell. Bigelow and Troeger lost 7 and Wilmarth kicked 35 yards to Stewart. Collins kicked onside kick outside. Ames' ball on own 25 yard line. Wilmarth made 10 around Iowa's right end on fake punt. Iowa held and Bigelow punted 50 yards to Stewart who returned 30 yards but Iowa was penalized 15 for holding. Dyer made 8, Gross 6, Hyland 8 around end, Gross 5, Hyland 2 and Murphy 2. Ames held and Hyland punted 35 yards to Heggen. Heggen made 10 around Iowa's right end and Troeger added 30 off tackle. On onside kick Ames did not allow ball to touch ground. Hyland punted 25 to Johnson. Alexander nailed Heggen for five yards' loss and O'Brien followed suit by throwing Bigelow for 10 yards. Wilmarth punted 45 to Stewart who made beautiful return of 15 yards. Hanlon made spectacular run of 35 yards around end and a forward pass from Hyland to Hanlon netted 20 more. Gross made 15 yards through a hole opened by Alexander. Brown was substituted for Scott at Center and Sharp went in for Troeger at tackle while Kraft replaced Fulton at end. Murphy carried the ball to Ames' 5 yard line. Hazard went in for Collins. Gray was substituted for Wilmarth. Hazard made two and Alexander scored touchdown through Gross. Hyland kicked goal. Score, Iowa 16, Ames 0. Time 24 minutes.

Bigelow kicked to Hazard and Ames was penalized 15 yards for

OPERA HOUSE STORMED MISTAKE CAUSES RIOT

ASSAULT RESULTS IN MANY BROKEN WINDOWS.

Mob Led by Outsiders—Firemen and Special Police Finally Quell Disturbance.

Two thousand students, high school pupils and townsmen besieged the opera house last night after six policemen had refused entrance to the crowd which, believing it was to be admitted free, filed to the theatre from the big bonfire.

Windows were broken and for two hours the police force and fire department endeavored to disperse the mob. Bricks, bottles and stones flew through the air. The hose was ineffectual in breaking up the demonstration though the stream was played upon the crowd.

Will Bennett, a member of the freshmen football team was hit in the face with a bottle and sustained a deep gash. He lives in Boone, Iowa.

The statement was made last night that university students did not lead in the destruction of property and that they were not in the majority of the mob which defied the police and firemen.

SURPRISES MARK RESULTS: MICHIGAN DEFEATS PENNSY.

Drake is Walloped—Minnesota Main- tains Superiority.

Michigan's defeat of Pennsylvania thus upholding the reputation of the western football, Minnesota's overwhelming victory against Wisconsin, and Drake's walloping at the hands of the Tigers were the surprises last night when the Saturday's scores were announced.

Following are the results:
Michigan 12, Pennsylvania 6; Harvard 12, Dartmouth 3; Yale 17, Princeton 0; Chicago 6, Cornell 6; Drake 6, Missouri 22; Des Moines 20, Morningside 11; Iowa 16, Ames 0; Highland Park 18, Parsons 0; Ida Grove 8, Iowa Falls 0; Indians 35, Gettysburg 0; Illinois 12, Northwestern 0; Purdue 16, Rose Poly 3; Minnesota 34, Wisconsin 6; East High 0, Oskaloosa 0; Lawrence 5, Beloit 0.

Special Train to Kansas.

"Everybody who desires to go on a special train to Kansas should register at Whetstone's either today or tomorrow," said Manager Martin H. Smith last evening. "If we can get enough before Tuesday arrangements can easily be made for the special. Rates will be announced later."

Iowa Superior at Straight Football.

The Hawkeyes exhibited a surprising superiority over the Aggies in straight football. Ames carried the ball only 25 yards in the first half and 94 in the second, while Iowa advanced it 181 yards in the first and 232 in the second half, a total of 413 yards for the game. Iowa made first down 35 times against Ames 4.

Notes of the Game.

The yell leaders wisely provided themselves with high topped boots. Twenty-two husky Ames warriors came onto the field at 2:51 and five minutes later came the Hawkeyes.

A temporary sidewalk was placed upon the boggy field and the thousands crossed dry shod.

Captain Gross won the toss and Smith kicked off for Ames at two minutes after 3 o'clock.

The crowd numbered close to six thousand and was the largest ever seen on Iowa field.

Several barrels of gasoline were used to assist Old Sol in drying up the field before the game.

Yellmaster Fischer made effective use of a monster six-foot megaphone in directing the cheering.

When Captain Gross reeled off a couple of ten yard smashes right at the start, many Iowans felt sure that they saw victory coming.

Alexander's brilliant smashes set the crowd wild. He opened holes like mountain tunnels whenever the Iowa plunge came through his position.

The S. U. I. band came on the field at 2:20 followed seven minutes later by the band of the Aggies. Both showed the right spirit by exchanging complimentary yells.

Souvenirs of the game sold like hot cakes. They are a real work of art and much credit is due the Citizen Printing House by whom they were published.

What They Say.

Referee Connell: "Conference rules do not allow the officials to make any statement in regard to the merits of the teams, but I will say that it was one of the cleanest games I ever saw. And fast too. It kept me jumping to keep up. It was a good game."

Coach Griffith: "Good. It was a great game. The fellows fought, you know."

"We had them baffled," said Capt. Gross with a smile a mile wide. "They just couldn't keep up with us. The fellows played all the time and that is what counts. It was great."

Coach Clyde Williams: "Iowa played wonderful ball and outplayed us all the way. Even with my boys going at their best, they could not have beaten Iowa, the way she was going this afternoon."

No Safety Made.

"There is no room for doubt as to that play which so many thought a safety for Iowa," said Referee Connell. "There is a clause in the rules which is made for just such a play. It states specifically that the impetus which sends the ball over the line must be given by the side defending the goal. In this case the impetus came from a punt, and Heggen merely touching the ball. It was a bona-fide touch-back."

Wilmarth Not Fatally Hurt.

The rumor afloat last evening that Capt. Wilmarth of Ames was fatally injured was entirely without foundation.

He was removed to the Homeopathic hospital immediately after the game as it was at first feared that he was suffering from several internal injuries. But upon examination no serious bruises were found, and it is confidently expected that he will soon recover. Coach Williams said last night that had Wilmarth been in proper condition the result would not have been so serious.

Wilmarth became conscious at 9 o'clock and attending physicians stated that he was perfectly rational.

Iowa Proves a Master at Open Game.

Iowa clearly showed her mastery at the open style of play in yesterday's game. Onside kicks, wide open formations and forward passes were worked with startling success. Five forward passes were negotiated for a total distance of 44 yards. Ames did not try any forward passes.

Big Celebration Held.

Iowa City was hardly big enough for the 2,000 jubilant university students and alumni who last night celebrated Ames' defeat. While the blaze of the bonfire near the engineering building played on the sea of upturned faces, Yellmaster A. F. Fischer from a window of the engineering building led the "Who-wah-wah," the songs and the other yells. Hundreds of townspeople and excursionists from Cedar Rapids watched the antics of the students.

Following in the zigzag path of the university band, the students danced through the principal business streets of the city. Shirt tails and other vagaries of dress were worn by the happy crowd. Group after group took up the cheering while those nearest the band sung the adapted words to the "Hot Time" air. But instead of the words, "The way we will beat the Aggies will be fine," it was "The way we beat the Aggies, it was fine."

This Store's Victories Have Been Won In The Firm Favor Of Conscientious Dressers

The "Old Gold" Claims Our Praise To-day

It was the team that won the game and earned the thanks of every lover of old S. U. I. Team work from start to end was what that great eleven did and Iowa's future victories are assured when such "helping spirit is made the usual thing."

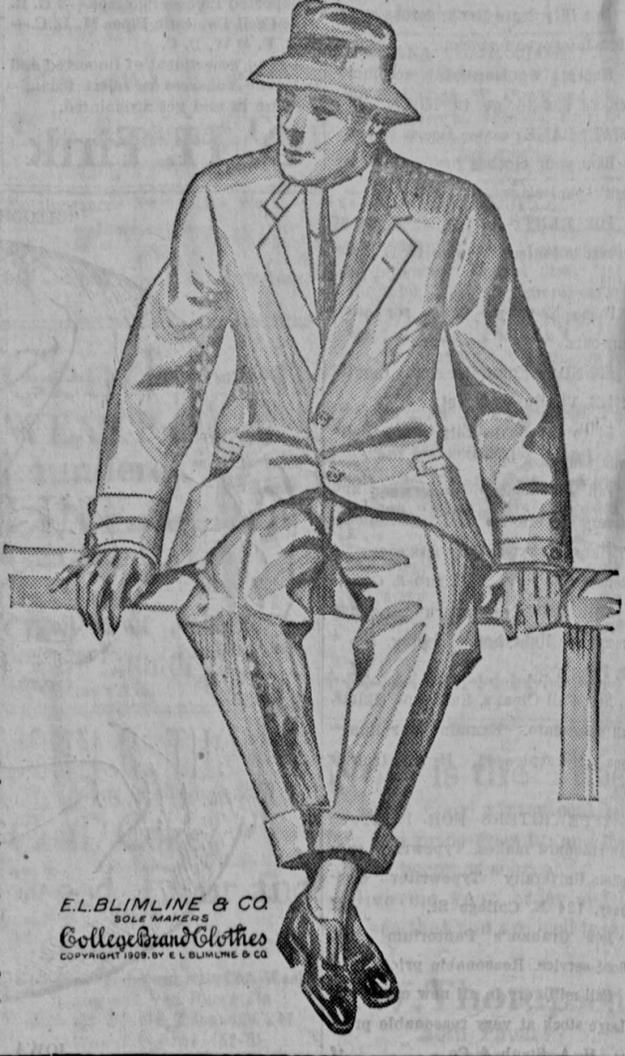

If we, as a business house in this city, deserve your patronage, Mr. Reader, it is because of the team work we are doing in our efforts to gain your favor. We don't go on the theory that we will be able to run up such a big score in your estimation by a low price on one garment that we can exact an exorbitant profit on something else. We don't do things spasmodically but attempt, by laying before you honest goods fairly priced, guaranteed to the limit of our business responsibility, to command your admiration and confidence in our ability to clothe you as a self respecting man in this twentieth century should be clothed.

Those Overcoats

The College Brand and Stein-Bloch tailors have turned out some very striking styles in overcoats this season and you can see them at their best in this store. There is a wide variety in the patterns. The best way to test their fitting qualities is with a try-on. Let us show you these coats now while the stock is at its best. A cold day will make a difference with it, you know.

Seasonable Suits

Some men go through life without ever getting above worrying about their suits. Some solve the question by finding a tailor who can give them just what they want. But others have found in College Brand or Stein-Bloch clothes those suits which embody all the style, service, and economy they demand. There are some men who can't reasonably wear any other ready-made suits except those made by these tailors.
