LIBERAL ARTS TEAM WINS CLASS CONTEST

HANSON'S LONG RUN DEFEATS ENGINEERS, 6 TO 0.

Neither Team Able to Gain Consistently—Touchdown Comes Frof Blocked Kick.

An eighty-five yard run for a touch down by Hanson decided an evenly contested battle in favor of the Liberal Arts in their clash with the engineers yesterday. Hanson's run came after fumbles by the Liberal Art team had given the enemy the ball on the collegiate 8-yard line. Here a penalty cost the engineers fifteen, and after trying two unsuccessful smashes, Captain Osler dropped back for a try at field goal. Iles the Liberal Arts right end, broke through and blocked the kick, and Hanson picked up the ball and ran for a touchdown almost without opposition. Zastrow kicked goal, making the score 6 to 0.

The game was evenly fought thruout, neither team making consitent gains. In the first quarter the collegiate team had the better of the argument, making good gains on forward passes which the engineers seemed unable to fathom? Hanson, with a strong wind at his back, outkicked Osler, and penalties also hurt the engineers. But with the goals changed in the next period conditions were reversed and the L. A. aggregation began to fumble badly. Poor headwork in calling for forward passes close to their own goal line also hurt Latham's men, and gave the Applied Science warriors several chances to score. But the Liberal Arts defense always stiffened in nick of time, and Osler's disastrous attempt at field goal kicking took away the engineer's chances.

The engineer's made several effective substitutions and started the second half strongly. Aided by the fast-closing darkness, which made fake plays unusually effective, they rushed theb all to the collegiate twenty-five yard line, where the L. A.'s braced and held for down. Hanson punted over Bate's head, and the ball rolled to the engineer's one-yard line. Soon after time was called with the ball in engineer's territory.

The line-up:

Engineers: Murphy, l.e.; Putnam, l.t.; Runyan, l.g.; Martin, c.; Miller, r.g.; Renshaw, r.t; Osler, (C.); r.e.; Bates, q.b.; Feller, l.h.; Stevenson, r.h.; Origer, f.b.

Sustitions, Githins for Zastrow, Baired for Latham, Zastrow for Iles, Payne for Steverson, Hands for Origer.

Touchdown, Hanson. Goal from touchdown, Zastrow.

Referee, Kellogg. Umpire, Collins. Head linesman, Gardner.

CULBERTSON DEFEATS LARSEN IN WONDERFUL TENNIS MATCH

Brilliant Play Marks Final Round in Tourney. Doubles Matches To-Morrow.

In one of the best tennis matches ever played on the Iowa courts Hayes Culbertson defeated Henning Larsen in the finals of the football open tourney. The result was in a way unexpected as Larsen was doped by the followers of the game to beat his rival, although Culbertson was known to be a wonderful player. The match required the limit of five sets to decide so close was the fight for honors. The victor won by playing a brilliant smashing game, using practically no lobbing and relying on getting the ball past his opponent to secure the point. The winner lost the first and fourth games by 3-6, and 4-6 scores, but came back strong each time and won 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. The challenge round in the singles will be played Thursday with Sharrard and Culbertson's opponent for the championship of the university.

The semi-finals have been reached in the doubles matches. Laueer and Lersen are pitted against Tilton and Coleman and while Sharrard and Culbertson are opposed to Shaw and Higbee. The matches will probably be played tomorrow.

YOUNG NAMES COMMITTEE FOR IOWA'S SENIOR HOP

Plans Made Early for the Last Formal Party of the Year.

President Horace Young of the senior class yesterday announced the personnel of the senior hop committee, which will have charge of the last and in many respects most important formal of the year. The men selected are: A. G. Kass, Remsen; C. W. Baxter, Winfield; W. W. Cornwall, Spencer; J. A. Campbell, Sheldon; R. F. Clough, Everly; Floyd Thomas, Ottumwa; G. K. Thompson, Jamaica; Francis Varga, Leon; E. E. Quarton, Grinnell; Pearl Walters, Cedar Falls.

This committee will organize at once and choose its chairman in order to begin making preparations for the party. Then senior hop is the last function of the year, coming in the evening after the commencement exercises.

The other committees which have charge of the many functions at the close of the year have not yet been announced by President Young but will be given out in a short time.

New Resolution.

All petitions for the use of the University Armory should be made to the Board of Deans and may be filed at the President's office. The Board of Deans meets regularly the first Wednesday of each month at 3:30 P. M.

FIGHT SHAM BATTLES AT IOWA THIS YEAR

U. S. WAR DEPARTMENT DONATES TO SCHOOL.

Thousands of Rounds of Ammunition Consigned to Military Department.

Sham battles at the state university this year. This was the announcement of Lieut. Morton C. Mumma, commandant of the Iowa cadet regiment yesterday afternoon. Word has been received from the headquarters of the United States Army conveying the information that the University of Iowa is this year to be allowed 41,880 rounds of ball ammunition; 20,940 rounds of gallery ammution and 3,000 rounds of field ammunition. This consignment means that the cadets of Iowa can have sham battles this year and that the interest in the military department will be increased many fold.

As soon as various athletic activities centering their interest around the armory and athletic field have ceased, the cadets are to be taken out doors for drill until weather makes them go inside. Gallery firing at the armory is to begin immediately and as soon as arrangements can be made in the early spring detatchments of troops will be taken to the rifle range of Company I of the Iowa national Guard several miles north on the Iowa river. Lieut. Mumma announces that he intends to give every individual of every company practice at firing this year and if week days do not permit the time Saturdays will probably be employed.

It is highly probable that the cadet regiment will camp this year at Cedar Rapids, the interurban company having opened up negotiations with the commandant with the end in view of conveying the troops to the parlor city town.

Arrangements are already being talked of for the military ball to be held some time in the early spring. This party is one of the most enjoyable formal affairs and is always looked forward to with great anticipation.

MINSTREL SHOW IS PLANNED BY IOWA BIBLE STUDENTS

Close Hall Tower Room to be Refitted by Y. W. C. A. Girls.

The Bible study committee of the Y. W. C. A. has undertaken to refurnish the tower room in Close Hall, in order to make it available as a rest and study room. In order to raise funds for this achievement, the committee, of which Margaret Seidlitz is chairman, has decided to give a minstrel show in the girls gym to which all women of the University and town will be admitted upon payment of an admission fee.

The date of the show has been set for Monday, December 12, and the

LILLA ORMOND TO APPEAR AT FIRST Y. M. C. A. RECITAL

Great Interest Being Taken in Coming Visit of Singer.

The first Y. M. C. A. recital of the year is to be held Nov. 17, and information relative to the first musical of the season has already been given out by those in charge of the affair. Miss Lilla Ormon, the famous Boston mezzo soprano, comes to Iowa to fill the first of the musical engagements made by the university's Y. M. C. A. The scloist comes to Iowa with her fame preceding her and the interest that is being taken in the coming event argues well for the success of the series of recitals planned by the Y. M. C. A. this year.

Miss Ormond's successes have not been confined to her social work alone. Though she has been out only two seasons she has sung with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, at the last Worcester Festival, and has made her debut in New York City and London with most unusual success for a new singer.

In personality Miss Ormond is strikingly attractive. She is of Irish extraction and both the beatiful timbre of her voice and her temperamental gifts show the warmth of the Celtic strain.

DOLE AT WEEKLY ASSEMBLY; MAN OF NATIONAL REPUTATION

Is Prominent Leader in Social Reform Movement.

President George E. MacLean has obtained Dr. Charles F. Dole as the speaker at tomorrow's assembly. Mr. Dole has a national reputation as a speaker of ability and the spesident promises that the assembly this week will be among the best of the year.

He is a trustee of Tuskeegee Institute, a member of the American Peace Society, and for over thirty years has been minister in Boston of the Jamaica Plain Unitarian Church. During the summer of 1899 his position as President of the Twentieth Century Club of Boston for many years brought him the personal acquaintance of the leading social reformers of the country, most of whom have spoken at the Saturday noon meetings of this reform club.

HAWKEYES RANK HIGH IN FOOTBALL CIRCLES

SECOND PLACE IN VALLEY CLAIMED FOR IOWA.

Great Improvement in Men Under Hawley's Leadership is Basis For Assumption.

First place without question in the state and second in the Missouri Valley, with a good clain to a high position in the Big Eight are the results of the season's work of the Iowa football squad and coaches. When Drake was overwhelmed on Iowa Field Saturday, the last possible obstacle to an undisputed title to state honors was removed, and today there are none to say that the title was not deserved. The claim to second place in the Missouri Valley is more pretentious tnd also much harder to substantiate. Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Ames have all some honors on which to base a claim. Iowa has lost to Missouri, Missouri to 9mes, Ames to Iowa, and Kansas to Nebraska. So Iowa's claim to the place must be based upon the great improvement in form since the Missouri contest. With his small number of veterans, Hawley was unable to shape his team in time for the first games of the seasoon; but when the men once got started the carnage amongst the opposing teams was awful. Both Missouri and Northwestern were lucky in meeting the Hawkeyes early, while Purdue, Drake and Ames were not.

Cosmopolitan Club Meets.

On Saturday night the Cosmopolitan Club held a meeting at their Club room in Close Hall. Mr. Bosch gave a most interesting paper on the government of Holland of which country he is a native. Prof. Wilcox gave an excellent talk on the principals of democratic government.

The next meeting of the club will be held Saturday evening in the liberal arts auditorium. This will be an open meeting and the public has been invited to attend. The Hindu students will have charge of the program in the same manner as the Japanese students had some time ago. The entertainment will commence at 7:30 sharp.

Dec. 2 8 P. M.—Intercollegiate debates in auditorium, Iowa-Minnesota at Iowa; Iowa-Wisconsin at Wisconsin.

A parishioner asked the parson if he practiced what he preached and the parson said: "Of course; why do you ask?"

"Ye have been preaching resignation for two years now and I don't see any signs of ye resigning."

It's a great thing to be called—especially if you hold the cards and you're not bluffing. A little girl (whose pa was a minister) was telling a playmate that her papa had been called to a neighboring parish at an increase of $500 in his salary.

"That's nothing," retorted the other little girl. "My papa gets called every night when he comes home late."

Another time a minister met one of his parishioners and exclaimed in great surprise, "Why, I thought I heard ye'd been called!"

"No, it was my brother who died."

"Too bad! Too bad!" the other one said.

Did you hear about the man who was asked, "Do you allow your cook any evenings out?" And the man answered, "No."

"How do you manage her?"

"We don't. She takes them."

Say, that's just what you want to do here. Come in and pick out what you want and manage it your way. If you need a complete outfit—hat, shirts, ties, sox, suit, jersey coat, shoes and cravanette—we are fixed all right for you.

G. U. Committee.

The first meeting of the Greater University Committe will be held this afternoon at five o'clock in the president's office. At this meeting the officers for the year will be selected and the general outline of the work to be done will be laid out.

President MacLean promises big things for the G. U. committee this year. The scope of matters taken charge of by this body has steadily enlarged itself since its organization two years ago. From a mere "boosters" committee it has gradually taken the place of a student governing board with all the powers belonging to such a body.

Among the first things discussed will be the plans for the regular University dinner and of the county club movement. Other questions to be taken up will be the increasing of the attendance at the university, the matters left to the committee by election pledges, such as the Hawkeye management; together with several other things of minor importance.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS
PAST AND PDOMISED

The Daily Argus Leader, Sioux Falls, (Ia.), says of "The Flower of the Ranch," "This attraction is a favorite here and this is good news."

Booked for Tues. Eve., Nov. 15.

"A large audience at the New Theater Sunday evening witnessed a splendid presentation of "The Flower of the Ranch," When last this company was seen here Joe Howard, the author, and his charming wife, Mabie Barrison, were joint stars. There were some misgiving that the comedy had fallen into inferior hands. While there is no Mr. Howard or Miss Barrison in the cast, the parts are all taken by competent people, and better still the different performers, be they members of the chorus or soloists they are not afraid to work. The comedy as put on Sunday evening is moving all the time Each performer is full of ginger and works as though they felt the responsibility of the show rested on their shoulders. When performers have such a feeling, the entertainment is bound to be a success.

Miss Mabel de Nordendorf, who appears in the part of the school teacher is a fine looker and a most capable singer. She was given hearty applause and made to respond to several encores every time she sang a solo. Nellie Watters who plays the part of "Folwer" is a natural born actress. She is like a cricket here, there and everywhere. And while her voice is not very strong it is sweet and attractive. John E. Frank and Chester Gates each have fine voices and their efforts met the approval of the large audience as was manifest on each occasion given.

All told the performance is certainly a good one and the company is deserving of a liberal patronage.

Coming with a record of 300 nights at the Whitney Opera house in Chicago, William Norris "My Cinderella Girl," which will be seen at The Coldren on Wednesday should prove a rare treat to the people of Iowa City It is one of those sprightly and brisk shows that move with great swiftness from curtain to curtain, and it is a perfect tonic in its effect upon an audience. In Chicago, it proved to be one of the funniest farces ever seen, and the audiences were convulsed with laughter from beginning to end. The songs numbers, which are numerous were staged by Gus Sohlke, who also selected and trained the chorus. The piece was staged by William Norris.

The Great Comedy Hit "Seven Days"

Fun—clean, wholesome, joyous fun—is the stuff of which "Seven Days," is made, the comedy by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood that is now in its second year in New York and will be at the Coldren Opera House Thursday.

A great deal of praise has been given to the authors for writing an American comedy that, as one critic said, "has more real humor in it than any twenty of the so-called popular successes" without so much as a hint of impropriety. "Seven Days" is a clean comedy. Quoting from the dramatic critic of the New York Globe, "This joyous howl of a farce hasn't a line or an incident in it that couldn't be laughed at unblushingly." The unparalleled success of this play proves that the American public prefers to laugh at the theatre and likes best of all to laugh at wit and humor and merriment that are free from coarseness. "Seven Days" is untainted by the broadness and suggestivesness upon which so many depend to create laughter, and it contains more laughter than all the others put together. It is in the second year of its New York run which continued all summer. It ran six months in Chicago. No comedy in years has caught as this one has. If it doesn't pack the theatre here it will be because the local public doesn't appreciate the best thing when it gets it. Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper, producers of this exceptional success, are sending here a cast whose members appeared at the Astor Theater, and the production is an exact duplicate of the one in New York. It will be a Broadway "Seven Days" in every respect.
