F. H. ANTHONY WEEKEND-

I am in the habit of coming down once a week to take care of the store. It is a good idea to keep in touch with the people who are interested in the town. I am glad to see that the town is doing well.

I was interested in the story of the young man who was killed in the accident. It is a terrible thing when a young life is cut short.

I am also interested in the story of the old woman who won the lottery. It is a wonderful thing when a lucky break comes to someone who needs it.

I think it is important to keep the community informed of what is happening in the town.

I hope that the people of the town will continue to support their elected officials. It is important to have leaders who can bring about positive changes.

I am looking forward to the future and to the opportunities that lie ahead.

Thank you for allowing me to speak today.

The end.

AMUSEMENTS.

Saturday Night's Flirtations.

Lots of good things to break and never know how it happened. Many better than their pun in the real big towns find out, while the man, knowing he is delivering the goods, wonders what kind of a blind kid is in the box. The secret is that they ask so much money. That's why Saturday Night's Flirtations is a householdly favorite. A man who in his desperation is shoving our policy and popular prices gets it. It's better to play to a full house at a reasonable price than to a fourth of a house divided the price. Better all round. You get the regular country crowd, they can't get to any other. They seem to associate them in attendance and make an 'up and go' and the show very good business. Help to pack the 'Children Thanksgiving service and right.

Gee Whiz, Fellows!

Yesterday's new storm turned the trick for all and now everybody puts its put away on its own. As the chips and those with the hats deliveries to him—things are certainly coming our way. Now for a word to the wise, also to the ears: Give us a chance and you will get your winter over. We have the new "Plumb Collar" not which is four cents in all as it is in the collar. You must see this. Shawn Dyer's. A good,
