"Grandarit.

The attraction to be presented at the Coliseum Saturday will be the dimasco version of George Barr McCutcheon’s novel, “Grandarit.” This attraction has grown in size and strength in recent years and has played to record breaking houses in New York, Boston, Phila-Burghers, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C. It is exceptionally strong and is led by Miss Gertrude Perry, in three hands the difficult role of "Vi-

"Viare" is estalished, Miss Perry has been praised for her beauty, her per-forcement, and her emotions and the existent chaff of her acting. "Larry" will be played by Mr. William Wagner, and it is said truthfully becomes the American readers of Mr. McCutcheon’s book know him. An elaborate music production, picturesque costumes and excellent instructions are used to enhance the value of this interesting play of love and intrigue.

Riggen New Arcade.

Arable Picture Theatre is now the scene of the moving picture house on Washington street. Formerly known as the Riggen Dream. Recently repaired, the little theatre is now again advertised by the present management and the classes of pictures has been improved. Today: The Curly Hairy Coat "is being run. It is said to be a story from beginning to end." In connection with the: remaining, most little stand with show case containing candy, etc., has been built in the front of the theatre.
