Hendry at Marshall Law
Mrs. Rittenburger, co-chairman for the state of Iowa, will deliver an address before the Marshall Law society Friday evening, Nov. 23, on "Opportunity at the Bar." Everybody invited.

NOTICES

Philosophical Club Meeting
The philosophical club will meet next Thursday evening, Nov. 22.

Newman Dance at Majestics
The Newman will dance at the Majestics instead of the E. P. Hall tomorrow night.

Girls' Club Dance
The Iowa City girls will be open again for fancy Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Miss Profit's saloon. All girls are urged to present who wish to join the girls club.

Y. W. Meeting
The Y. W. C. A. meeting for this year is everyone in the university, both men and women. Miss Holmes' Chorus club will render special music.

Norman's Notice
Prof. Samuel Calvin will address the Sorority club this evening on the subject, "Large animals now extinct, which lived in Iowa during the first inter-glacial interval." The lecture is invited to attend. Physical auditorium at 7:10 sharp.

C. P. E. Changas Meeting
C. P. E. has completed definite plans for the year. Instead of meeting every two weeks, as has been the custom formerly, they have decided to combine their business and social meetings and hold one every month during the year, each one so planned that it will be suitable to the season. The first one will be held next Friday evening. The society has been divided into six classes, each one of which will have charge of one part.

High School Will Play Clinton
The local high school football team will play Clinton tomorrow evening, Nov. 22, at the city river city stadium. So far this year Iowa City has met but two teams, winning four times. The meeting this year is the best made in years.

The Iowa City seconds will meet Ok凯ford, Thursday afternoon. The locals have put up a good game in past contests and a fast exhibition is expected.

Freshmen Men and Women Meet at the University Club
Men and women in the general college on hy- pliea for freshmen will be given by Dr. W. R. Middlewood on "Horse Taming," Thursday, Nov. 22, 7:00 in the assembly room of the hall of liberal arts. The lecture is free to all.
