UNIVERSITY DEBATERS WILL CLASH TONIGHT

SOCIETIES HOLD CHAMPIONSHIP PRELIMINARIES.

Philomathian Meets Marshall Law— Irving Contest with Zets— Judges are Announced.

Tonight are the preliminary debates for the championship of the university. The contests this year promise to be especially interesting as the teams are evenly matched. Irving meets Zetagathian in the liberal arts assembly hall while Philomathian debates Marshall Law in the auditorium.

Last evening the contestants met and selected the judges. Professors Ansley, Gillin and E. A. Wilcox will decide the Zet-Irving battle while the Philo-Marshall debate will be judged by Mayor Otto, Prof. Plum and Registrar E. C. Barrett. Officers of the Forensic league will preside at the contests, President Kauffman at the Zet-Irving and Vice President Chester Corey at the other.

The Zets and Irvings have put especially strong teams in the field this year. All the men are experienced debaters and good speakers. Edgar Ashton leads the Zet team. He is a sophomore and last year represented his society in its class debate with Irving. The other two men, Macey Campbell and Raphael F. Clough are both new men to Iowa. Both, however, are old debaters, Campbell having represented Pleasantown Normal in inter-collegiate contests, while Clough has had experience at Cedar Falls.

Clarence E. Coulter leads the Irving team. Coulter has been in three debating teams in the university, the winning freshman team, the Irving championship team of '08, and the varsity against Wisconsin last year. Joseph McConnell is an old Coe college debater and led the Irving junior team last year. Ruell Liggett led his society's freshman team, also led the championship team last year and this year was alternate on Iowa's Nebraska team.

Harry E. Tullar leads the Philo team. He is an old society debater from U. I. U. and was on some of their inter-collegiate teams. F. F. Fishburn is an Iowa City academy debater and last year led the Philo championship team. Edward Goetsch is an Iowa State Teachers' college debater and has been prominent in oratory while in the university.

The Marshall Laws are new men, all being freshmen. Their leader, Floyd E. Lewis, is a "prep" school debater with a record while both F. C. Reed and C. O. Sjuln are good men.

Wrestling Class Tonight.

The wrestling classes still meet at the usual times, Tuesday at 8:15 and Saturday at 10:00.

RELIGIOUS CAMPAIGN ENDS: BIBLE STUDY WORK FOLLOWS

New Classes Will be Organized Soon.

The religious campaign is now practically over as far as active meetings are concerned. But the work which the Christian associations want to accomplish is only begun.

"We are particularly glad that the Daily Iowan has referred to this work as a religious campaign for that is just what it was and not a revival as the term is used today," said one of the secretaries yesterday. "I saw by the Des Moines paper that a great revival was in progress at Iowa City. It was intended more as a religious conference and indeed the prime good in the whole work came from the personal interviews with the men of the university. Our aim, of course, was to bring before the student body a higher conception of religion through the power of God."

The meetings closed with the addresses on Sunday by A. J. Elliott and W. D. Weatherford in the auditorium. Both meetings were well attended and the addresses were both powerful appeals to the Christian men of Iowa to keep on with the Christian work. It is understood that the Bible Study work will follow the campaign and the new classes will be organized as soon as possible.

Musical Lecture.

Dean Carl E. Seashore gave an interesting and instructive lecture yesterday afternoon on "The Psychology of Music." Experiments were given during the address to bring out the points.

"Madame Butterfly" Tonight.

Tonight in the Unitarian Guild rooms at 8:00 o'clock Miss Blanche Bloom and Mr. Ralph Lawton will give "Madame Butterfly" as a dramatic recital with a musical setting. Miss Bloom reads the scenes from the opera in costume with Mr. Lawton at the piano.

The great success which they achieved in Davenport and in their appearance before the Federation of Women's clubs here will probably attract a large audience for the artists.

Directorate Seems Probable.

Two members of the finance committee of the board in control of athletics, Pres. George E. MacLean, Dean W. C. Wilcox and certain athletes and alumni discussed the present athletic situation in the university for three hours yesterday afternoon in the Old Capitol building. It was unofficially learned last evening that a committee would be appointed in the near future by Prof. A. G. Smith which will endeavor to secure a director of athletics for the next year. No announcement was made as to the subjects discussed or business transacted.

FEATURE DANCES ARE ANNOUNCED FOR PROM

COMMITTEE IS PLANNING RADICAL CHANGES.

Central Color Scheme will be Dark Blue in Place of Red—Tickets are Three Dollars.

The Junior Prom coming February 4 will be a departure from past functions in the introduction of many novel features entirely new to this part of the country. The party will be unlike the ordinary affair of this sort, several radical changes being contemplated by the committee.

An entirely new color scheme will be used in the decorations. Instead of the well worn red and other familiar colors, the central color scheme will be dark blue. The lights will also be blue, red being entirely dispensed with in the decorations.

A very expensive and artistic lighting scheme is being planned. The central feature will be a brilliant S. U. I. monogram in the center of the ceiling from which will radiate electrical display streamers to the different points of the compass making the entire ceiling a shimmering field of soft light.

Several feature dances are being planned to replace the dark dances and color dances. This marks a considerable change from past policy, and it is expected to be an improvement. The nature of these feature dances will not be explained until all the details are definitely settled.

The committee is planning an unusually expensive party but the price, contrary to reports circulating of late, will remain the same, three dollars a ticket. The report of an increased admission had no foundation.

Students' Fathers Die.

Carl Riepe, L. A. '10, has been called to his home in Burlington by the death of his father which occurred Saturday, January 15.

Paul P. Busse, A. S. '13, has gone to his home in Avoca to attend the funeral of his father.

Barretts Have Son.

Born to Registrar and Mrs. E. C. Barrett Sunday morning a son. The little fellow has been named Richard Cecil Barrett. Mr. Barrett has been busy replying to the congratulations of his many friends in the university.

Dean Gregory Honored.

Governor B. F. Carroll recently appointed Dean Charles N. Gregory of the college of law as a member of the committee of Civic Betterment of which Seth Low of New York is chairman. The committee convenes in Washington, D. C., on February 18, but because of the dedication of the law building February 22 Dean Gregory will not be able to attend.

STEWART BEFORE HUMANISTS DISCUSSES ANCIENT AUTHOR.

Mr. G. J. Neumann Also Read a Paper.

The Humanist society met last night with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rich. Professor Charles O. Stewart presented the paper of the evening on "The Works of Simon Ashe," called "Simund de Freine."

Among other things, Mr. Stewart discussed the name of the author. The facts in the case are that he was really named Simund de Freine. Owing to the appendage of Magister Simon de Fraxino to his Latin poems, his name was translated by John Leland into Simon Ashe. He was canon of the cathedral of Hereford in the twelfth century and an intimate friend of Giraldu Cambrensis. Several of his Latin poems are extant but they have no more than trifling value.

"Le Roman de Philosophie" has been claimed by many to be a translation of Boetius' "Consolation of Philosophy." Professor John Matzke of Leland Stanford, editor of the present edition, however, gives Simund de Freine credit for a very free working over of the materials used by Boetius and the addition of much of his own. "The Vie de Saint Georges" is practically an original work, though many legends of this saint were extant at that time. Both works are noteworthy for their religious tone as also for the extreme simplicity of diction and style.

Mr. G. J. Neumann gave a report on "Hyperion and the Voires of the Night; a Unity under German Influence."

Prall in New Position.

John C. Prall, the former University of Iowa sprinter and for the last few years secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Ames, has just been elected organizer of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of America with headquarters in New York City.

Mr. Prall will have charge of organizing laymen in the biggest cities in the middle west. He goes to Kansas City next Thursday and later to Indianapolis and St. Paul. The Laymen's Missionary Movement is a nationwide affair similar to the student volunteer movement.

Leagues Want O'Brien.

Steve O'Brien, the varsity's crack pitcher, has received two offers from baseball leagues; one from the St. Louis (American) manager and the other from the Flint, Mich., team.

If O'Brien should accept either offer it is probable that he will remain in Iowa City to aid the 'varsity nine.

Clayton Cooper Lectures.

Last evening at the liberal arts assembly, Mr. Clayton S. Cooper spoke on his experience among college men. He has lately returned from a world tour of colleges.

MEDICS MEET LIBERAL ARTS IN FIRST GAME

INDOOR BASEBALL SCHEDULE STARTS SATURDAY.

Fifteen Games Make up Champion- ship Schedule—Six Teams in Inter-Department League.

Next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 the liberal arts and medics will meet on the armory diamond in the first indoor baseball game of the schedule. Physical Director E. G. Schroeder has arranged a schedule for the inter-department league which includes fifteen games.

Six teams are included in the league, thus requiring the playing of two games each Saturday afternoon. The faculty, liberal arts, laws, dents, engineers and medics are all out for championship honors and the fight for first place is destined to be a hard one.

The following rules have been drawn up to govern the playing of these contests:

- I. Each team plays each other team once.
- II. Seven innings will constitute a game.
- III. Each team may use either nine or ten men.
- IV. In case either team fails to appear on the floor at the scheduled time the game will be forfeited to their opponents.

Physical Director Schroeder has also arranged for an indoor game with the Marshalltown Y. M. C. A. for February 7. The athletic board at its last meeting agreed to send nine men on this trip. Five men will be chosen from the liberal arts basketball squad who won the championship this winter. Three other men will be chosen from those reporting for indoor baseball practice. Coach Schroeder will accompany the squad. After the baseball game the liberal arts five will meet the Y. team in a basketball game.

The Marshalltown team is chosen from the City League team and is reported to be very fast. They use a larger ball than do the Iowa men and also play on a smaller diamond, thus having the advantage over the local team.

In preparation for this trip regular practices will be held the first coming next Saturday afternoon at 1:30. The liberal arts basketball squad is especially urged to report at this time.

The following schedule has been arranged for the inter-department games:

- Jan. 22—2:30 Fraternity. 3:30 L. A. vs. Medics.
Jan. 29—2:30 Fraternity. 3:30 Faculty vs. English.
Feb. 5—2:30 Fraternity. 3:30 The Laws vs. Dents.

"I WANT TO KNOW."

Elberd Hubbard while on his travels through the "shaw me" state says that he met with an old lady who upon hearing a bit of news from the outside world, appeared to grow younger. Hubbard says that while speaking to her, she was all attention, seemingly hanging upon every word and when he had done, her only remark was, "Well! Well! I want to know!"

This old lady expressed a motto that all students could aptly adopt. If carried into effect it would remove the eternal quest for credit, take the humdrum out of college life and lead students to the class room because they wanted to know. Every laboratory would change into a place of pleasure; every class period would be made a pastime; every duty, however heavy, would be done daily by the earnest student who wanted to know.

The desire to know is the fundamental element in mental growth. We cannot hope to attain the heights of education until we pursue our college courses because we want to know. Moreover the results of practicing this motto are cumulative; we get a smell, then a taste, then an appetite. And the best of all is there is no limit to the one who wants to know; the pursuit never grows old; it just goes on and on. Knowledge, like the sea, has no end.

Faust for Choral Society.

The success of Rossini's Stabat Mater has encouraged the university Choral society to begin preparation for a second entertainment, the production selected being Gounod's Faust. The concert will take place toward the end of the year and may be placed upon a festival footing.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Graustark."

The attraction to be presented at the Coldren Saturday will be the dramatic version of George Barr McCutcheon's novel, "Graustark." This attraction has proven to be one of the biggest successes in recent years, and has played to record breaking receipts in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Chicago. The cast is exceptionally strong and is headed by Miss Gertrude Perry, in whose hands the difficult role of "Yevette" is entrusted. Miss Perry has been praised for her beauty, her personal magnetism and the exquisite charm of her acting. "Lorry" will be played by Mr. William Wagner, and it is said he truthfully portrays the American as readers of Mr. McCutcheon's book know him. An elaborate scenic production, picturesque costumes and electrical innovations are used to enhance the value of this interesting play of love and intrigue.

Bijou Now Arcade.

Arcade Picture Theatre is now the name of the moving picture house on Washington street, formerly known as the Bijou Dreams. Recently repaired, the little theatre is much more attractive to the patrons and the class of pictures has also been improved. Today "The Unruly Motor Cycle" is being run. It is said to be a "roar from beginning to end."

In connection with the remodeling, a neat little stand with show cases containing candy, etc., has been built in the front of the theatre.

Elliott Addresses Y. W. C. A.

Miss Wilbur presided over the meeting of Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Dean Newcomb rendered a vocal solo, "Behold a Stranger" very sympathetically. Mr. A. J. Elliott gave the talk of the afternoon on the theme "Three reasons why one should be a Christian."

The main points of his address may be outlined as follows: First, we need Christ to overcome sin. He elaborates this in this fashion, that it is not the sins of commission alone which we must be freed from but sin as expressed in the Book of James. "Therefore him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, that one committeth sin."

His second point was on "The right kind of influences." "Every individual influences some one, either directly or indirectly, the type of influence resting with the individual as either godly or ungodly. The field of influence is broad, the effects lasting." His last point was on showing an appreciation. He declared "The greatest sin of all is ingratitude. Lack of appreciation of things done for us is unpardonable."
