of the feeling that he would be ready friends among the alumni of the university. This acquiescence undoubtedly will be an important factor in his campaign.

ANNOUNCING CANDIDACY FOR 2D PREMISE COURT REPORTER

M. L. PERNON

For eight years law librarian for the university, and for three years editor of the Alumni, he has won many friends among the alumni of the university. This acquiescence undoubtedly will be an important factor in his campaign.

the court goes directly to the faculty for enforcement.

In case of appeals by either student or faculty, the discipline committee reviews the case. If they find that disciplinary provision, the decision goes to the faculty for enforcement.

If there appears to be cause sufficient for a new hearing, the discipline committee remake the case to the student court with recommendation.

They can take it in action. The court again considers the case and its final decision goes to the faculty for enforcement.

The plan is one that is being
