IOWANS ARE PROMINENT AS HISTORY WRITERS

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION PUBLISHES SECOND VOLUME.

Prof. B. F. Shambaugh is Editor of Publication—Addresses and Speeches Printed.

The Mississippi Valley Historical association has just sent out the second volume of its proceedings in a volume of nearly three hundred pages. Two years ago Benj. F. Shambaugh was made editor of the series by the association and thus the work of publishing has been carried on at Iowa City. The editor makes acknowledgments in his preface to Clarence S. Paine of Lincoln, Neb., secretary-treasurer of the association, and to John C. Parish for assistance, and to Dan E. Clark for the preparation of a thorough index to the volume.

The work consists of the report of transactions and the addresses delivered at two meetings, one at Richmond, Virginia, in December, 1908, and one at St. Louis in June of 1909. About two hundred and fifty pages are devoted to the addresses which cover a variety of topics connected with the history of the Mississippi Valley and the Middle West. Some of the titles of papers are as follows: "The Conservation of the Natural Resources of the Mississippi Valley," "William Clark, The Indian Agent," "The Western Sanitary Commission," and "Early Banking in Kentucky."

Several Iowa writers appear in the list of speakers. Professor Frank H. Carver of Morningside College gave an address at Richmond, Virginia, on "The Story of Sergeant Charles Floyd." An address by Benj. F. Shambaugh on "Applied History," and one by Dan E. Clark on "The Election of the First United States Senators from Iowa" appear among those given before the association at St. Louis in June, 1909.

The first two volumes covering the years 1907-1909 bring the publications down to the present time. The third volume will include the transactions and addresses which will be given at the Iowa City meeting on May 26 and 27, 1910. The books are handsomely printed on cream colored paper by the Torch Press of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and will be distributed to a membership of about five hundred.

Freshmen Hold Try-Out.

A track try-out for the Minnesota football team was held yesterday by the first year men. While no very great records were made, the men put up a performance that was uniformly good. The freshmen will invade the Gopher camp next Saturday, where a battle royal is expected. Little is known here of the strength of the northerners, but the supposition is that Coach Grant will produce several first class performers when the carnival starts. With Fife in the pole vault and discus and Weiss in all three weights, it is a safe bet that the Hawkeyes will score heavily in those events.

DEFENDANT IS NOT GUILTY LAST JUNIOR TRIAL CLOSES

After Long Deliberation Jury Finds For Accused.

In the Junior Criminal case, State of Iowa vs. Edward L. Mathews, the jury returned a verdict of "Not Guilty" after deliberation of little more than an hour. The defendant was charged with burglary.

Mr. Mathews, the defendant, was represented by the following counsel: C. W. Steele, J. R. Lane and Mark Hyland. The state was represented by Joe Beem, R. O. Clark and H. F. Bartlett, and in their arguments insisted that the defendant was not so drunk as to be incapable of forming a criminal intent, but deliberately planned the burglary.

The defendant's counsel pointed out the fact that the acts of the defendant were inconsistent with any other solution than that the defendant, driven to drink by the death of his sweetheart, was unconscious of his acts.

Mr. Hyland opened the arguments, reviewing chiefly the testimony of the defendant's witnesses, and was followed by Mr. Lane who spoke of the reasonableness of the defendant's actions. The arguments for the defense was closed by Mr. Steele, who made clear many of the fallacies of the state's testimony.

Hop Committee Active.

The annual senior hop will be held in the university armory on the evening of June 15. The committee in charge of this event has been busily engaged in arranging the preliminary affairs and are planning to give an exceptionally enjoyable function. The committee is composed of the following members: Ben F. Butler, chairman, C. C. Denio, K. C. Knerr, Lawrence Mayer, Earl Stewart, John Witte and G. A. Yoacum.

The committee is planning to add materially to the commencement decorations and programs especially suited as mementos will be presented. The senior hop, coming as it does as the last event of commencement, will be attended by a large number of prominent alumni.

Anderson is Honored.

In regard to an honor recently given Assistant-professor D. A. Anderson of the department of education, a Lamoni newspaper was the following to say:

"Prof. D. A. Anderson, now in the state university as an assistant in the department of education, will soon take up study abroad, being sent by the University of Iowa to make an expert study of the educational system of Norway and of the departments of education and psychology in several of the leading universities on the continent and in the British Isles. Mr. Anderson will sail from New York June 15. He hopes to return within the year or as soon as the work comprehended in the commission is completed. A position of this kind carries with it much of value and is one much sought after in the older and larger universities."

HOME MEET TO OCCUR TOMORROW AFTERNOON

ALL AMATEUR ATHLETES IN THE SCHOOL ARE ELIGIBLE.

Hundred Yard Dash at Three Thirty—Officials Not Yet Selected—Relay Races Probable.

If preliminary "dope" may be relied upon to count for anything, it is predicted many of the present track records are bound to go by the board tomorrow afternoon when the cream of the athletes in the university clash on Iowa field in the annual home meet.

Several of the freshmen and varsity men have been performing consistently for some time in record-breaking style and local track followers predict that nothing short of hard luck can prevent the athletes from setting new marks tomorrow.

In addition to all of the freshmen and varsity men who are expected to take part in the carnival all other amateur athletes in the university are eligible for the meet. Owing to faculty bans and the three year rule several of the best men are barred from active competition on the varsity, but they will in all probability turn out for the big meet tomorrow.

All of the men who have trained this spring are in the very best possible condition and consequently some keen competition may be looked for. Campbell in the half, Alderman and O'Brien in the weights, Jans in the quarter and Wilson in the hurdles will put up strong bids for records.

The officials have not yet been selected, but it is likely that a local man will be the starter. The nature of the meet has not been fully decided upon, but those in charge have expressed the opinion that it would not be run off as a class or department meet. The meet will begin at 3:30, with the hundred yard dash coming first on the program.

Sigma Xi Announces Lecturer.

The Sigma Xi society announces that its annual lecture next year will be given by the world's foremost experimental psychologist. He is Prof. E. B. Titchener of Cornell. The exact date for this lecture will be announced later. Sigma Xi has been successful in making an effort to secure the very highest in the ranks of scientists.

Senior Song Books.

Some members of the senior class have not yet secured their senior song books. Those who have not are urged by the committee to do so at once. The books are still on sale at both book stores. "Every senior should have one by Wednesday at the latest," said Chairman J. J. McConnell Jr., of the committee yesterday.

Starbuck at Logan.

Professor Edwin D. Starbuck will make an address at Logan, Iowa, next Wednesday. The occasion is the forty first annual convention of the Harrison county Sunday school association.

PEACE DAY TO BE OBSERVED; HIBBARD WILL MAKE ADDRESS

Cosmopolitan Club will Conduct Wednesday Assembly.

Peace Day, Wednesday, May 18, will be celebrated by the university. The local chapter of the Cosmopolitan club will have charge of the assembly and has secured Prof. Hibbard of Ames, head of the department of public speaking in that school, to give an address on the universal peace movement.

Pres. George E. MacLean will be absent. He is at Lake Mohonk, N. Y., attending an international peace congress.

The Cosmopolitan club, an organization composed largely of foreign students in American universities, has allied itself with the American Peace society. With the Corda Frates, a students' society in Europe, it is working hard against war. The local chapter in common with the other twenty-one chapters of the club, is observing Peace Day.

Prof. Hibbard is especially fitted to speak in behalf of the Cosmopolitan club in the interests of peace. He was instrumental in founding the chapter at Ames where seventy-five foreign students have joined the club. Among the special musical numbers which have been arranged is a solo by C. C. Hakes.

Professors to go Abroad.

Some of the university professors are planning to go abroad this summer. Among them are Dean Charles Noble Gregory, who will visit England and the continent; Charles O. Stewart, who will visit France and Oberammergau; and Charles H. Weller who will visit Greece and southern Italy, spending most of the time in Athens. Dr. E. N. S. Thompson and his brother, the professor of Greek at Yale, will spend the summer at Munich, leaving about July 1.

Seniors Receive Appointments.

During the past week the department of education made the following appointments:

- Clara Holman, Mathematics, Cornell.
- Bessie Pierce, Latin-English, Sanborn.
- June Chase, Principal, Tipton.
- Nellie Jones, Mathematics-Latin, Marathon.
- Capitola Temple, Latin-German, Essex.
- Edward Goetsch, Superintendent, Bedford.
- H. O. Field, Principal, Missouri Valley.
- Myrtle Pullen, Instructor, Shell Rock.
- Iowa Marshall, German-Botany, Corydon.

Challenge for Tug of War.

The seniors of the college of medicine hereby challenge the seniors of the college of law to a tug of war across the pond in the city park, to take place during the festivities on Senior Frolic Day.

Signed, Senior Class.

CORNELL COMES TODAY STATE TITLE AT STAKE

PURPLE TEAM CONTAINS NINE SWATTERS.

Coppess Breaks Long Distance Hitting Records Daily—Cory will Oppose Alcorn or West.

(By D. A.)

With Captain Stewart at the helm in place of the departed Green, the Hawkeyes will tackle the chesty Cornellians on Iowa field this afternoon at the same old hour, 3:45. Light practice for everybody was dished out yesterday on the first day of the new regime, the cap opining that the rest cure would be best for his athletes just before the battle. Hitting practice which seems to be the leading requirement just now, was undertaken for an hour, while the battery stars worked out their whips. All hands reported in good condition except Hanlon, who is just recovering from a seige of tonsillitis. The customary line-up will face Coppess and Co. today, with the pitching honors lying between Alcorn and West. The chances are that Alcorn, who showed great form in the only game he pitched this year, will go against the purple this afternoon.

Cornell is coming with a great reputation among folks over Mt. Vernon way. Dope from that village indicates that the wearers of the purple togs are a deadly bunch of swatters. Coppess, who broke all local aeroplane records in the two games played with the Hawkeyes last year, is clouting in old time form, introducing an extra-base knock in every game. At Ames last week he poled the longest hit ever seen in the Aggie camp. Behind the hitting marvel the other members of the troupe have been going along in great style, veteran infield and a capable string of boxmen making the whole combination one of the strongest in the state. With Ames already chalked up with two defeats, Grinnell dropping out of the race because of Jarnigan of Wichita, and Drake missing a factor in the baseball situation for the time being, the state title seems to lie between Iowa and Cornell. Today's game ought to give a good line on the abilities of the two aggregations; and if the Hawkeyes win the lights will be almost out for the other teams. Cornell was tumbled by Ames and in a return game last week Leander Clark broke into the limelight by taking the purple into camp with Coppess pitching. Cory, the star of the staff, will oppose the Hawkeyes today with southpaw slants; and as an Iowa victory means the practical elimination of the Cornellians from the upper circle, strenuous opposition is expected.

The Ames Intelligencer is raising a protest against the settlement of Aggie-Hawkeye difficulties by the baseball route on Memorial day, claiming that the state institutions are making themselves outlaws to patriotism and decency by setting the game for that date.

WELCOME RECOGNITION.

In a recent issue of the Des Moines Evening Tribune an editorial appeared which duly recognized the important meeting brought to Iowa City the last of this month largely through the energy of Prof. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, head of the department of political science in the university. The editorial is as follows:

"An important meeting is to hold at Iowa City during the closing days of the month. It is the third annual gathering of the Mississippi Historical association.

"A great many university men from other states will appear on the programmes, which will begin with Wednesday morning, May 25, and close with Friday evening, May 27—the closing address given by W. J. McGee of the national department of agriculture, on conservation of natural resources.

"The importance of this meeting and others like it is not so much in what will be said or who will attend, as in the impetus which will be given to study of local history, and to the preservation of local historical material.

"The pioneer period in Iowa is passing. The rude reminders of the frontier are gradually being lost and destroyed. Within another generation these things would be invaluable. A little care would preserve them and hand them down.

"Every county should have an active historical association. It should be the business of the association to mark the early roads, to keep record of the first building places, to have a museum for the preservation of relics of early days, and more than all to induce those of the early comers who are left to jot down their personal reminiscences.

"Great credit must be given to Prof. Shambaugh for his untiring zeal in this work. The coming of the Mississippi Historical association to Iowa City is largely on his initiative."

GOOD RAZORS

Last evening I asked the old man to tell me the difference between a "burnt offering" and "a sacrifice." He said it all depended upon who was holding "the sale."

I was telling you one time last fall about a "pure business" law that some congressman introduced for killing off business fakes and false representations in the advertisements of business men. A penalty was prescribed for holding a reduction sale unless it could be shown that the reductions were genuine and the goods were as represented. For example, a department store buys a lot of cheap shoes, to cost about $1.50 a pair, and they have the manufacturer stamp them "Dugless" or "Bursts" $3.50 shoes for men—then they hold a sale and advertise "500 pairs at a special sale, cut to $2.49 the pair." A fellow in San Francisco was selling Sorosis shoes for women at $2.50 regular $3.50, and the manufacturers wrote to the agency of the Sorosis shoe to brand this firm as an imposter. But the fellow came back and proved he had bought a job lot of "seconds" or what are called "re-fects" (in the shoe trade) so he had the laugh on the regular dealer. Still he was imposing on the public by pretending to sell a $3.50 shoe for $2.50 when it was worth only about $2.25 in the first place.

Well, sir, there is room for just such a law in the State of Iowa, but I didn't look for it until about the Panama Pacific Exposition year or A. D. 1915 unless Halley's comet should hit us. Meanwhile it is a pleasure for us to know in this shop that "pure business" law and the "square deal" have always been in force and always will be. Have you been in to see the novelty suitings for this season's wear? Blow in.

Zet-Irving Debate Tonight.

"Federal incorporation of Corporations Doing an Inter-state Business" is the subject which will be argued by the sophomore representatives of the Zetagathian and Irving Institute literary societies tonight at the auditorium. This is the annual Zet-Irving sophomore debate which is fought out to decide the honors of the class.

The affirmative will be upheld for Irving by Messrs. Conger, Reynolds, John Gwynne and J. W. Powers, while Messrs. E. F. McKellips, Wm.

Antes and A. C. Torgeson will sustain the negative for Zetagathia. The last named of each trio is the leader of the team.

Last year's debate was won by the Zetagathians and so far this year honors have been about even in the various contests which have been held so special effort will be put forth by both teams to pull down a victory in tonight's battle. An admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged to defray the necessary expense to which the league is put.

"All talk of moving the medical school is bosh," said Sen. Thomas Lambert of the finance committee of the state board of education here Saturday. "The school will remain here. If the Des Moines school and the disgruntled doctors go before the legislators, I believe they will be turned down. The state has over $1,000,000 in equipment here and the legislators are not going to have the equipment here lying idle while they have to provide duplicate equipment in Des Moines."
