BASKETBALL PRACTICE BEGAN LAST EVENING

YARDLEY CANDIDATES MUST WORK DAILY

FAVORING Features of Practice Before Holiday-Men Gains in Prospect.

Basketball practice at Iowa has now begun in earnest and the yards men will be required to take a daily workout on the January 1st. The practice held last evening marks the beginning of a season whose prospects are the brighter that they have been in years. A large number of men came out last evening and worked along a staidly thorough fashion, instead of that casualness that has marked up the bulk of the first season.

Owing to the fact that Iowa's teams begins immediately after the holidays, Coach Griffith has decided to have the men work out each day. The following schedule of practices has been found the most convenient:

Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons from 4 to 5:30. Advance work will be taught last year's freshmen. The remaining time will be used for the new men who will come in the fall. The maximum number for each practice will be limited to 15.

This regular time will be continued Tuesday at 5:30.

IOWA'S NEGATIVE TEAM MUST MAKE UP

The regular time of meetings will be the night before the first meeting of the last year's men; quite a number are back. Those reporting among the old men are Petros, Weston, Cleron, Haffan, Fish and Conley. The remaining material will be for the next ten men. Additional practice will be showing up remarkably well in the light weight division. The weight class this year will be pressed the most interesting as the majority of the new men are of that weight.

The regular time of meetings will be Tuesday nights at 5:15; immediate work will be started each evening.
