IOWA ALUMNUS WRITES FROM ARCTIC REGIONS

FORMER HAWKEYE ATHLETE TELLS OF EXPERIENCES.

R. M. Anderson Doing Zoological Survey Work in the Far North.

Letters from R. M. Anderson, a former captain of the Iowa track team, and at present in the employ of the American Museum of Natural History, have been received by his friends here and in other places in the state.

Mr. Anderson, in company with another Iowa man named Steffansson, left this country in May, 1908, with the intention of being gone sixteen months on a scientific expedition for the Museum. They traveled to northern Canada and other points within the Arctic circle, and their stay has already been prolonged to twenty-nine months, with prospects of an absence of three or four years. Mr. Stefansson is making an especial study of the people of those regions, while Mr. Anderson devotes his work to the zoological side. Mr. Anderson's letter is of peculiar interest, as it shows some of the exigencies of life in the frozen northland. The latest letter received is addressed to W. F. Riley, well known to many students as a track athlete and at present an attorney of Des Moines.

Mr. Anderson writes from Baillee Island, off the coast of Canada in the Arctic ocean. In his letter he tells of his being frozen in in September, and of being obliged to travel across country with sleds in order to reach Franklin Bay, where he spent the winter. In the spring Stefansson started on a long sled journey and had not been heard from at the time of writing. Anderson spent the summer traveling about from place to place studying the zoological specimens which the country affords.

The men expected to leave the northern country last summer, but Stefansson's long absence prevented this, and at last accounts Anderson expected to spend the winter at Franklin Bay again, coming out next year.

Y. W. C. A. Meets.

There will be a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. this evening at 7 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Nutting will speak on the subject, "The White Life," Girls! Come and hear what some other girls are doing to better themselves.

Special music will be rendered by Miss Eloise Brainerd and Miss Agnes Soderlind.

DEAN W. C. WILCOX RETURNS FROM TRIP THROUGH SOUTH

Attends Inauguration at Trinity College—Also Visits Virginia University.

Prof. W. C. Wilcox, dean of the Liberal Arts College, has just returned from an extended trip in the south where he represented the Iowa University at two important gatherings, the inaguration of president of Trinity College and the annual meeting of the Association of American Universities.

The inaguration of President William Preston Few as the new president of Trinity College took place at Durham, N. C., on Nov. 9. Very elaborate inaguration exercises were held and prominent men such as A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University; Harry Pratt Judson, president of Chicago University; and Dean Frederick Jones of Yale took part.

On November 11 and 12 Dean Wilcox, together with Dean Seashore, attended the annual meeting of the Association of American Universities held at Charlottesville, Virginia This association comprises 22 of the largest universities in the United States. At this meeting, important problems confronting the university world of this country, were discussed.

Dean Wilcox speakes very highly of the University of Virginia, where the meeting was held. The university was founded by Thomas Jefferson, and is a college for men only. Work at this institution is now being extended along the original lines planned by Thomas Jefferson.

NOVEMBER ISSUE OF ALUMNUS TO BE OUT MIDDLE OF WEEK

"Jimmie" Barry is Featured; Foot-Ball is Given Much Attention.

This month's Alumnus promises to be replete with interest. Although shorter than the issue of last month it is to contain short and intsructive articles of current interest. The biggest and best will be a story entitled "Jimmie Barry" and is written by Prof. A. G. Smith of the engineering department and a man who has known "Jimmie" for many years. The article will be accompanied by a full-page cut of the faithful guardian of Iowa Field, which picture is pronounced by Jimmie himself to be the best ever taken.

The other feature story will be by news with especial emphasis laid on Dean Klingenhagen on "University Collegiate Alumnae". Besides these two there will be the usual alumn the reunions; atheltic news and the regular allotment of university men.

The book will be issued the middle of the week, probably tomorrow.

DOLE WILL GIVE TALK AT TODAY'S ASSEMBLY

ONE OF BEST PROGRAMS OF THE YEAR PREPARED.

IS Man of National Reputation—A Member of Several Prominent Organizations.

The University and Iowa City are to be especially favored by the opportunity to hear the Rev. Charles F. Dole of Boston at the University Assembly on this morning at 10 o'clock. He will speak at the assembly on "Education for Efficiency," Mr. Dole is a man of national prominence as a speaker and author, and a man of public affairs, as well as a clergyman.

Mr. Dole is a graduate of Harvard and of Andover Theological Seminary, and in 1896 was honored with the degree of Doctor of Theology by Bowdoin College. He is a trustee of Tuskeegee Institute, a member of the American Peace Society, and for over thirty years has been minister of the Jamaica Plain Unitarian Church, Boston.

During the summer of 1909 Mr. Dole gave a series of lectures at the Silver Ray Y. M. C. A. Training school for officers.

Mr. Dole's position as President of the Twentieth Century Club of Boston for many years has brought him the personal acquaintance of the leading social reformers of the country, most of whom have spoken at the Saturday noon meetings of this reform club. Mr. Dole's writings reflect both his interest in religion and in social life. Among his principal books are "The American Citizen," "The Golden Rule in Business," "The Ethics of Progress," "The Theology of Civilization," "The Coming Religion."

Music School Enlarges.

The music department is making arrangements to occupy the building which was occupied by the "Varsity Wardrobe." The department has grown rapidly since Prof. Schoettle took charge which necessitates enlarging its quarters.

Alumnus Issues Book.

The Century Company of New York City has issued a volume entitled, "Readings in Civil Government," by Dr. Percy L. Kaye. Dr. Kaye graduated from the State University of Iowa in 1895. At present he is head of the department of history in Baltimore City college. The book is intended to be used in connection with courses in Civil Government in high schools and academys.

ANOTHER TAG DAY IS HERE: TO AID RECITALS THIS TIME

Y. M. C. A. Will Try To Sell Tickets In This Way.

Today you are going to be tagged. In all the buildings of the university the tagger will be in evidence, and unless you are anxious to be tormented to death it will be a wise plan either to remain at home or come across with the paltry amount asked.

The object of the tagging is to sell the tickets to every student for the Y. M. C. A. music recitals. The first number is to be given tomorrow evening by the Mezzo-Soprano, Miss Lilla Ormond of Boston Miss Ormond is a gifted singer and destined to achieve unlimited success in her chosen profession. It will be a delight for the music loving public to hear her and if the early sale of tickets is any indication of the final number sold, a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity of doing so.

The course is to contain three other numbers besides Miss Ormond. Miss Maud Powell, the most famous woman violinist in the world, will be here Nov. 12. Feb. 6, the world-famed contralto, Madame Schuman-Heink, will appear. The Bostonia Sextette Club will be here Feb. 27. As a single admisison to the Schuman-Heink concert alone is $1.50 and $2.00, the economy of purchasing a season ticket is apparent.

Marshall Law Elects Team.

The tryout for places on the championship debating team was held by the Marshall Law society, Friday night. C. C. Cavanaugh, F. C. Reed, and C. O. Sjulin were elected as the team and C. Steele was chosen as alternate.

Hesperian Program.

The Hesperian society gave its regular program last evening at Close Hall at 7:30. The following Nevin-Bond program was given:

Music.

Life of Ethelbert Nevin. Joanna Kyle.

Musical Monologue, Alice Rogers.

Solo, "A Perfect Day," Helen Silsbee.

Biography and Stories of Carrie Jacobs Bond, Anna Denzler.

Reading from Carrie Bond, Genevieve Willits.

Epsilon Tau Initiates.

Epsilon Tau initiated ten senior girls Tuesday evening at Close Hall. The following girls were elected: Ada Yocom, Helen Otto, Blanche Kensler, Eda Louis, Alice McGowan, Helen Letson, Iowa Neitz, Hannah Phelps, Hazel Reddick and Lou Kennedy.

LAST GAME SATURDAY FOR HAWKEYE STARS

WASHINGTON NOT EXPECTED TO PROVE DIFFICULT.

Alexander Will Not Play Against Southerners—No Let Up in Practice This Week.

Preparation for the Washington game began in real earnest on Iowa field yesterday. Practice was open again. It is not figured that Washington is likely to have any representatives present to watch the work of the Hawkeyes; but Hawley sent the men through a stiff scrimmage with the freshmen, and gave them a thorough signal drill. All of the men weathered the Drake game in good shape, and the team seems in the best of condition for the final battle of the year.

The line-up which faces Washington Saturday will in all probability be the same as the one which met Drake and Ames, with the exception of Alexander at right tackle. The big colored boy will not play against the southerners, and his place will be taken by Neidig. Otherwise the line-up will remain intact unless injuries disable some of the players before the game.

Not much fear is felt in the local camp concerning the outcome of the contest. Washington has been lamentably weak all year, and has been trampled upon by every strong team it has met. Hugo Bezdek's husky Arkansas aggregation trampled upon the St. Louis boys by a score of 50 to 0 on November 5, and Missouri beat them last Saturday 27 to 3. The Washington ends are said to be lamentably weak, and it is hard to see how any team so provided can hope to stop the rushes of men like Curry and Hyland. Nevertheless, the Iowa team and coaches are using every effort to guard against a disagreeable surprise, and no let-up will be allowed until the final whistle announces the end of the season of 1910 for Hyland and his men.

Freshmen Without President.

The freshmen class of the college of Liberal Arts is without a chief-executive. S. P. Kelley, the recently elected first year leader, suddenly left school last week, leaving his classmates without organization. No arrangements have been made for the "Freshman Frolic" which ordinarily occurs early in the first semester. Several prominent members of the first year class who were seen yesterday by a representative of the Iowan, stated that a meeting would be called soon and something definitely done. Miss Ruth Yetter is acting president pending a new election.

THE PASSING OF A HERO. . .

Last Saturday, the student body witnessed on Iowa field the farewell game of a man who has served Old Gold faithfully and consistenly for a period of three years—a man who has won his way to the heart of everyone who has watched him by the fierceness and tenacity of his fighting spirit, and a man who has always upheld and exemplified cleanliness of athletics. Mark Hyland deserves praise upon his record.

After gaining fame as a high school player of no mean ability, he came to the university and at a bound jumped into the foremost rank as a player of unusual ability and skill. Before he had served his second year on the varsity his fame had spread over the entire conference. And then, as a final honor, he has enjoyed the distinction of captaining a team which administered an honest defeat to Ames and which registered a glorious victory over a school that has twice in succession trampled Iowa to earth, thus leading his team to the first championship of the state it has held for some years.

"Mike" deserves the honor which has been his. He has fought unceasingly for the university. His sportsmanship is a tried and known quantity. It is not without a feeling of regret that we will eye his departure. But we can wish him well in the practice of the profession he has chosen, and we can always remember him as one of the most loyal of Hawkeyes.

Cheering thought (for another year): We beat Ames

It looks as if Drake is now among the rest of the broken idols of the state.

We candidly believe that Illinois had better confine the idea of a post-season game with Minnesota to her dreams.

At any rate, Hawley seems to be the man for whom Iowa has been looking for some time.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS
PAST AND PDOMISED

Think of a man and his divorced wife and a girl who is pretending to be his wife and a man who is in love with the pretended wife, and a rich spinster aunt who thinks they are man and wife, and a real husband and wife, a burglar and a policemn, being shut in a house for a week, with a quarantine guard watching to see that nobody gets out or in, the servants fled, and no communication with the outside world except by telephone. That one week in quarantine makes the clever comedy "Seven Days" which for more than a year has caused an epidemic of laughter in New York and for six months raged virulently in Chicago. This notable comedy success is coming here. It is booked for the Coldren on Thursday evening with a famous New York cast and a superb production. It will be presented in a mannner worthy of Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper whose reputation as theatrical producers has been established by many brilliant triumphs, and of these "Seven Days" is the biggest. Channing Pollock, author, dramatist and critic, in writing of "Seven Days" for the Green Book Magazine, said: "Mrs. Rinehart and Mr. Hopwood have built the most consistenly afusing farce that has ever been produced in America and between its succession of surprising situations, its crisp and witty dialogue, and its usually excellent interpretation, the piece is simply irresistable. A hard-shelled first night audience shook and roared and wept with merriment."

One of the elements of fun is a conspiracy to have a marriage ceremony performed by telephone between a couple who are pretending to be engaged to pique others of whom they are jealous.

Basket Ball Schedules Not Arranged.

Neither the varsity nor the inter-department basket-ball schedules have yet been made out. Y. M. C. A. Mid-Week Meeting.

"The Power of Prayer" is to be the subject for discussion at the Y. M. C. A. mid-week meeting tonight at 7:00. Mr. Floyd Smith will lead and several mothers will give short practical talks on this practical subject. There will also be special music.

C. S. A. Convention.

The national convention of the C. S. A. meets in Minneapolis Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, of this week. Owing to the fact that most of the work of the organization comes in the early part of the year the national officers have decided to hold the convention at this time instead of in April, as it has been held in the past. Delegates are to be sent from most of the western universities and since several more universities have joined the organization this year, a very enthusiastic meeting is expected.

The Iowa delegation left for Minneapolis this morning. Iowa is the only university having two representatives, owing to the division into men's and women's societies here. Miss Wilfarene Johnston of Cedar Rapids is the delegate from the C. F. U. and Jos. B. Scannell of Fairfield, represents the Newman society. Miss Johnston is a junior L. A. student, She has always been an active worker in her society and is the only lady delegate to have a seat in the convention. Mr. Scannell is a senior L. A. and has been a member of the Newman society for four years. S. E. Kelley, an old man, is national president.

IOWA CITY

Your Estimate Of Yourself

determines the kind of clothes you wear. We cater to those men who rate themselves with the progressives, but not necessarily the "insurgents." We try to make our store appeal to the man who likes to go things and who admires the man who makes his mark big. All of this has to do with good clothes because you find it fully exemplified in our stock of suits and overcoats.
